DEFENCE OF LA PAZ.

November 18, 1847. About two o'clock on the morning of the 18th, a party of some 200 Mexicans and Californians, under Poveda, made an attack on La Paz, which was garrisoned by a little over 100 N. Y. Volunteers under Lieut. Col. Burton.

They were again driven off about 10 A. M., when a party of the enemy succeeded in occupying some of the houses in the lower part of the town.

SECOND ATTACK ON LA PAZ.

November 17, 1847. Poveda again attacked this place on the 17th, with near 400 Mexicans, Californians and Indians.

The action lasted from 3 P. M. till 8. The enemy had a small piece of artillery. They were again driven off with great loss and have not shown themselves since.

ATTACK ON SAN JOSE.

November 18, 1847. A party of about 150 Mexicans and Californians, attacked the garrison of this place, which consisted of only about 80 or 90 soldiers, under Haywood.

The assault on the barracks was several times renewed, and the enemy as often repulsed. The action was continued at intervals for about two days, when the enemy gave up the attempt, and retired from the town.

DEFENCE OF GUYMAS.

November 17, 1847. A large party of Mexicans having entered this town, a part of the crew of the Dale, landed and drove them out again, after a pretty smart action, in which 7 or 8 of the enemy were killed.

The Dale is at Guaymas, the Sloop Cycas at La Paz, and the Southampton at San Jose.

THE UNITED STATES.

A court martial had been ordered for the trial of Lieut. Col. Fremont, on charges preferred by Gen. Kearny.

Gen. Taylor had received six months leave of absence, and had returned to the United States.

We are only able to extract hurriedly from American papers of September, as follows:

ENGLAND.—Judging by the Sicile, the panic in England continued.

Among the further failures is Mr. W. Robinson, the governor of the bank of England.

FRANCE.—The number of bankruptcies in Paris during the past year is 1,196.

The Duchess of Praslin was cruelly murdered in her own bed-room.

IRELAND.—The fire engine superceded.—The firemen will learn with pleasure that Mr. Phillips of London, has lately invented a "fire annihilator" for instantaneously extinguishing fires by created vapor.
