The Fight between Generals Foote and Quitman. BEN. QUITMAN'S STATEMENT OF THE AFFAIR TO THE PROPER OF MINNESSTPPE.

HERNANDO, July 19, 1851. The joint canvass between Senator Poot and myself terminated yesterday, abruptly, in Sledgeville, Panela county.

It is due to you that the causes which brought about this event, should be made public.

I embarked in the causes under an agreement in writing apparent in the causes under an agreement in writing arms and the the agreement in writing, proposed by the friends of Senator Poote, and-accepted by me, "that, during our canvass, nothing of a personal character would be introduced by either party, but that the canvass should be confined to the political issues between us, before the people," to the ob-servance of which understanding our friends mutually pledged themselves.

At our first and second appointments, I declared expressly that I would neither introduce personal matter, nor assuit my opponent's motives, nor even allude to his political acts not connected with the pre-sent issues before the country, nuless com-pelled to do so by the course of my opponent. On my part I have, so far as I was permitted, conformed to the agreement and adhered to the course proposed; but or six thus during this convens, and that he expected to be assassinated, but that, in such an execut, the blood of a Union man would gry to heaven for vengeance. It is true he said that he did not accuse any prominent man of the State rights party of such intention, but by this language he left murderous imputations upon his opposers generally. As the canvass proceeded he became more personal. I had, upon several occasions, alluded to the arrivar are cently found and was forty years, was recently found and was upon several occasions, alluded to the arbitary and alarming powers asserted by the three; of President Pillmore, to use the military force of the United States against Taxes; and I cited the indignity lately of forred to Mississippi, in orging the arrest and removal of the Governor of the State to New Orleans for trial, on a groundless charge, thus virtually suspending the exeoutive powers of the State government.

In the debate at Panola, Gen. Poste, in an answer to this point of my argument, defended the conduct of the President, and although he disavowed the intention of imputing to me any guilt, yet be intimated that there was cause for suspicion in the alleged fact that some arms belonging to the State of Mississippi had been car off to be used in the Cuban expedition

In my reply, I said that the charge or insinuation, coming from whatever source it might, that I had been either instrumental in, or cognizant of the removal or ale the State, was false and scandelous.

With this, I supposed further altusion to the subject would end; but, on the fiext day, at Sledgeville, Senator Foote, in the same unqualified manner, repeated the in-Determined to reply, to a manner which could not be misunderstood auch indirect assaults upon orgeharacter. in my rejolader I deliberately pronounced insignation as false and cownelly scandelous and ungentlemanly. Upon some inquiries by him of what I meant, I

Standing upon the ground, with a table say that, under the circumstances, I re-lieved that further joint debate between us would be injurious to the public morals and therefore I declared our joint appoint-ments terminated from that day. While thus speaking, I was several times inter-rupted by Senator Foote, and at length heard his voice near me, on my light, ex-claim you are a list; and turning tow-ards him, I saw him advancing and siming a blow at me, which slightly grazed my person. Before Leould turn upon him, quickly glided back out of the reach of my arm, and as I sprang towards him a number of gentlemen rushed in, and pro-tested him from merited chastisement, but fet, and one with my foot, the force of both weakened by the effort of persons present to hold me back. This some socurred in the presence of a large and til I had dealt him a blow with my spectable audience of ladies and gen-

While I feel mortified in having been an unwilling participator in a scene so disregulable to a canvase for a high and diguilled office, I feel assured that I will dignified office, I feel assured that I will be justified by an intelligent public in having used the the strongest language to repel an incidious attack upon my character repeated for the accord or third time. I shall make no comments upon this affair, being content to leave it to the j dgment of an intelligent and highminded community.

As Important Invention.—Mr. Mo latyre, of Peoria, illinois, has invented an apparatus for raising and removing buildings, which is said to be a great improvement, on the sorew, so far as the economy of the precess is concerned. The building is relied by the application of double leaver, as sensitivated as to be readily applied, and enabling two men, with a comparatively small machine, to raise 20,000 pounds about as easily as to raise water in a common sistern pump. The truck upon which the building to be moved is placed, to se constructed as greatly to finditions. The poil of the territory of Minnesota is and to be admirably adapted to the culture of flax. Some enterprising capitalists at the frame and the consequent crashing of the frame and the consequent crashing of the frame and the consequent crashing of the walls, much less. A patent will be changed for it.

Variation

A horrible affair recently occurred in one of the courties in Missouri. Mr. Henry Best, an old citteen, was intoxicated, and beating his wife. His son, who was nearly grown, and a very worthy young men, interfered, when the father attacked him. He struck the old man in self-defence with a board, cutting the scalp nearly off his head, when a young or brother, (only about twelve years old.) was called on by his father to run his helfe tota his brother. He did so, literally cutting his abdomen open, and letting out his bowels on the ground. Young Best died the next day. The father was Best died the next day. The father was likely to die, and the boy ran away some where in the neighborhood-with the mark of Cain upon him. O whiskey, these are thy fruits!

0.7 A barrel of pork, supposed to have been in the bed of the Suiota river over forty years, was recently found and was slightly injured. The Chillicothe Gazene states that a gentleman of that city, Mr. Thomas James, has identified the barrel as being a part of a cargo of park which, in the year 1804, he was raking down from Cardicothe to the mouth of the Sci-ota. In passing down the Sciota, a short distance above old Alexandria, one of the oats was stove in and thirty barrels were Mr. James claims that the barrel tound is one of these. He adds that John McCoy, Esq. (another pioneer merchant of Chillicothe,) was a partner in the pork operation, and the adventure was the first pork ever taken out of the river, except 200 barrels which Mr. James carried wouth in 1903-

63 A singular illustration of the due tility and tenacity of Iron has been proing Esq. the Brown Iron Works, Smeth-wick, England. It is in the form of a beck, the leaves of which are of iron, rolled so fine that they are nothtoker than a piece of paper. The book is neatly bound in red morocco, and contains forty-four of these from leaves, the whole being four of these iron leaves. only the fifteenth of an inch thick. This curious book is the work of Charles Hood who is in Mr. Downing's employment, was rolled the ordinary sheet iron rolls, and is a singular illustration of the extreme tenacity of iron.
