JOB WORK (printed and otherwise) at low prices.

"How Much?" and "How Many?" "How much was he worth when he died?" "A couple of millions, I hear."

The Right Divine. And so, my friend, our dream of love is over— But can we quite the endearing spell ignore?"

Miss Marchmont's Story. BY JULIA A. ABBOTT. It is not my fault that I am not a better person than I would have been glad to be.

ways seemed to acquiesce in that arrangement. He had been gallant and tender, so that I grew to feel quite secure of him, and therefore exerted myself very little to keep him in subjection.

advantages. I enjoyed it wonderfully well. This was life—life such as I had dreamed of often, but knew now for the first time; for my girlhood had been a comparatively secluded one.

Out-Door Kitchens. Hope Lydard writes thus about them: Even in a town house it is not difficult to get some sort of awning over a kitchen door, adding greatly to the comfort with it, as well as affording shelter to a person walking outside.

The Inaccessible Pole. Late advices by mail give a clear idea of what presented the success of the British Arctic Expedition. Every attempt to discover a coast line leading to the Pole was a failure.

Fred Grant Before a Police Court. A dispatch from Chicago to the New York Herald says: The President's son, Lieut. Col. Fred D. Grant, involved himself in a personal encounter here on Wednesday that eventuated in his arrest and arraignment before a police magistrate.

Emigration to North Carolina. The plans which have for some time been maturing for planting a Western Massachusetts Colony in North Carolina are about completed, and the first installment of colonists, numbering some twelve families, will start about the first week in December.

How to Treat Unexpected Guests. When one of "father's" business friends drives into the yard at about half-past twelve, the guest who knows that he will surely stay to dinner, Father is a great story teller, and he likes to get hold of a new auditor.

One Method of Settling Hotel Bills. The popular landlord of a leading hotel at Long Beach, like many other distinguished Americans, is fond of a little game of draw poker occasionally.

COOK AND HOUSEKEEPER. A good cook is not the one who uses the most and richest ingredients, regardless of the expense, but she who studies economy, and so serves a somewhat delicious meal from scanty materials.

JOHNNY CAKE. A most delicious Johnny cake is made by taking two cups of corn meal, one of flour, with one teaspoon of salt; one egg well beaten; half cup of molasses; three tablespoons vinegar, or one cup of sour milk, if you have it; three spoons teaspoon salt; and stirred in a little water.

DELICIOUS GINGERBREAD. One cup of molasses, one cup of butter, two cups of sugar, one cup of sour milk, four eggs, three cups of flour, one tablespoonful of ginger, and one tablespoonful of soda.

A SIMPLE AND HARMLESS application for ring-worm is found by washing with a solution made from the root of the common narrow-leaved dock, which belongs to the botanical genus Rumex. Use vinegar for the solvent.

LAZINESS travels so slowly that poverty soon overtakes her.
