Say not Good Night, but in some brighter clime Bid me Good Morning." JOHN ALLEN, THE "WICKEDEST MAN IN NEW YORK." So much has been written and said recently about the so called "wickedest Man in New York," that doubtless by this time the fame of his deeds, or of his misdeeds, has spread to all parts of the country, and has probably crossed the Atlantic, to give the sinners of the Old World an idea of the moral atmosphere of the me- tropolis of the Western Continent. John Allen, the name of the individ- ual thus suddenly thrust into noto- tiety, kept a low dance-house at No. 304 Water street, which for a long	sing for us. She consented, and told Mr. Allen to select the pieces he would like to have the child sing. He at once selected a Sabbath-School song, beginning : "Shall we meet in Heaven above ?" Little Chester was perched upon a chair to sing the solo, the rest of the scholars coming in on the chorus. As just stated, "Shall we meet in Heaven above ?" was the burden of the first stanza. That of the second was : "Shall we wear a snowy robe ?" Of the third : "Shall we wear a snowy robe ?" Of the fourth : "Shall we wear a glorious crown ?" Each of these lines was repeated three times over, to a pleasant and varying melody, which brought out the sentiment forcibly. The perform- ance impressed us deeply. The eager ness with which this sin steeped man regarded his boy, as the little crea- ture sang verse after verse of that song, touched us to the heart. His next selection surprised us still more. It was : "Stand up for Jesus." After it had been sung, he re- marked, just as were taking our leave:	 was courteous and cordial, as he al- ways is to visitors. One of the dele- gates remarked : " I suppose this is about the worst section of the city, Mr. Allen, from all accounts ?" " Well, yes, it has had that repu- tation; but jast now it is completely eclipsed by Fourteenth street !" The retort was received with ap- plause, and and the delegates hailed "The Wickedest" as a man and a brother. Mr. Dyer concludes his article as follows : At 4 o'clock, r. fl., on Friday the 10th day of July, after the foregoing had been put in type, we had an in- terview with John Allen in the pri- vate room of Mr. Acton, and in Mr. Acton's presence, at Police Head- quarters, No. 300 Mulberry street. Mr. Allen protested against being called the Wickedest Man in New York. Said he: "I am not the wickedest man in this city. There are lots of worse men than I am-men who never help the poor, nor poor children, nor do anything for anybody, and Mr. Ac- 	We had a somewhat lengthy conversation with Dr. Loryea, says the Oregonian, concerning his trip to the Eastern States, in which he detailed some of his observations upon Eastern people; their knowledge, or rather ignorance, of Oregon; the reasons why our State is not better known; what has been done, what is doing, and what may be done to make ourselves known, to promote our general interests, etc., etc. – It would require too much space to say here all the Doctor talks; but of the interesting facts he presents we cannot forego stating at least a few. DIRECT TRADE WITH OREGON. On the matter of direct trade between New York and Oregon, he says that Messrs. Brockway & Baker, who own the line just put in operation through the representations of Mr. Mercer, have a considerable number of vessels of just about the right toninge and class for our trade, and that they are more than willing to employ them in this direction if the Oregon merchants will patronize them.
