NOTE.

The public are hereby informed that I. Roby Ady, consider one note held by Charles McKay against me, for the sum of fifty dollars, to be null and void—as he has failed to perform the part of the agreement made by us for a claim situated near Champage—and I warn all persons or persons against trading for the said note. Said note was given in February last—and becomes due the first of June next. ROBY ADY.
