LOCAL AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE.

AT the last meeting, the members present were invited by Messrs. Benj. Beagle and W. P. Mount to an oyster supper after the labor of the "night" was over.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—Damon Lodge No. 4, Pendleton, elected the following officers to serve the ensuing term:

Hotel Arrivals. The following are the arrivals at the Pendleton Hotel for the week ending Friday January 5, 1877:

DEAD.—At his home on Bear creek, December 26th, 1876, ALEXANDER GILLESPIE, aged 33 years, 2 months and 4 days.

DAVID NEWSOME who is pregnant with desires for newspaper notoriety, ought to feel relieved after being delivered of the following extracts printed in the Salem Statesman.

THE HALL.—As we predicted, the Ball given by the I. O. O. F.'s on New Year's night was a grand success.

U. S. Deputy Marshall I. C. Disonway, started below this week with two prisoners, George M. Birdsall, for selling whisky to an Indian, and Wm. Collins, charged with assaulting A. V. Oden at the Dalles.

JAMES E. HACKETT received intelligence of the death of a favorite sister on the first of last month, Mrs. Elizabeth wife of John Parker, of Sacramento. Mr. H. has the sympathy of his friends and acquaintances.

JIMMY RALEY is now at the head of affairs at the Pendleton Hotel. Everybody knows Jimmy; and knowing him, can vouch for courtesy and hospitable treatment to all who visit the house.

BORN.—December 23, 1877, to the wife of Dr. Pruett a daughter. The modesty of the Dr. prevented him from informing us of this important event sooner. Mother and daughter both doing well.

There were 23 scholars in attendance the first week at the Pendleton High School, under charge of Prof. Arnold. Next week there will be 30.

Uncle Tommy Hubbard yet remains in a feeble condition. He is at the residence of Major Comroyer at the Agency.

Henry Bowman has erected a house in Arnold's addition to Pendleton, and is now residing there with his family.

The first patron who paid for the EAST OREGONIAN in 1877, was J. J. Baumgardner. Thanks!

We will publish the proceedings of the County Court next week.

Some rascal stole a quilted blanket from the wagon of Wm. A. Gleason this week, while in town.

Harry Peters, a substantial and solid citizen of Pilot Rock, this county, paid Pendleton a visit this week.

Colie Marshall, the obliging chief of the Pendleton meat market, this week placed us under obligations to him for a elegant "roast" from one of the very fattest beoves slaughtered this season.

Tom Mliarkey received a New Year's present in the shape of an enormous cigar, from Umatilla. The shape was decidedly unique, and it was of "hard" consistency.

DROWNED.—The little son of Mrs. Sarah E. Ripper, daughter of S. Anderson and sister-in-law of C. L. Jewell, aged two and a half years, was drowned in the Umatilla river a few days ago at the residence of Mr. Anderson.

At the last meeting, the members present were invited by Messrs. Benj. Beagle and W. P. Mount to an oyster supper after the labor of the "night" was over.
