OREGON SPECTATOR.

C. L. GOODRICH, EDITOR, PROPRIETOR AND PRINTERA

..... [TERMS, FIVE DOLLARS PER ANNUM-IN ADVANCE.

VOL. 7.

OREGON CITY, OREGON TERRITORY, FRIDAY, MAY 19, 1854.

THE OREGON SPECTATOR: Wm. Wilson, J. L. Imbrie, P. Wilkes.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER, ORYOTED TO THE MORAL, POCIAL, LITERARY, PO-LITICAL AND AUGISTICAL INTERESTS OF THE PROPER OF OBSCOR.

Published every Friday evening -Office in Good's phreys, H. Lindsay, P. Harris, building, Main Street, Oregon City.

TERMS: INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE One copy, per amoun _________$. 00
" for six months _______$3 00

RATES OF ADVERTISING. nul and Business Cards, of 10 lines or Professional and russians, $20 per annum.

A liberal deduction made to yearly advertisers.

The number of insertions must be distinctly marked on the margin, otherwise they will be continued till f-rhid, and charged accordingly.

PUSTAY.

We publish the following to gratify the wish of a boly, who suggested the selection of it. We think, if an editor penned it, he was one of that kind who are inclined to put too much stress on their own toil-one duties. Why should it ever be first in his mind to make people believe that they are the most industrious men in the world! Every body knows that there are others who toll, as much as editors :--

THE EDITOR'S SONG.

The editor site at his table. Writing as well as he's able, Paragraphs, leader and poti-His se ssors beside him her bying, Whilst he is in agony trying Of edgy to famish chang's Total Soil Soil ! What a weary life is infine! Wasting the processin linght of, In leader, and cohomo, and one; Working from meen till night, Working from might till morn, Of why was the steam press ever made, Or why was the ed for born "

And whose is the gan whin won " Whose are the tropless we achieve, And for whom are the laurels wen Testand in the foremost rank of each hard fought party tray. To share the toil, and only to get Above and reglect for pay !

Teal, tool, toil ! What a thankless task is mire To make the bread and press the chees That Congression Jones devours! To set on a three leaged stool, Whist offices have their stuffed sent-To prepare the hash and rook up the ste-Hat never to taste the meats!

Tool, tool, toil! As the constant drop on a stone, So this reassless, endless work Wears away body and bone ! Though the poets splutter and write. Though the grater balls and brawl If it were not for the editor's pen. What were the use of it all '

Christians, Mornous and Jows Is there a man on the wears earth But grows redict by reading the news As they read by sunlight and taper. and yet there can't a said of them ail But gradges to pay for his paper

Toil, to I, toil ! There's a row in the very next street! Somebody's going to murder his wife. And I must be off tout suite Yesterday just at this time. Two policemen got choked in a rist; And so it goes on from morning till night. And an editor never knows quiet.

Gets up, knocks his het over his eges, and rush in an excited manner, to pack up an item ing as he goes that he has the most moth cient corps of reporters in the country

Proceedings of the Washington County Whig Convention.

Pursuant to notice the whigs of Washington county by their delegates from the ceedings were had:

On motion, A. Himman was chosen chair man, and W. S. Caldwell secretary.

On motion, M. Tuttle, R. M. Hawkins the dominant faction. and C. Hutchins were appointed a committee to examine the credentials of delegates. person or by proxy:

Wilson, C. Hutchins, J. L. Terwilliger and fellow citizens. J. H. A. Mills.

Hillsboro precinct -J. S. White, J. L.

Porest Grove-M. Tuttle, R. M. Porter, J. C. Mendenhall, A. C. Brown, H. C. Ray made by Congress and acquiesced in by the 'ere almighty powerful, densely populated trary are hardly commenced, and that, be-

Dairs Creek -T. R. Comelius, E. Davis,

Black Creek - D. J. Schnebly. Fair View-D. Smith, A. Himman, S.

Wilrey, R. M. Hawkins, J. Davis, Wapato J. T. Reed, A. Hill and C. ting.

Capenhaver. The report was accepted, and the conven-

On motion, it was voted.-That the condidates to be supported at the June election, cial enactment or otherwise than by a geneeach candidate to be ballioted for seprately, ral law of the land for such purposes. and a majority of all the votes cast to be necessary to secure a nomination.

the first ballot. Whole number of votes 38, David Logan received 24 votes and was declared nonunated.

38, M. R. Barnour received 31 and was dec and their ability for self-gove nament. clared nominated.

ed 23 and was declared the nomince.

For Sheriff, whole No. votes 38, R. E. Wiley received 35 and was declared nominoted.

