THE SPECTATOR.

Oregon City, January 5, 1848.

1. The Spectator will be continued to all the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year.

2. This is the 4th of February. The town will be five dollars a day, if paid in cash, four dollars per annum. In consequence of the winter weather, we are not able to print the issues of the 'Spectator' in this city. We hope to make the issue of the next day, and to send them immediately.

3. The beauty and quality of the paper used in the 'Spectator' is such as to please the eye, and at the same time to be of the best quality. The paper is made in this city, and is produced in such a manner as to make it the finest in the world.

PRODUCTION OF OREGON.

Oregon City, January 5, 1848.

1. The Spectator will be continued to all the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year.

2. This is the 4th of February. The town will be five dollars a day, if paid in cash, four dollars per annum. In consequence of the winter weather, we are not able to print the issues of the 'Spectator' in this city. We hope to make the issue of the next day, and to send them immediately.

3. The beauty and quality of the paper used in the 'Spectator' is such as to please the eye, and at the same time to be of the best quality. The paper is made in this city, and is produced in such a manner as to make it the finest in the world.

PRODUCTION OF OREGON.

Oregon City, January 5, 1848.

1. The Spectator will be continued to all the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year.

2. This is the 4th of February. The town will be five dollars a day, if paid in cash, four dollars per annum. In consequence of the winter weather, we are not able to print the issues of the 'Spectator' in this city. We hope to make the issue of the next day, and to send them immediately.

3. The beauty and quality of the paper used in the 'Spectator' is such as to please the eye, and at the same time to be of the best quality. The paper is made in this city, and is produced in such a manner as to make it the finest in the world.

PRODUCTION OF OREGON.

Oregon City, January 5, 1848.

1. The Spectator will be continued to all the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year.

2. This is the 4th of February. The town will be five dollars a day, if paid in cash, four dollars per annum. In consequence of the winter weather, we are not able to print the issues of the 'Spectator' in this city. We hope to make the issue of the next day, and to send them immediately.

3. The beauty and quality of the paper used in the 'Spectator' is such as to please the eye, and at the same time to be of the best quality. The paper is made in this city, and is produced in such a manner as to make it the finest in the world.

PRODUCTION OF OREGON.

Oregon City, January 5, 1848.

1. The Spectator will be continued to all the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year.

2. This is the 4th of February. The town will be five dollars a day, if paid in cash, four dollars per annum. In consequence of the winter weather, we are not able to print the issues of the 'Spectator' in this city. We hope to make the issue of the next day, and to send them immediately.

3. The beauty and quality of the paper used in the 'Spectator' is such as to please the eye, and at the same time to be of the best quality. The paper is made in this city, and is produced in such a manner as to make it the finest in the world.

PRODUCTION OF OREGON.

Oregon City, January 5, 1848.

1. The Spectator will be continued to all the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year.

2. This is the 4th of February. The town will be five dollars a day, if paid in cash, four dollars per annum. In consequence of the winter weather, we are not able to print the issues of the 'Spectator' in this city. We hope to make the issue of the next day, and to send them immediately.

3. The beauty and quality of the paper used in the 'Spectator' is such as to please the eye, and at the same time to be of the best quality. The paper is made in this city, and is produced in such a manner as to make it the finest in the world.

PRODUCTION OF OREGON.

Oregon City, January 5, 1848.

1. The Spectator will be continued to all the subscribers at the rate of $2 per year.

2. This is the 4th of February. The town will be five dollars a day, if paid in cash, four dollars per annum. In consequence of the winter weather, we are not able to print the issues of the 'Spectator' in this city. We hope to make the issue of the next day, and to send them immediately.

3. The beauty and quality of the paper used in the 'Spectator' is such as to please the eye, and at the same time to be of the best quality. The paper is made in this city, and is produced in such a manner as to make it the finest in the world.