

ARRIVALS.—The Rev. Mr. Walker and family, associated with Rev. Mr. Eels, in the missionary cause among the Spokane Indians, arrived in town on Thursday night. Mr. Eels and family are daily expected. We are happy to hear of the health and safety of these families. As long as there are any of the Cayuse murderers at large, we should regard it as extremely hazardous for any family of whites to remain in the Indian country.

The Rev. Mr. Atkinson and family, attached to the Presbyterian Mission, arrived in town on Wednesday. They came passengers on the Samoset from the States to the Islands, and from thence by the Cowlitz.

RETURN OF THE TROOPS.—The volunteers have been returning in detached parties for the past week, and we presume that they have all arrived by this time, excepting the garrisons of Forts Lee and Waters, which are to remain. Whether they have been discharged we are unable to say, nor have we been able to get hold of any official report or document that will enlighten us as to what has been accomplished.

COL. GILLIAM'S OBSEQUIES.—We understand that the funeral solemnities, in honor of the late Col. Gilliam, will take place on the fourth of July, at the homestead in Polk county. Dr. McBride is expected to pronounce a eulogy upon the occasion. A procession and other testimonials of respect for the deceased, will constitute a part of the obsequies.

ROGUE RIVER TRIP.—We learn that Mr. John Sexton intends starting, on the 10th of next month, for Rogue river, to attempt to recover the horses which were stolen from him as he came in from California a few weeks since.

RAILROAD TO OREGON.—We see that the Legislature of Georgia, by the passage of resolutions, have instructed their Representatives in Congress to support the project of a railroad to Oregon.

PROHIBIT AND REGULATE—POPULAR VOTE.—We append the popular vote upon this question, at the recent election. Polk and Lewis counties remain to be heard from, which will slightly reduce the majority for Prohibit:

Counties.	Prohibit.	Regulate.
Clackamas, . . .	239 . . .	38
Champoeg, . . .	239 . . .	130
Linn,	93	14
Benton,	12	32
Yamhill,	54	134
Tualaty,	96	120
Vancouver,	29	22
Clatsop,	26	30

OUR "EXTRA."—A few hours after the arrival of the news on Wednesday, we issued an extra containing the most important part of it, for which there was such a demand that we could not fully satisfy it. We would take this occasion to remark that although in this instance we charged nothing for our extra, yet hereafter we shall be obliged to do so, as such extra work is always an additional expense. Notwithstanding we publish on every Saturday, we shall continue to issue extras whenever the importance of the news warrants it, provided our expenses are paid in so doing.

THANKS—To J. G. Campbell, Esq., for the use of files of papers from the Islands.

TO THE PUBLIC.

When the remains of my lamented brother, Col. CORNELIUS GILLIAM, were being transported to his family, those under whose direction the business was conducted applied to Mr. Adam Smith, of Yamhill county, for the use of his wagon in which to convey the coffin from Yamhill river. Mr. Smith REFUSED the use of his wagon, and for no consideration would allow it to be used, notwithstanding the peculiar circumstances of the case. I feel it my duty to make this fact public.

Oregon City, June 21, '48. M. GILLIAM.

MARRIED—On the 15th inst., by the Rev. V. Snelling, Mr. NINEVEH FORD of this city, to Miss MARTHA JANE, daughter of Wm. Simpson, of Champoeg county.
