W. G. T'VAULT, EDITOR.

Oregon City, March 5, 1846.

The absence of the editor will account for the want of editorial matter in the columns of this day's paper.

"A Citizen" is informed that another communication, touching the subject upon we presume, will be sufficient apology for not publishing his remarks.

APPOINTMENT BY THE GOVERNOR.

4TH MARCH. JOHN H. COUCH, Treasurer, vice Francis ERMATINGER, resigned.

The question for debate, before the "Falls Association," on Saturday evening. the 7th inst., we understand, is-

" Resolved. That the tendency of the law on Ardent Spirits, is productive of more evil than good, and ought to be repealed."

Doubtless an interesting debate will be had on this question, as it is one in which the present and future interests of this entire colony are involved.

WASHINGTON BALL.

Mr. Editor-Having been present at the ball on the evening of the 24th ult., given by Capt. H. M. Knighton, I have ventured being circulated there was to be ardent spirzens of Oregon. Perhaps it will not be amiss to say that, as the 22d came on the Sabbath, the ball was postponed until the 24th.

A Good Plan. - The Prussian government. in order to avoid as far as possible accidents upon the railroads, has founded a school at Berlin for teaching the art of directing and managing locomotives; and an ordinance has been issued that from and after the first of January, 1846, no persons shall be employed as drivers of locomotives on the railways of after-life.
