

Oregon Spectator.

Saturday Morning, October 29, 1858.

Advertisements... We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

Advertisements to Subscribers. We offer to the following subscribers...

an unusual democratic exertion... full influence over the minds of its peo- ple.

Lola Montes was married... in California to Mr. Patrick Parry Hull, one of the proprietors of the Whig & Advertiser.

The reply to the challenge has not been reported... Lola we know is still living.

The Oregon will be soon... the present year, her population has increased 10,000.

True, Mr. Harris, we shall be... ing soon, but not so soon as next January.

The steamer Arctic made its... appearance over at the Sound, several weeks since.

The Democracy of the U. S. have... been in existence of delight, because they thought the whig party was dead.

Several articles intended for... this number of the paper have been crowded out.

The Democratic party, united and... powerful—the Whig Party dead and passing to Forgetfulness!

The idea that his commission by the... Baltimore Convention was the occasion of the various humbugs ever promul- gated in this country.

The Jeffersonian, a staunch democ-... rat paper published in the northern part of N. Y. remarks as follows:—

In a long and able article in the U. S. Review, said to be from the pen of a distinguished statesman, and one who has a right to speak and to be heard upon the subject, it is thus written concerning the union of the democratic party:—

Our Devil says he counted forty... erroneous geographical errors on the pictorial page of the Commercial Oct. 24.

Our Devil says he counted forty... erroneous geographical errors on the pictorial page of the Commercial Oct. 24.

Our Devil says he counted forty... erroneous geographical errors on the pictorial page of the Commercial Oct. 24.

Our Devil says he counted forty... erroneous geographical errors on the pictorial page of the Commercial Oct. 24.

We learn from the Oregonian that... the Pacific Mail Steamship's Company, have built a wharf at St. Helens.

The removal of M. P. Deady... from the office of the Oregonian, has given much mourning comfort to the editor of the Oregonian.

He was waiting for Judge... every side. Yet without explanation, without a reason being assigned, he was removed.

Some of the Port Oxford people... have been lately exhibiting their Piles of gold dust, with the view, it is said, of tempting some of our boys down there to try their luck.

We learn from Mr. Fargo that... everything in the Rogue river country is quiet. The farmers have all got back to their homes.

Our Oregonian—An abundant supply... of apples from the orchard of Gen. M. M. McCarver, acknowledged to be the finest in the room.

Our Oregonian—An abundant supply... of apples from the orchard of Gen. M. M. McCarver, acknowledged to be the finest in the room.

Our Oregonian—An abundant supply... of apples from the orchard of Gen. M. M. McCarver, acknowledged to be the finest in the room.

We learn from the Columbian that... a fight occurred between the whites and Indians (Mokays) at New Douglas.

The Right Rev. M. Demers, Bishop... of Vancouver Island, spent several days in this city last week.

We learn that Mr. Elliot has arrived... in the upper part of the valley, and that some 20 wagons, in all, with him.

Dear Mr. Harris:—The "Columbia"... has already been detained here several days in consequence of the non-arrival of the mail steamer "Oregon."

The principal matter before the public... for a few days past, has been in regard to the seizure of the brig "Arrow" by Gen. Hitchcock.

Some of the Port Oxford people... have been lately exhibiting their Piles of gold dust, with the view, it is said, of tempting some of our boys down there to try their luck.

We learn from Mr. Fargo that... everything in the Rogue river country is quiet. The farmers have all got back to their homes.

Our Oregonian—An abundant supply... of apples from the orchard of Gen. M. M. McCarver, acknowledged to be the finest in the room.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.

The mail steamer "Oregon" arrived... this morning, to the great delight and relief of many anxious persons who were expecting friends.