

LODGE DIRECTORY.

DANIEL LODGE No. 4, K. of P. Meets in the Castle Ball, Penleton, every Wednesday evening. Brothers in good standing are cordially invited to attend.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Methodist Episcopal Church. Services on the third Sunday of each month, the Rev. J. M. Wells will officiate and preach in the morning at 10 o'clock in the evening at 7 o'clock.

For the Traveler.

THE NORTHWESTERN STAGE COMPANY'S STAGE leave Penleton for Umatilla City between 5 and 6 o'clock P. M. for the Umatilla, Baker City and Klamath Falls at about 12 o'clock midnight.

LOCAL AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE.

REAL ESTATE.—The following is a list of deeds recorded in the County Clerk's office for the month of June: Turner & Disoway to Jas. H. Wilson—lot 1 and N 1/4 of lot 2, in block 10, Pen. Consideration $200.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Issued in Umatilla county for the years 1866-67:

1866: Wallace Jones to Ellen Tureman. J. H. Kunzie to Helen A. Kane. Jasper Smith to Sarah A. Harper.

LIST OF LETTERS

Remaining in the Penleton postoffice July 1, 1877: Rusche P & Co. Brown T B 2. Burley John E. Catterall A. Davis G A 2.

BORN.—At Butter creek, July 3, 1877, to the wife of F. A. Newman, a son.

Dr. McKay returned from the Dalles this week, bringing with him his family, who will permanently remain here.

The wife of James H. Turner, Esq., departed this week for her old home in Missouri, taking her youngest child.

Tom Hopper, whom we referred to last week as being very sick, has nearly recovered. He was in town this week.

Rev. Thos. M. Boyd, of the Presbyterian church, will preach to the Indians in the M. E. church to-morrow at 3 o'clock P. M.

See O. Brechtel's advertisement of Bakery in another column. Mr. B. is one of the foremost business men of Walla Walla.

J. H. Turner, Esq., departs Sunday for Portland. During his absence, Ed. Sharon will attend to such matters as may require attention.

The new Artist is now ready to do work of all kinds, and will remain in Penleton for two or three weeks only; and those who want Photographs must come soon.

PROLIFIC YIELD.—From 3,514 of Frazier & Hackett's sheep, there was clipped 37,450 pounds of wool, averaging 10 pounds and a fraction each.

Judge McArthur will be absent from the State from July 5th to the 20th; during that time Judge Shattuck will attend to the business of this District.

Louis Kastner of Baker city knows how to make good beer and please his customers; and Dan Patterson knows how to attend to its sale in Grand Ronde valley.

The hauling and grading machine of Bernard, Lee & Co. has been removed to the ranch of Thompson & Barnhart, where 60,000 pounds of wool will be baled and graded the coming week.

ENTERPRISE.—Our friend B. B. Bishop has purchased a good team, wagon, etc., and proposes to make a few trips into Granite to supply the mines with something good to eat. Bish. can do that thing successfully.

During the month of June there was shipped from Penleton through W. F. & C. O. Express, the following sums:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Greenbacks, currency and bonds, Silver, Total $2,091 13.

"Jap" of the Mountain Sentinel, and Arthur Webb, his celebrated bootmaker, law, caught in the McKay lot (S—) Monday 149 speckled turtles. They each stepped very high on their return. We shan't tell how many of that 149 the ladies caught.

CONTRABAND.—Joseph Jones reports that last week Charles Cuyler shipped on Butter creek, 115 sheep in 8 hours and 20 minutes, the sheep being average in size and fleece. This eclipses all feats in the sheering line which has come under observation this season.

Sunday's stage brought over from Penleton our old sponsor Adam Stang, all full of smiles and as broad as he is long, which shows he is in a good country. He supplied Penleton with the first drop of native lager.—Waldman.

It is dangerous for a Penletonite to visit Walla Walla, as he is sure to be noticed in the live papers of that town.

Fourth of July and other uncommon occurrences has decidedly interfered with the writing up, setting up, and make up of the EAST OREGONIAN this week. As all others tried to enjoy themselves, of course no exceptions can be taken to the flesh and blood of this establishment doing the same.

FURNITURE.—The building erected by J. N. Van Dorn has been vacated by Messrs. Bernard, Lee & Co., who have occupied it for grading and hauling wood. Mr. V. will now enter actively into the business of manufacturing and sale of furniture. His intention is to keep a good assortment on hand and manufacture to order.

THE RACE.—In the 2-year old race which came off Thursday, Elijah Welch entered Humboldt, (stallion), Geiger, Alabama, (filly), and Charlie Shoemaker, Gipsy, (filly). Gipsy proved winner of the race. Humboldt flew the track. The race was unsatisfactory, as it proved not to be a trial of speed. The winner is a "pert" little filly, and proves the old saw that "blood will tell."

The Canyon City Times charges us with copying Granite creek items from the Portland Standard, which paper stole them from the paper first referred to. If we did that thing we did it innocently; and if there has been a crime committed, of course the Standard is the criminal. Whenever we do a wrong and are convinced of it, we will quickly apologize—for we only weigh 123 pounds now!

CHEESE.—Newman & Vincent have commenced active operations in the manufacture of cheese the present year. Last year the firm put upon the market an excellent article, and it commanded ready sale. From sample sent us we have no doubt the article of the present year will sustain their well earned reputation. If we had more cheese and butter makers among us, the wealth of Umatilla county would be greatly enhanced.

THE FOURTH.—It would puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer to know just what to say about our Fourth, therefore what can be expected of a county local reporter? The best thing we can do is to publish a ragged item in regard to the celebration in Pendleton thus: Had live men been appointed on the committee to attend to matters pertaining to the celebration, a "way up" time would have been had. The Plug-Uglies were a grand success; the speaking by Stevens of the Sentinel, and Mart Taylor (you see we know these men by their backs, notwithstanding their terrible disguises) was excellent indeed. The driver of the band wagon, to which was attached a "Moose," did himself credit. We could notice others, but we have not time. Just as the Plugs had assembled in front of the court house to celebrate, about 200 Indians, male and female, made their appearance, and halted at a respectful distance. They saluted the crowd in their wild and weird way. The Plugs marched through the principal streets, and then in turn came the Indians. The latter were magnificently dressed, and presented rather a startling appearance. The balance of the day's sport consisted in John Bowman pounding with his head Steve Sanford's head, injuring the head considerably and the head but little; then Mart Taylor and John had a war of words, but the street was between them, hence no damage, except to ears, police, was done. Two young men on the race track had a little set-to, wherein young Finch tried his muscle on young Keeney, both parties exhausted themselves and then they were separated. At night some son of a gun sold whisky to some Indians, who became quite drunk but did no damage. By the way, the Fourth of July was celebrated in Pendleton—and that is the end of our Fourth of July item.

Our correspondent "J. N. O." at Butter Creek furnishes the following under date of July 5:

The Fourth was celebrated at Butter Creek postoffice, and a general good time was had. The declaration was read by Mr. John Viason. L. W. Darling delivered the oration and received many tokens of appreciation of the effort from the audience. "God save the State" was sung by the choir. Toasts were offered and responded to, after which all partook of a lunch and then the afternoon was taken up with a variety of races and other sports. The foot race—100 yards—was won by Aaron French; the horse race—300 yards—six entered, best two in three, was won by Charles Cates' cream horse, "Poindecker." The sack race was won by Johnny Viason, Darling coming within a whisker. The best of feeding prevailed and all voted the entertainment a success. About 50 persons engaged in the celebration.
