LIFE ILLUSTRATED.

OUR NEW NEWSPAPER.

With the present number we issue a Prospectus for a New Weekly Newspaper.

It is not our purpose that this shall take the place of our Monthly Journals. Those have become intimately connected with our special business, and tes much beloved by our subscribers to be dispensed with. But in these days of railreads and telegraphs, monthly visits seem insufficiently frequent. Our noble coean steamers cross the Atlantic and return between every issue. Hesides, we have not sufficient space in these Journals to convay information of the doings of the world. We therefore have esseluded, in addition to our Monthlies, to make weekly visits to these who may desire it.

In these more frequent calls we shall not confine ourselves se strictly te professional matters; but will talk of the crops, the markets, schools, lectures, amusements, &c., and try to make our visits as agreeable as peables.

The publishers do not adopt the quack system of saying that "it is the best paper in the world," or resort to the plan of offering novels, jewelry, or premiums, of any description in order to "make people take it," but depend upon its own merits to give it a circulation. THE first class will be admitted to enter upon the regular course of study in this Institution on the 2d Wednesday in September next, when the cellegiate year will hereafter commence.

As the Trustees do not depend upon the tuition fees for the support of the Faculty, they are able to offer to students, however few in number, all the facilities needed for securing a thorough collegiate education. A Library of 1000 vols, and philosophical apparatus are for the use and benefit of scholars. Candidates for admissisa must possess a knewledge of the usual branches of a common English education—the elements of Algebra to Equations, and must passe a satisfactory examination in the Latin language upon a portion of Cessar's Commentaries, and four orations of Cierce; and, in Greek, upon the 1st book of Xenophon's Anabasis, or their equivalents.