For County Auditor, whole No. votes 38, od mominated.

For County Commissioner, whole No. of votes 35, L. Mitcheli received 35 and was declared tectain sted

The rules were suspended, and John H. Couch and A. Hannan were declared the unanimous choice of the convention for 2d Where for Sounty Treasurer.

and was declared nominated, votes 34, J. M. Keeler received 23 and was logic 'em a little o'my advice ; declared nominated.

On motion, the rules were suspended and the following named persons nominated: Dr. R. R. Wilson, for Coroner, J. N. for Major, of Regimental District.

were appointed a committee to draft resolut negotiations" (1) right away! He'd go at tions expression of the sense of the convent of spry l'insure; and in less than two year' tion, who reported the following, which you'd get the thing did and your cods comwere about it:

Washington have seen fit to assemble in of a perceeding, than to be forever fillin' the reasons which have impelled them to or; with that ar "Statesman," and tryin' to get gamz in this county upon the basis of princit to help you out. True, it may be 'head throughout the Union for the last half centurns what's alonghty small, and they could prise to find its way here more readily after, epinion, will inure to us under a Territorial answer my question—can you introduce harmony for the glory and prosperity of our and for reasons —. Tell 'em also they of voting for a Governor, Secretary, Judges the station, regardless of party predilections, own hands, and that you are goin' to be the and produce of all kinds; if the case with several precincts met in convention at Hills a large portion of the community worthy not with their winds to talk to anylook in blind, a 5th bandy-legged, a 6th with a head about totor, and that was Frederick Aylmer. boro, May 6, 1854, when the following pro- of respect from our numbers and intelligent it but you. gence) a prescribed ci --- treated like a conquered people, who have no interest in Franky Pierce, and tell him to stop! to hold labor is not well rewarded here now, it nevthe government other than to be ruled by our! that he and goin 'cordin' to orders at 'er will be; if our agricultural and mineral standy before them.

Therefore be it resolved :

who reporced the following named delegates whige candidates for the offices to be filled at ance of the choir that's a 'talkin' to 'im, and counstance which will benefit us after admissional and the offices to be filled at ance of the choir that's a 'talkin' to 'im, and counstance which will benefit us after admissional and the offices to be filled at ance of the choir that's a 'talkin' to 'im, and counstance which will benefit us after admissional and the offices to be filled at ance of the choir that's a 'talkin' to 'im, and counstance which will benefit us after admissional and the offices to be a supplied at the offices to be filled at ance of the choir that's a 'talkin' to 'im, and counstance which will be a supplied at the offices to be a supplied at to be regularly chosen and in attendance in the coming election, and that they be men not the organ man altogether. Besides sion as a State, if we cannot now prosper qualified for the several stations, and wor- there's the bellows-boy aint to home now what reason have we to suppose that the act Portland precinct-M. A. Chinn, A. E. thy of the confidence and support of our nuther.

our government to consist of a Union, the folks can get the hang on 'em.

Stony Crock-C. B. Comstock, H. B. of Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, big Salem organ-grinders, all under one hed, of their erection and completion will be free. weeks after his first dance with the fair Span-Boner, M. R. Starr, S. A. Holcomb, Z. W. John Quincy Adams and Fillmore, as being are goin' to have the Territory re-modifica-by given us; while under the change that uncle for her hand in marriage. He, aston-tod into a State, and then, havin' the U. S. sum must be rhised by taxation. It must shed, gave his clerk's proposal a very cool

3d Be it further resolved, as Oregonians that we hold that the federal offices in this ny, and that you think he'd better be in ther than diminish, (and all must admit it tion organized with the same officers as hes territory should be filled by citizens of Ores Washington with them. Tell 'enr to apply will,) the debt already too large, I think

That we are opposed to the granting of

That we believe a State Government at Proceeded to ballot for representatives on some to the people, and therefore unwise. That we utterly eschew, condemn and a space all demagogues and their tricks, and have a firm and abiding confidence in the On the second ballot, whole No, of votes good sense and intelligence of the people

M. A. Chinn, Dr. Grier, W. H. Bennet, On fourth ballot, for third representative, J. T. Reed and Eli Davis, were selected to whole No, of votes 48, E. S. Tanner receip- act as a county committee for the ensuing On motion, voted that the proceedings of > this convention be published in the Specia-On motion, convention adjourned, the

W. S. Caldwell received 37 and was declare delegates to meet at the Polls in their respertive precincts, on day of election.

A. HINMAN, CR'N. W. S. CALDWELL, Sec y.

Let 'em Rip!

