Where's A. S. Costen!

TAKE CAUTION!! THIS is to certify that in the fall of 1852 I sold to A. S. Costen, of the Dalles of the Columbia, goods, groceries, &c. to the amount of $8500.

It is to be noted that I did not receive a cent in payment for the same, and that I have never received a cent in payment for the same.

This indebtedness was represented to me by a member of the Baptist church, but which he was probably not, and after having betrayed all confidence placed in him—having broken open the goods that I put in his charge, and otherwise scandalized me, and after making many promises to pay, has recently removed to the Upper Willamette Valley, and far from Oregon, where he evidently designs defrauding others, and of still keeping me out of my money, therefore I want all persons to understand that I believe him a base villain and cheat.

Having been frequently informed that he had plenty of money, and was worthy the confidence of the public, I was of course led to the Indians and otherwise disregarding the law, I have even taken care of a son of his, aged about 17, for about two months, and have received no pay. I warn all persons against having any dealings with this villain.
