

Chinook Winds.

The Chinook winds of Eastern Oregon may be divided into two classes: those which come up the Columbia river, and those which come from a direction west about thirty degrees south.

How They Count.

It is curious how the decision of the Electoral Commission just fits the Republican case. It is just sufficient to go behind the Governor's certificate in the case of Oregon, (says the N. Y. Sun) and get at the facts there, and not sufficient to go behind the Returning Board's returns in Florida and reach the facts in that State; just enough to let in the facts when they will help the Republican candidate, but not enough to let them in when they would sustain the claim of the Democrats.

The Next Senate.

In the present Senate of the United States there are 46 Republicans and 29 Democrats with one vacancy for Louisiana. The next Senate—on and after March 4th—will contain 41 Republicans and 34 Democrats, leaving a vacancy of one for Louisiana, where Pinchback claims the seat, but is not allowed by the Senate to fill it.

should be enabled to realize the amplest reward for his efforts, without being obliged to be subject to middle interests, which now eat so largely into the returns for his labor.

The points urged by Col. Lang were the grading and pressing all wools, at some convenient point here, that the buyer in the market might rely upon a uniform character for each class of wool purchased—that fine high blood wool should not be subjected to the same price as coarse, lofty or tender wool, because the were forwarded in one lot or mass, and that by being compactly pressed the cost of transportation would be materially reduced.

Col. Lang urged that by thus grading, in a reliable manner, wool growers would be enabled to consign direct to manufacturers or brokers in the market of consumption and get advances upon bills of lading, if desirable, avoiding delay and extra expense and the uncertainty of fair results from sales by commission houses entirely out of the atmosphere of manufacturing competition, and interest, in short giving opportunity to the wool growers to shake hands with the manufacturers, without being forced to do it by proxy.

The Col. argued the propriety of trying faithfully the experiment of washing the sheep, that by so doing the shepherd might be relieved of paying freight upon 30 or 40 per cent more weight than he realized any return for. That the long full years growth of wool produced in this climate may be displayed in the brokers warehouses of Boston, New York and Philadelphia in an unexceptional manner as the wool of Ohio, Michigan and Illinois, and so graded that the manufacturers will feel confidence in its purchase.

In the course of his remarks the Col. referred to the strong efforts that are making in England, Australia and Buenos Ayres in conjunction with commercial capital engaged in importation in our eastern cities to effect some change in the protective duties upon wool. He read from official reports upon the industrial products of Australia for the past year, the hope that the Australian wool grower entertained that these efforts would be successful, and again open the American market to their wool, the practical closing of which by this tariff had been felt so seriously. Col. L. hoped that the organization would see the propriety of agitating this matter and of instructing their representatives at Washington to guard well this interest, saying that it is of much more importance, that we be protected against these threatened changes of tariff than all else that now stand in the way of a sound healthy business.

The Lewiston Teller of last Saturday furnishes the following items of news: LILLY CASE.—Mr. Leach who lives on Union Flat reports a conversation with an Indian called Moses living between his place and Snake river, to the effect that about fifteen Indians of different bands had been sent to the Sioux to get them to join Joseph against the whites in this section, and Leach feels much solicitude about the security of the families in his vicinity. He made his representation of facts to Lieut. Fletcher.

A NEW GRIST-MILL.—Parties have been in town the week past seeking lumber to construct a flouring mill on the Almota creek near its mouth. This point is about 35 miles below Lewiston near Snake river, and about 17 miles from Colfax. It is claimed that the Almota furnishes sufficient water power to propel all necessary machinery.

NEW STEAMER.—We saw a letter from Capt. Stump stating that the subscribers in Columbia county were coming up so liberally that he was enabled to proceed forthwith in the completion of his steamer for Snake river.

THE YOUNG INDIANS.—Authentic report comes to us that the young men and all capable of bearing arms have left the band of Palouse Indians and gone to parts unknown, supposed to have gone to see Joseph.

From La Grande.

From a private letter written from La Grande we take the following items: Arrangements have been completed to bring a ditch from the river at Oro Dell to a place near the seminary and build a mill and other valuable improvements there.

Property here is improving some on the strength of said ditch. Joe Weathers little girl has been very sick with scarlet fever, but is now a little better. There has been several cases in town but none fatal as yet.

Sam Mahaffey has quit the Review and is talking of going to Portland. Rev. Hines talks of starting a paper; I suppose it will be Methodist in politics and religion.

The Beaver creek mines are going to be opened up in the Spring; a good many are going up from here to work.

Milton Notes.

MILTON, February 24, 1877. Error E. O.—Having several times noticed in your paper an invitation extended to any one having anything to communicate to send it along, I thought I would venture the following:

The Milton school which has flourished finely for three months under the tutelage of Prof. John Angle, closed last Friday. The Milton Legislature adjourned on Wednesday evening until the second Tuesday in November. During the protracted session it passed some of the dogmatic bills ever heard of except in the real legislature of our own State. According to one law a man who looketh at a bottle to lust after it is a drunkard already in his heart, and a red nose is an impeachable witness against Good Templars; cloves and coffee are prima facie evidence of broken pledges.

About two weeks since a weary traveler with mud bespattered clothes and face unshorn tried to rest at the shoemaker's shop. He proved to be a refugee from Walla Walla emigrating to the inviting villages of Weston and Pendleton. On careful inspection some of our citizens recognized him to be Mart Taylor the writing master. He was a stranger and we took him in—he yielded to our request, and organized a class of thirty here, the pupils of which are making great progress. He has also a fine school in the district above and one in the district below—and the strangest thing of all is a total abstinence advocate, and is living up to his creed. This will be good though unexpected news to many. Mart is a man of education, excellent attorney and the best penman in the west.

Isam Quinn the hotel keeper is putting up an addition to his feed stable—large enough for everybody and his neighbor. Moss contemplates establishing a man-moth store and bringing in $20,000 worth of goods; then advise Walla Walla.

Salmon are getting scarce in our beautiful river but suckers are plenty. The commission "Isam, Brentz & Kirk" land in the "Fay, McLoughlin contest," have taken twenty quires of depositions, and adjourned until more paper can be secured from below.

Our worthy Justice of the Peace received about Valentine time, through the post office, a coarse comb; but he sensibly preferred the shears and is now sporting a short crop a la Sampson.

That Milton is a way up town The passer by supposes— That is if he can clearly see And notices the signs— He sees each these but never knows The owner—don't know which his'n is For no man's nose is in his own But in another's business.

To School Clerks.

To the various school districts of Umatilla county.—In the early organization of school districts in this county, the bounding lines were made to zig zag and follow the serpentine meanderings of creeks and rivers, just so as to include certain families living along them. Those boundaries in some instances, overlap each other and so furnish cause for almost incessant contentions and broils, which materially affect the prosperity of schools taught in the districts so concerned.

The boundaries of some districts have never been recorded; other district lines are recorded as running north to Richard Roe's, east to John Doe's and so on; John Doe and Richard Roe, in some instances, have left the country and taken the district lines with them. Neither school clerk nor trustee can tell anything about them. The School Superintendent turning to the books belonging to his office, finds that many boundaries have been so often changed with but little record and no plot, that he can get no information concerning them. This confused jumble of affairs will continue to increase until the district lines are all straightened and properly recorded. The law specifies how this may be done. I would therefore suggest that petitions be prepared and circulated at the annual meeting (1st Monday in April next) in words about as follows:

We, the undersigned, residents and legal voters of School District No. Umatilla county, Oregon, hereby petition the County School Superintendent to establish the boundary of school district No. of said county, making any changes thereof which he may think to be necessary.

Care should be taken to get at least a two-third majority to sign these petitions. Let everyone who is not able to give the boundary of his district, especially, have an opportunity to sign the petition. Each school clerk should append a certificate to the petition as follows:

I, school clerk of district No. Umatilla county, hereby certify that there are no more than legal voters now living in said district, and I further certify that the foregoing petition contains the names of a majority of all the legal voters in said district. A—B—

THE FARMER.—The Oregon Cultivator is no more, but the Willamette Farmer still flourishes and deserves the patronage of the farming community. S. A. Clarke, an old experienced editor controls the columns of the Farmer, which is a sure guaranty of excellence in its reading matter and make up. We would suggest that Mr. C. make every effort to secure a correspondent in Eastern Oregon who will include its entire area in his treatment of agriculture and other kindred subjects.

WESTON ITEMS.

Miss Ella Ritz, the accomplished pianist of Walla Walla, is teaching music at Weston.

There is a probability of there being another addition to our town. It will join the main town plot on the south and will be called McArthur's addition. Hugh McArthur being the proprietor of the land.

Married, at the residence of the brides father on the 18th of February, 1877, John P. Rains of Idaho Territory to Miss Mary Weber of Umatilla county, Oregon.

MARRIED.—The second daughter of Senator Mitchell, by his first wife, who has been educated in Ohio, was married a few weeks ago to a promising young lawyer of that State. The bride is spoken of as talented and accomplished young lady. Mrs. Mitchell and her daughters Maggie and Mattie were present at the wedding, but Mr. Mitchell was unable to attend on account of his duties at Washington.

STOPPED.—Wells, Fargo & Co. have suspended all their offices in Utah Territory without any cause assigned to the public.