Ma, Entron:—It appears to me them "Settlers" in their recent "Statesman's corand 3d county commissioners, and John S. respondence, are tryin' to make a muss up convince me that the welfare and interests debt that will long oppress us, it becomes thar mongst some o' them office-holders.-Proceeded to ballot for Assessor; whole Our folks, down here all think as how they'r No. codes 39, L. L. Whiteomb received 23 a tryin mighty hard to get Col. Gardner turned cout! Now 'twould be sorter caul-For Superintendent Schools, whole No. in tomy feelin's if I haddent perfect liberty and happiness, but that the future would change. Industry is well rewarded here,

Messrs, "Settlers," why in the name of common doins dont you write to old Jo., or Franky, or, prehaps one to Mr. Marcy would do! He's great on correspondin' ye Banker, for Presecuting Attorney, 3d Judic know, and I'm sure he'd send some of his hal District. R. White, for Colonel, of Rese potentiary officers right off to this great gimental District. R. M. Porter, for Lieut, would-be State of Oregon Territory, with Pol, of Regimental District, John Pool, an answer, tellin you he'd think about takin' "the preparate" steps, for commencin M. A. Chang, M. Tattle and C. Hutchins, arrangements, for encoratinto some kind of pletely accomplished. No doubt of it at all. Whereas, the whigs of the county of There'd be a heap more sense in that kind convention by their delegates for the pure up yer own somp-kettle with sand, to the prove of nominating candidates to be supertune of "nobody humburged." You see ported at the June election, we, their you cant 'feet anythin' that way, 'Taint delegates feel called upon to make public no use for you fellers to be foolin along giv you a deal of aid if you'd only write and than before, the change! If labor, capital as under a State Government; and such, I me! parties to lay aside the prejudices of nation | Lemma the Colonel cant be allowed to be now, will a change of government better the the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and unless I can catch her eye and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the contemptible intimate, and the voters in June next, the voters Ist We have tried in vain to induce all ask em. I know they'd do it too. Tell or enterprise find no encouragement here al polities in which, as a territory, we have Surveyor Gineral if they will force the eschwase at all ! If Oregon offers no induceno voice, that we might work together in tablishment into Salem, in August next, ments for emigration now, will the privilege needent to want any of our folk's recom or Members of Congress be any induce-2d We have sought to sustain men for mends, but that you are head managers now ment? Certainly not. If richness of soil, office whom we deemed the best qualified for yourselves, and have got the reins in your healthiness of climate, high price of labor but our overtures of peace, have been met dividized inhabitants of the great State of Or, which wealth is acquired, and the abundant with the most bitter and relentless hostility. egen, and when you tell them to do so and rewards the industrious and pers vering far-3d We have found ourselves (although so, you expect them to do it, and that it is mer and mechanic are sure to reap, are no some eyes, another scrofula, a third is idiotic, a 4th tones were unguarded by at least one spec-all! Guess if he cant listen to your or, resources offer no inducements new for the) ders through your own organ, a little more, investment of capital, they certainly never 1st That we now proceed to nominate held better resign !! Tell 'in its the bal- will. Surrounded, as we are, by every cir-

The organ's only used to grind up the success? None at all. Resolved, as Americans, that we regard notes and masticate 'em so that common. If, then, we possess every necessary ele-

That we regard the several compromises, 'tention than he's been used to doin' to this, beene in mind that our capitol and penitenment pursued through the administrations and the so-forths, and the rest o' them great tion, a sum sufficient to defray the expenses nonement may be easily divined. In six South Tualatin-Jas, Pire, T. D. Hum-ness as a nation and happiness of a people. (us) government all in ver own hands you'r be borne in mind, too, that searcely one-2d That we believe the conservative a goin to nibilate im d'recly. Why, yes, third of the counties have court-houses or with his niece. Finally, however, all was sense of the people to be the true govern- "Settlers" you orter instruct Gen. Frankeigh jails, the money for all of which, must and arranged, and the lovers were married on a Beaver Dam-W. F. Hall, A. W. Hall, ing principle, and that we should neither ad- and Josep' and Mister Marcy to hold a core will be raised by taxation. Already are the here to the notions of the past, when the cas, right straight off, in Mrs. Pierce's best people burdened with taxes, while nearly evcircumstances have changed, or pursue new levee parlor, to nominate men to come over ery county in the Territory is greaning unideas because they are fauciful and captivas here and take Col. C. K. Gardner right out der a debt that cannot and will not soon be in the honey-moonof this country. Tell fem the present Sur; canceled; and if the salaries of a Governor, eyor Ginral's room's better then 'is compa- Secretary, Judges, &c., will but increase rapoint somebody that even you could afford the argument of an increase of taxes is one to 'sociate with: Judge Olney, for instance, worthy of serious consideration. vention proceed to nominate by ballot, can-monopolies and exclusive privileges by spe- or some of the U. S. (us) Senators might do. Then why this anxiety for a State Gov fellows'll hoist them, ten chances to one !- Oregon that which cannot be for their pres-Such kind of dignified obstinacy, and diso- ent or future welfare? Why, we are told this time would be expensive and burdens beyin' of Oregon organ-grinders like you by "A Whig of '76" that if we don't assume sass him a while, I'll tell you how you can of. Does he suppose that Congress will Yours, in great uneasyness.

