POETRY. THE GAMBLES.

A gambler is what?—he is one whose cognomina To rules of good order has long been a foe-man.

Yea, still, May 31, 1851. A NOVEL APPLICATION OF GRAMMAR.—A precocious youth being given the word frog to parse...

A CALIFORNIAN AT WEST POINT.—Mr. Gilbert has forwarded to Adronico Vallejo, his appointment as Cadet at West Point.

WE would have all young men inquire what time their sweethearts rise in the morning, and how they spend their days...

VIRGINIA AND THE COMPROMISE.—The Compromise resolutions have been adopted by the Virginia House of Delegates.

WOMAN.—It is the part of a woman, like her own beautiful planet, to cheer the dawn and darkness—to be both the morning and the evening star of man's life.

Jenny Lind refused to leave New Orleans on Sunday, and the boat had to be detained until Monday for her return.

From the Albany Atlas. Caught in his own Trap. A girl, young and pretty, but above all gifted with an air of adorable candor...

MARRIAGE. A man is never so handsome, never so perfect in my eyes as when he is married.

SALE OF PROF. WEBSTER'S LABORATORY, ETC.—The various appliances of the late Prof. Webster's laboratory were sold at Auction by Mr. Leonard, Tremont Row.

DEATH OF GEN. BRADY.—Gen. Brady, of Detroit, died on the 15th inst., from the effects of injuries received by being thrown from his carriage.

MARRIED WITHOUT KNOWING IT.—A gentleman of Indiana is claimed by a lady in this city as her husband!

THE SUSPENSION BRIDGE OVER THE NIAGARA, from Lewiston to Queenston, was tested in the presence of a large number of persons.

BRONX OR BROWN.—Lord Byron has said that, with "all his billions," he never would be guilty of stopping his pen, or preventing the payment of an editor's bill.

FROM THE LEAD OF THE... CONCERNING THE... THE... THE... THE... THE...

CHARACTER OF... A pious old pastor, an honest sailor, a rich author, an insouciant old maid...

DISAPPEARING... A old in a country town, a shipman to quarter deck, and a school committee on examination day.

KNOWING CHAPS.—Those country merchants that bid off those cheap gold watches. These chaps that give those gift books and those jewelry that give us the latest news from Washington.

PRIZE FIGHTING.—Tom Hyer issued with a challenge to fight any man in the world for $10,000 a side.

THE EMPEROR OF RUSSIA has commissioned his agents to purchase every model of the Great Exhibition...

FACTS.—He who has a high forehead, will have his eyes under it, and will live all the days of his life.

WOMEN who have curious eyes will in all likelihood have eyes under their noses...

BRONX OR BROWN.—Lord Byron has said that, with "all his billions," he never would be guilty of stopping his pen...
