JOB WORK. Printed and bound, the price and at low prices.

A Welcome. Open the window this cheery morn, Enter, O sunbeam, rare; Seek out the couch of the invalid, And kiss her forehead fair.

Kaiser Wilhelm. Were not the Emperor of Germany of the most remarkable robust constitution he certainly would have been fated to death long ago.

ARRIVAL OF THE GUESTS. At 8 o'clock on the morning of the 23d a chorus was played by the trumpets of the different bands from the tower of the old castle.

A FAIRY GARDEN. The grand equestrian statue of Frederick the Great, directly in front of the palace, was, during the night, converted into a fairy garden by the superintendent of the Thiergarten.

THE ITINERATION IN THE EVENING. The Emperor's palace and that of Prince Karl were the only buildings in the heart of the city that were not lighted.

THE GIFT OF THE PRINCES. A wine house in Champagne sent a basket containing eighty bottles of champagne, each bottle bearing the label "Viv' imperial—croix de fer."

THE DAUGHTER OF THE REGIMENT. During all this rush for seats to the Italian opera, Missie Hauk has been filling her Royal Opera House, and charming her hearers by adding to the Daughters of the Regiment the song of Kathleen Mavourneen.

ING, Briggs Ministerium, and the Crown Prince's palace were equally brilliant. In the facade of the latter was an enormous eagle, composed of hundreds of tiny gas jets.

SOME AMUSING SCENES. There were some amusing scenes, for on the Emperor's birthday every officer in the army, from the oldest General down to the youngest cadet, deemed it his sacred duty to drink the Emperor's health in as many glasses of wine as it is possible for him to hold.

AN OPERATIC RESERVATION. To the musical world Berlin is enjoying a real bono fide sensation. Some weeks ago, a notice appeared in the papers that an Italian opera would be given at Kroll's.

THE NEWSPAPER. I am a farmer. My farm is named Pasturedell. I take great pride in it and work as steadily as I can, for I am sixty-six, and was not insured to farm labors in early life.

THE MANAGERS OF THE COOKING SCHOOL. The managers of the Cooking School at No. 8 Mark's Place, in this city, have opened a new course of twelve lessons, the second of which was given on Thursday.

THE WORLD'S HIGHEST BUILDINGS. The dome of St. Peter's is 425 feet above the ground. Strasbourg, the highest cathedral in all France, has a dome with its celebrated clock-tower, 463 feet; Amiens, 439 feet; Chartre, 399 feet.

GLADSTONE'S ACCOUNT OF MONTENEGRO AND ITS INHABITANTS. In a popular lecture, delivered recently, Gladstone, the ex-premier of England, gave the following terse account of Montenegro.

THE DAUGHTER OF THE REGIMENT. During all this rush for seats to the Italian opera, Missie Hauk has been filling her Royal Opera House, and charming her hearers by adding to the Daughters of the Regiment the song of Kathleen Mavourneen.

A PRACTICAL JOKE. For several months past there has been rambled in Cincinnati a broken down gambler known as "Monkey Todd," noted as having spent his patrimony, amounting to some $25,000, in "fighting the tiger" and other kindred sports.

HISTORICAL COINCIDENCES. Admirers of America and Garibaldi may be interested to learn that the general was born on the 4th of July, Jefferson died on the same day, in 1826, having thus lived to witness the fiftieth jubilee anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

GAMBLING IN CAIRO. The Continent, published at Geneva, Switzerland, says: "M. Blanc, of Homburg, who has been driven from place to place by the awakened morality of Europe until the little rock of Monaco is his only resting place, has appeared at Cairo as the Deus ex machina to save the situation.
