MEETING AT CLATSKANIE.—We have received the proceedings of a meeting of the citizens of Clatskanie, in reference to volunteering for the war, which was held on the 12th inst. A. E. Thompson, Esq., was elected chairman, and Geo. V. Bell as secretary. Appropriate resolutions were adopted, and pertinent and patriotic addresses made by Col. Taylor and others. The following named gentlemen came forward at the meeting and volunteered for the war:—

JAMES TAYLOR, JOEL WELCH, L. B. HALL, D. H. TRINDER, JOHN RICHET, R. V. MORRISON, N. A. EBBERS, who have, with the most commendable despatch, already joined the forces now on their way to the scene of action. A resolution was passed to protect the claims of absentee in the army.

RELATIVE.—Col. Ford and party have returned from their trip of exploration to the Klamat country. The want of a competent guide was the cause of the unsuccessful issue of the expedition, as we learn. Col. F. intends to organize another company for the purpose at the earliest practicable time.

NEW FLOW.—Mr. J. B. Price, of this City, was showing us a few days since, his establishment, quite an improvement in the pattern and manufacture of the glow. The article was made by him after the style of a recent premium flow from Illinois. The mould-board is cast-iron, with steel share and wrought-iron coulter. It may be inspected at Mr. Price's.

To "Cola."—We found a communication in our office with this signature attached, which we must decline publishing, on account of the indecent language it contains. Although our press is free and open to all, yet we will not have it prostituted by being employed in a scurrilous controversy. With the view of achieving public good, 'Cola' may very well do the same himself, unless there is no means of changing the established pattern of the glow. The article was made by him after the style of a recent premium flow from Illinois. The mould-board is cast-iron, with steel share and wrought-iron coulter. It may be inspected at Mr. Price's.

AMENDMENTS TO THE ORGANIC LAW.—At the election next June, the people will be called upon to decide whether the Organic Law shall be amended as follows:

To strike out of Art. 34, Sec. 1st, the words 'Territorial Recorder' and insert 'Clerk of the county court, in the county, where said claim, or any part thereof, may be located.' Provided that where any doubt exists in the mind of the claimant, as to which of two counties his or her land may lie in, he or she may record in either.

Sec. 2. Any person, before his or her claim shall be recorded, shall be required to make oath, that he or she has abandoned all former claims, and that he or she may have had, to any other land claim in Oregon.

Sec. 6, to strike out the word 'regularly' and insert 'prohibitory.'

In relation to the oath of office, that it read—"You do appear, and affirm, as the case may be, that you will support the Organic Laws of the provisional Government of Oregon, and faithfully demean yourself in Office—so help you God.'

IMMIGRANTS FROM CALIFORNIA.—Letters have been received from California, which state that there will be quite an extensive emigration from that country to this, during this year. Many of those who went there, from Oregon, last year, have expressed themselves dissatisfied with the country, and intend returning.

NATURE'S NOBLEMAN.

Humble workman! 'mid the treasures
Earth so gratefully bestows,
Crowning rugged toil with pleasures,
That the sluggard never knows;
Vearly not in thy well doing,
Blessings follow every care,
Digging, planting, reaping, sowing,
Tilling God's own wide pasture.

His nation's pride—her strongest pillar—
Thousands, on a foreign shore,
Bless the noble, free-born licker,
Sharing his free-offered store;
Foes swear friendship, true and lasting,
Conquered by the "staff of life;"
Better than with red sword, blasting
Hopes and homes in deadly strife.

Honor, then, thy high vocation—
Speed the earth-controlling plow,
Tis the glory of thy nation,
Long, long, may it be as now;
Almost A those rich treasures
Fruitful nature lends to man,
Steward of earth's goods and pleasures,
God's own titled nobleman.

ANOTHER TRADE—The ship Don Quixol, with a cargo of goods for this port, was advertised to leave the islands a few days subsequent to the departure of the Vancouver. She is probably now in the river.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON.

I shall leave Oregon City about the 10th of May for the army. Those that wish to send letters, papers, clothing, provisions, munitions of war, etc., will deliver them at the Commissary office by that time. There will be an opportunity of conveyance for any new recruits, as I shall go up by vaster. There are a number of youths not 16 years of age, now on their way to the battle of field, viohated cheeks glov" with patriots and victory, who would like to have a small piece of bread from their friends in the valley. Harvest is near at hand—and there is a surplus of produce in the country. Fathers and mothers, send your brave sons a shirt, a pair of stocks, or a piece of bread.

Wheat will be received at the Island mill for the army, and forwarded immediately.

ALPHONSO BOONE.

CLACKAMAS CIRCUIT COURT.

A SPECIAL term of this court will be held at Oregon City, on the second Monday of June next.