Portland, May 12, 1854. A State Government for Oregon.

TOGGLES

Sor the Speciater. Legislature, last winter, of an act requiring against the change. It may, with truth be the question of "Convention or no Conven- said that the only one in its favor is "the ion" for the formation of a State Govern- right to elect our own officers." To be ment, to be cresented for the consideration sure, the strongest argument against the ry, both for and against the "State organ- importance than any that has or can be preingness to admit whatever was proved by for the right to elect a few officers, and for every reason to believe that it would not Territory. only add nothing to our present prosperity | But in my humble opinion, we need no

And then you orter talk right samey to gon cannot prosper now, she never can; if ment for success, now, why is it that a

If they don't do sumthin o' this kind you erament ! Why urge upon the people of aint goin' to be tolerated long; an' you tell the functions of a sovereign State soon, we em so! If Pierce dont giv in after you shall have no territory left to make a State get the old Colonel out, and right easy too! take all the Territory of Oregon, and out of it form another ! And yet he says, "that reason is sufficient, of itself, to influence my vote for the convention," The Lord save me from the results of such blindness and folly.

It is said that "an increase of taxes' MR. EDITOR:-Since the passage in the is the only argument that can be offered of the voters of Oregon at the election in change is "an increase of taxes," but it is not June next, several communications have up, the only one. And, admitting that it is, peared in the various papers of the Territo- does it not become an argument of greater ization," all of which I have read with a sented for the consideration of the people of mind free from prejudice, and with a will- Oregon? Most certainly it does. If, then, facts. But as yet I have seen nothing to that right only, we are to saddle upon us a of Oregon, or its people, demand such a our duty to consider well ere we vote for a change at present. On the contrary, I have change in the government of our beautiful find us regretting our rashness and folly.-- and with economy and perseverance, all are But let us consider some of the arguments sure of success. All that we can expect by a change of government, which will conduce I freely grant that, as a State, we shall to our prosperity and happiness as a people, ave the privilege of electing our judges, we already possess. The husbandman en-Governor, &c., and that our influence will joys the fruits of his labor, and that labor is be greater in Congress than it now is. But well rewarded. The mechanic, in every those are not altogether the questions to be branch of business, rejoices in his success, and onsidered. If we are to allow our pride to all classes meet with fair encouragement. get the better of our judgement, or if we I'ut we may be admitted as a State; we must sacrifice our interests-both present may enjoy all the rights and privileges that and future-that we may obtain a little Massachusetts or Virginia enjoy; if we purpopularity, the loss upon the one hand is sue the course we have pursued; if we sufficiently to be certain if I marry her it more than equal to the gain upon the other, chose idleness rather than industry, felly will not be for her dollars, but for her own It is stated by some that if admitted into rather than wisdom; if we are content to excellencies. he Union as a State, our population would lie supinely on our backs and hug the deluincrease, business would improve, and that sive phantom of Hope, until want and utter increase, business would improve, and that sive phantom of Hope, until want and utter the attentions of a young lawyer's clerk, labor, capital and enterprise would find its bankruptcy compel us to action, no change even though he may have given evidence of way here more readily than under our press from Territorial to State government can or superior talent, and of one day beingent organization, yet they do not attempt to will benefit in the least, and we may, as a proce any such statements, while every fact people, despair of success: but if we will be shows the contrary, at least, to be the case. up and doing, export rather than import the disinterested affection f. cessuries of life, a brighter day will dawn believe, will be the opinion of a majority of My acquaintance with her was not so very abuse, senseless twattle, misrepresentations she smiles me an invitation, I am afraid I and mis-statements of the Statesman and its cannot promise you. A Tyro or '54. as they were sitting together in one of the Oregon City, May 9. front boxes of the opera house on a Sontag

