same year was $482 764, making the Ter-|school and at home. When ritorial tax exceed the County 884, occasion-ed by the poll tax. The aggregate sum of taxes due from Clackamas County for the relief in free unrestrained exce year 1846, is one thousand and fifty dollars muscles. Yes, you s and fifty three cents, of which amount I have proper manner go out with collected and paid into the Territorial Treasury the sum of $466 96, as per Treasurer's will take your place,) and lead the receipt. I have collected $25 Territorial to those kinds of play which will tax, that I have now on hand not paid into the their good. During the few years Treasury. For collecting, I am entitled to perience I have tried this with my per centum, which after deducting the amount of my receipts, cash on hand and the per centage, leaves a balance of $16 61 unpaid. The amount of County Taxes for the year 1846, as before stated was $482 764, of which I have collected and paid into the county Treasury as per Treasurer's Receipt the sum of $106 61. I have now on hand (County taxes) the sum of $108 18, making the sum collected $214 79. My per centage on that amount is $21 17, leaving a balage on that amount is $21 17, leaving a bal-ance of County tax not yet collected of or covered with flocks of the a $246 50.

I have been explicit, as it gives me much satisfaction, and I must speak loudly in praise of the citizens of Clackamas County, as it is well known that the necessities of the people are equal in this county to any other; the times are hard, and yet they have shown that high minded republican spirit in contributing towards the support of our provisional government.

That there is much difficulty and vexation attending the collection of revenue none can for a moment doubt; business being transacted in Oregon principally upon the scrip and order currency; consequently many disappointments occur as it often happens that the drawer neglects or refuses to pay, in such cases the collector must be put to much trouble and delay.

In collecting, I have not adopted the motto, "Peaceably if you can, forcibly if you must." It has been my constant course to persuade and endeavor to obtain the taxes in as mild and amicable a manner as possible. I have succeeded to the extent described .-I shall, while it suits the people of Clackamas to confide their trust in me, endeavor to continue in that course, as I do not think it becomes any person exercising an office un-der our provisional government, to force in a rigid manner the duties of their office.

WM. HOLMES, Sheriff of Clackamas County.

For the Oregon Spectator.

Education, No. 6. In order that the mind be fully developed, and that without the loss of health so often following the close application to study, there must be a corresponding growth of the physical parts. They are so intimately connected that unless both are attended to at the is weight. compelled to suffer. You may suppose that your child is doing well enough if he be able to 'make a speech' in school, or recite Compe sar, or Virgil with ease, or work out the difficult problems of Euclid; but you have forgotten the many midnight hours spent in triming the lamp of industry, when sweet 39 inches; length, balmy sleep should have been restoring his chamber, 9 inches care-worn frame to somewhat of nature's ameter of bore, 18 is wonted vigor. Your child comes home from Range of shot or school after several hours close application greater than the retaining to his books without any respite or if play he has, it is restrained within such prescribed the reach of any g bounds that he is constantly on the alert for at Vera Cruz fear that he may overstep his privileges.— The consequence is that he has a head-ache, or poor little fellow 'he has no appetite, he must be sick,' and 'he cannot go to school to day.' The consequence is that he is refresh ed and is enabled to go to school the next day with renewed vigor of mind and body in consequence of the relaxation from his duties. And if nature's own course be not obstructed by the use of medicine, we see the respite from study. Now this is not necessarily the case if a teacher does his duty and the scholar be allowed the opportunity to consideration the growing of relaxation during both forenoon and after- jumping claims. Instances a noon. For a time cach morning after an curred, under very aggravated contrance into the school each one is vigorces, which call loudly for a prescuisty pursuing his studies and all things prosper. But after a time the body is over position, and the mind sympathising with the position, and the mind sympathising with the last of the public peace and public that is drooping. At this time too often the all to the public peace and public that is drooping. Portland, 2d Sept. 1847. taxed by being compelled to remain in one worst remedy is applied with the spirit of a combatant in battle. I mean the rod, that which is indispensable at the proper time Mr. T. R POWERS, of this and under the proper circumstances, both in M. NEWTON of Polic cour

PALESTINE .- Almost at the Carmel, there stands a sol rock that juts out into the se towers are in a ruinous a sive enough to afford a Bedouin, as well as a home to the And this home "of a night" is and impressive one; the b waves bathe the walls of the ery side, save one, a narrow pa to the Main. Many of the ap still entire and very spaciou merly, lodged the Kings and Pris Crusades. The sun was setting on a battlements, as we rested on our is side them, for their shelter is the long way on the coast. After the coast of the Christians by the capture of Proof Acre, this noble castle of Pelegieft desolate, till a singular instance ing occurred. Only a few years of a small and solitary band of Ke possession of it, and defended it wit for sometime, against all the power of

The castle of Pelegrino is what the enthusiasm of a achieve. As we stood b walls, we could not help age that, in this sea-girt hold, h fiance the whole power of the With great labors they res ed defences, while the with their walls and floors of afforded ample lodging for t From the towers they migh many a faded and spored so valley and shore, in defense valley and shore, in d came to give their life-at le fessed—and their deeds did not words. A well of water within t plied their thirst, and incurs sides of the mountain or the p where hamlets and pastures are ed, supplied no doubt the demands fence will not exceed one sixth the cost of the wr England by Capt. Stockton

THE GREATEST IRON GON BYES CA

When the sacrifice which a friend to make is greater you obtained thereby, your d courteous.

Claim Jr The Citizens of Tualatin those residing in that county; requested to attend and assist measures to suppress this evil, so