There are six thousand Frenchmen and five thousand Germans in San Francisco.

to be on guard, lest the grim specter lay its skeleton hand upon the unsuspecting coasts of the administration and condemn it and the whole party together.

The decay of all vegetable matter in a town is everywhere visible in a like latitude to that of ours, east of the mountains.

Yesterday I received the Spectator of Oct. 6, 21 days after date. This shows something of our mail arrangements.

If you gentlemen who wield the Power of the Press, would so wield it as to get us a mail route from Portland to the Cascades, via Vancouver, and other places, it would much enhance the value of your craft.
