

Correspondence.

For the Spectator.
Ms. Editor.—Can you inform me whether there is any time specified in which the laws were to have been printed?

As to the time the laws were to have been printed we are not informed, but we are of the opinion they were to have been printed and delivered in Oregon some time during the latter part of summer.

Mr. Editor.—It is no use to try to suppress it, for the thing is out in this expansive neck of woods, and actually decided by a constitutional majority.

A WOMAN OF FASHION.—To be a woman of fashion, is one of the easiest things in the world.

HENRY CLAY AND THE NEXT PRESIDENT.
The Lexington Observer and Reporter of yesterday, speaking of the movements now being made in favor of certain gentlemen as candidates for the next Presidency, says:
We look upon it as utterly unwise in either party to stir the question of the Presidency at this early time.

STREET DUMPS.—A remarkable instance of electric influence upon the voice and of the power of galvanism as a remedy, is related in the Sunday Post.

A letter in the Dedham Democrat, dated at Hingham, narrates the following singular fact, establishing the teachableness of the "little fishes."

POWER TO COMMUTE.—President Fillmore, who, under the law as it exists at present, is said to have no power to commute a sentence of death, has referred the case of Clements, the associate of Douglass and Benson, recently hung in New York, to the District Attorney.