The Fredericksburg News says: In the have intermarried, until there cannot be found in now did in the character of Amina three of them a sound man or woman. One has recently married, and the result of union is perhaps one of the most surprising on record, funity His master has a niece, of Spanish birth, and phan. an orphan. She is not pretty, though very of admission will carry with it the secret of sensible and well-informed. At the balls ward Clayton himself had turned to gaze for success! None at all. her; indeed, she seemed to attend them box, he suddenly perceived her fix her glance rather as a whim than from inclination for on him, and regard him with the most mar-Scoggins, H. Sewell, John Pool, W. M. States, and the people, each in their own Gen. Frankey has got to do somethin' or change, by some, is desired! Or, if desired But if she did not dance, she noticed much a more gracious smile, and a slight wave of and listened to more. The clerk room obsertant he's a ruined man. He's got to pay more ed, why manifest such haste! It must be suread that the bale was included. Some annual manual manu amusement, as she seldom, or ever, danced. served that the lady was invited to dance when no other partner could be obtained. She has becomed me. Come, let us go.

The Clerk's Wife.

She herself had already noticed the same fact. Being a gallant man be acted accor.

We need scarce say that Aylmer offered people as Freed, Constructed and Bixture. State of the Oregon Territory! If he does for completed, a large sum of money must fact. Being a gallant man be acted accor-That we recognize the policy of govern not you the "Settlers" and the "Vindex's" be expended. Under our present organized dingly. The incidents that had to the demonstrated in no objection to his proposal. Two minutes reception, and then had a long interview Tuesday. The Thursday after, at breakfast, Adeline said to her husband, who exhibited considerable chagrin at bring compelled to return to the duties of bis office thus early

'Eh-bien-don't go there,-go there no

'My love, it is easy to say so, but-Easy to say, and easy to do-both. I have a million and a half. Nobody knows it but my uncle. I always made a point of forgetting it myself, because I wished to choose a really disinterested husband. There need be no more office work for you, if you do not wish it. Yet still, my advice is, husand, that you neglect nothing.

Was not that love, indeed !

のア·Sammy, my boy, what are you eryng for !'
'Bill hove the Bible at me, and hit me on

Well, you are the only person in my family on whom the bible ever made the least

The following may have been read by one of our readers, but we consider that Miss lda was so sensible and true to the best principles of Woman's heart, that we present it here:-ED. LADIES' DEP.

CATCHING AN HEIRESS.

BT WM. ROBINSON

CHAPTER I.

'Is she not lovely-divine-perfection! Whol

Look at your box-the one next to the andelabra.

Yes, she is a fine looking woman.'

'Who is she I wonder—do you know!'
'Yes—it is the Hon. Miss Ida Maxfield. he is an orphan, but a rich one, having no less than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars invested in bank stock. As you may see by her complexion, she is a Southerner. Her father owned a pretty extensive estate a few leagues from N. O., but at his death, which took place a little more than a year ago, it was sold and the sum thus realid by his executors, of whom my father is the only one now living, invested in good securities, as the will directed, was place his daughter's disposal. She is twenty-one years of age, her own mistress, and is as amiable in disposition and as cultivated in in-tellect as she is beautiful in features and graceful in form. One hundred and fifty thousand dollars-only think, Fred! If I was not so deep in with Helen, I should perhaps have added one more to her already ng list of rejected suitors before now."

'Can you introduce me!'
'To the dollars or the lady!'

layton, I think you ought to know me

'And cot, Fred, the world, and perhaps the lady herself, will be upt to consider that 'Be quiet, will you !'

'An ornament to his profession are influenced by far different motives than thought

The world may think what it like vacious success, by the great whige party rience and 'bility, but that's come of his 'sis, creased, or how is labor, capital and enter, upon Oregon, and as much happiness, in my and the hady shall soon be undeceived. But 'Well, that depends on circumstances .-

Such was the conversation which passed night.'

The opera was Somnambula, and never ountry in which we were raised, for 20 generations had the beautiful and soul-thrilling prima tack, a certain family of wealth and respectability appeared to greater advantage than she

But her matchless acting and flute-like vain for an increase of population. If Ore- the size of a turnip, with not one out of the num- From the first moment of his entrance, alber exempt from physical or mental defects of some most, he had never taken his eyes from the kind. Yet this family persoveres to intermarry box in which, in all her queen-like beauty, with each other, with these living monuments con- sat the lovely lda. She alone was the only cynosure on which his every faculty seemed concentrated; and although his companion had more than once compelled him, in a A merchant's clerk, of the rue Hauteville, manner, to direct his attention to some other object, he invariably at the earliest opportunity returned to gaze on the beautiful or-

At the conclusion of the third act, as Edked attention for about a minute, then, with a more gracious smile, and a slight wave of