MARRIED.

By Rev. George H. Atkinson, at the residence of Judge Thornton in Oregon City, on the evening of Monday the 30th inst., Capt. George W. Roberts and Miss Emaline-Kester, both of Clackamas Co.

Accompanying the above notice we received a bountiful share of the most delicious cake. It is highly praiseworthy that amid their joy and feasting they did not forget the printers. One at our elbow says that it meets his warmest approbation, and he moves that the custom be established all over the territory. They all join us in wishing the happy pair, peace, plenty and never ending happiness.

On the 8th ult., by Elder W. S. Adams, Mr. G. J. Baskett, of La Creole, to Miss Catharine S. Bristow, of Pleasant Hill, Benton county, Oregon.

SPECIAL AGENCY OFFICE,
POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
Portland, Sept. 9, 1850.

To the Postmasters of this Territory:

GENTLEMEN—From information indirectly received, I fear there has heretofore been too little caution in receiving and opening the mails of the United States at the various offices, and the want of a full supply of copies of the laws of the United States on post offices and post roads, render it necessary that I should speak of this matter through the public press. Therefore, no postmaster or postmaster, by the laws of the United States, are allowed to open the mail or close the same in any room where bystanders can touch or handle the mail matter, and no person permitted to handle the same or assist in performing the duties of deputy postmaster without first having taken and subscribed to the following oath of office, before some judge or justice of the peace, to wit:

"I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will perform all duties required of me and abstain from every thing forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of post offices and post roads within the United States."

Also, any mail carrier employed by you, is required to be sworn as above. You are to keep a correct account of all receipts and delivery of mails, and of the receipts for any letters delivered at your office and those sent to other offices.

Special Ag't Post Office Dep't.
