Information Wanted

OF WM. BEAN, who left Clinton county Missouri, about the first of May, 1853, for Oregon in company with Jas. Allen's train. At or near Malheur river he became separated from said train in company with Andrew Heil and James Sperry, and has not been heard of since, by the undersigned. Any one who can give information with regard to said Bean or either of the aforementioned comrades, will confer a great favor by addressing N. B. Bean, Lafayette O. T.

GLEASON'S PICTORIAL
DRAWING-ROOM COMPANION.

A Record of the beautiful and useful in Art.

The object of the paper is to present, in the most elegant and available form, a weekly literary melange of notable events of the day. Its columns are devoted to original tales, sketches and poems, by the

BEST AMERICAN AUTHORS,

and the cream of the domestic and foreign news; the whole well spiced with wit and humor. Each paper is with numerous accurate engravings, by eminent artists, of notable objects; current events in all parts of the world, and of men and manners, altogether making a paper entirely original in its design, in this country. Its pages contain views of every populous city in the known world, of all buildings of note in the eastern or western hemisphere, of all the principal ships and steamers of the navy and merchant service, with fine and accurate portraits of every noted character in the world, both male and female. Sketches of beautiful scenery, taken from life, will also be given, with numerous specimens from the animal kingdom, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea. It is printed on fine satin-surface paper, with new and beautiful type, presenting in its mechanical execution an elegant specimen of art. It contains 1564 square inches, giving a great amount of reading matter and illustrations—a mammoth weekly paper of 16 octavo pages.

BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED
