

The East Oregonian.

SATURDAY, MAY 19, 1877

LODGE DIRECTORY.

DARK LODGE No. 4, K. of P. Meets in the Castle Hall, Pendleton, every Wednesday evening. Brothers in good standing are cordially invited to attend.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

EPISCOPAL SERVICE.—On the third Sunday of each month, the Rev. E. W. Wells will officiate, and preach in the morning at 11 o'clock in the evening at 7 o'clock in Pendleton.

LOCAL AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE.

Our merchants are receiving bran new goods weekly. Every day witnesses immense quantities of lumber coming into Pendleton.

A. E. Edmunds, Liberalist, will probably lecture in Pendleton some day next week.

Thompson & Barnhart were the first to have wool graded and baled in Umatilla county. Their clip will amount to about 65,000 pounds.

How fish-tow-naw, an Indian of great importance on the Umatilla reservation, though not a chief, died a few days since.

The boys must keep away from the penstock at the lower end of Mr. Byers' ditch, near the planing mill; if they do not, some parents' hearts will be broken by the drowning of some favorite child.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to Mr. Lemuel Stanley and Miss Martha Stanley last Sabbath, after morning service, by Rev. W. H. Pruet, pastor of the Baptist Church in this place.

The finest one-color poster ever printed in Eastern Oregon or Western Washington was the first executed at the office of the EAST OREGONIAN, for I. A. Boskowitz of La Grande. Pardon us for our modesty!

C. B. Mosher shot and killed Halsey W. Chamberlain at Quartzburg, Idaho, on the 4th inst. Mosher and wife had separated, and the husband was jealous of Chamberlain—says the Boise Statesman.

I. A. Boskowitz, of La Grande, is selling off at cost, to close out business at that place. Mr. B. is a square, fair man, and deals with all alike. Good bargains will not be secured by the Grand Ronders at his store.

The son of Wm. Lee, aged about 12 years, died Thursday evening. He was prostrated by the measles, which led to a fatal disease of the head. He was a bright boy, and his death leaves a dark spot in the parents' household.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Everest & Abell, Walla Walla. This firm is composed of gentlemen who understand their business thoroughly, and deal justly with all their customers. They are the heaviest furniture dealers east of Portland.

Thomas Harper, of British Columbia, passed through this county this week, with 1,200 head of large stags, four to six years of age, en route to the railroad. He had them divided into two bands of 600 each, one hand traveling one day ahead of the other.

Business at the planing mill of Sylvester & Bentley is lively. By the way, it was at this establishment that the wood work in that full-sheet poster executed by us for I. A. Boskowitz, of La Grande, was made. The work was a credit to the ingenuity of the proprietors.

"FROM THE CAPITAL."—Our Salem letter, dated the 4th instant, was six or seven days in reaching us? Where is the fault of this delay in the mails? Is it at Portland? Agent Steele will have to look after postal affairs between Pendleton and Salem if this thing continues.

David J. Richards, better known as "Dave Red," a stage driver of the old time, and perhaps as well known as any other driver on this coast, was drowned in the Hot Springs, on the Battle Mountain road, six miles from Austin in Nevada, a few days since.

A. A. Cohen, a capitalist of Portland, called on us this week. He said he could not do without this paper, that he must keep posted as to doings in Eastern Oregon; and to effect that object, must subscribe; so he planked down the cash. Hereafter Mr. C. will be a happy man.

The citizens of Umatilla county are requested to meet at the court house in Pendleton on Saturday the 26th day of May, to take the necessary steps for a celebration of the 4th of July. Each precinct in the county is respectfully requested to send representatives, in order that all parts of the county may be fully represented.

A. W. Nye has sold in the last eight months American mares and geldings to the value of $1,835, cash in hand. Some of these animals went to Webfoot, others East, and a large number remained here. The dealings of this one horse raiser give an idea of the magnitude of this as a resource of our great country.

TO CURE COUGHS AND BRONCHITIS.—Obtain at the druggists five or six cents' worth of saltpeter; put into a bottle with sufficient olive oil to nearly dissolve it; shake up well and rub the inflamed parts night and morning, and more frequently if painful. This is an old and well tried remedy; but if it fails to cure your cough, you can sell the recipe to our friends Bishop and Switzer for $30.

FROST AND SNOW.—On Thursday, May 18th, it snowed at Weston, in this county, briskly for a few minutes. On the night following potatoes, tomatoes, squashes, pumpkins, cucumbers, beans and other vines were frozen here in Pendleton; and a skin of ice was formed on water standing in exposed locations. What the result of this freeze has been on fruit we are not yet advised.

NEW HOUSES.—There are in process of construction many houses in Pendleton, and many more in contemplation. The names of those building and those who will erect substantial houses the present season, so far as we are able to ascertain, are as follows: Wm. Switzer, Thomas Minkley, Geo. W. Webb, (business house), Turner & Dismay, (four residences), Wm. Gistler, (business house and dwelling), T. L. Moorhouse, G. W. Bailey, Diawhille & Van Dorn, (business house), B. Bruce, Dr. Whitcomb, W. Wells, J. C. Arnold, James Lamm, W. B. Mays, J. H. Turner, Henry Tevis, Rev. Davies and Jade Switzer. Add to this list at least from six to twelve more names, and the improvements in Pendleton for the current year will be stated as nearly correct as possible.

OUR GRANITE CREEK LETTER.

WAR BETWEEN CHINESE AND AMERICANS! GRANITE CREEK, May 7, 1877.

Mr. Editor.—After long delay we once more address you, though we must confess items of interest are rather scarce. Mining in all its phases has at last commenced, and the camp has again assumed its usual lively appearance.

The peace and quietude of the town of Independence was disturbed on the morning of the 31st inst., over a report that war had been declared between the mongolians and certain representatives of the white population residing on Granite Creek, a few miles remote from town.

PENMANSHIP.—As a success, the next place Matt Taylor at the top of the ladder. For versatility of talent he seems to be without a peer, from president of a commercial college to a citizen.

The following comprises the witness and jury fees in the cases following, which were disposed of at the last term of the Circuit Court:

The amounts of county warrants issued from July 1, 1876, to July 1, 1877, at each term of County Court, are as follows:

A FEAST.—In the Spring of the year, when salmon begin to "run," the Indians have a grand feast. Last Sunday this feast occurred on the reservation, near the residence of We-nap-noot.

LOVES WHISKY.—Wednesday Mr. L. W. Hamilton placed a canteen full of whisky in Mr. Rothchild's store, near the door, for a few minutes. On his return a large portion of the same was gone—down the gullet of an Indian, who must have had a dose sufficient to make his head ache for a week.

Mr. Porter is doing honor to himself in the manner in which he is selling his drug store.

L. Samuels, of Portland, passed through the West Shore, gave us a call yesterday.

Look out for our collector to-day. Friends will pay, and others must.

Jade Switzer, it is said, has gone below to get married.

S-J Whitley had a fine boy presented to him by his wife, on the 5th of May, of which he is very proud.

Mrs. John Miller fell out of a wagon one day last week and broke her arm. She is doing well.

James Reynolds had two very fine work horses stolen from his premises last week.

O. N. Bartholomew, son of M. Bartholomew, has just arrived from the East, and has started a blacksmith shop in Milton, which makes three in all.
