

LODGE DIRECTORY.

DAKOTA LODGE No. 4, N. of P. Meets in the Castle Hall, Pendleton, every Wednesday evening. Brothers in good standing are cordially invited to attend.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Services, P. M., 2nd Sunday of each month the Rev. L. H. Wells, 1st and 2nd Sunday the Rev. W. L. MacLean.

REMEMBER THE CHRISTMAS BALL. A. P. Shull has moved back to Pendleton. Livermore & Beagle have a fine lot of Christmas toys for sale cheap.

Wm. Switzler is putting an addition to his store on Main Street. Hon. Ben. Hayden has joined the Good Templars.

Frank Muldock of Heppner was in town this week and gave us a call. Mr. Wm. Wells who has been suffering for the last two months from the effects of paralysis is out again.

Mrs. Caples, wife of John P. Caples Esq. of Portland died recently at Oakland, California.

Indians on Deadwood, Dakota are murdering citizens and in Western Texas are murdering the soldiers.

WANTED—By J. M. Bentley, teamsters to haul lumber from Watson & Lohr's mill. He will pay $10 per thousand.

Mr. M. P. Bull, former editor of this paper has turned granger and moved on his ranch on the Walla Walla river.

Don't forget to call in and subscribe for the EAST OREGONIAN when you come to the Christmas ball.

TELEGRAMS—A. B. Meacham is to be editor of a newspaper in Philadelphia, to be called the "Common Era". How romantic.

DIED—Bishop Marvin of the M. E. Church South, died at his residence in St. Louis, Missouri, Nov. 20th.

D. H. Stearns has opened an advertising agency at Portland. Mr. Stearns is a thorough business man and we wish him success.

Ed. Bishop of Umatilla is still a cripple from the effect of a sprained ankle. His father, B. R. Bishop has returned to Pendleton.

J. S. Grimes of Harrisburg has departed and since his departure it appears that he is both a defaulter and forger. He got away with about $4,000.

Eastern Oregon is a unit for the P. D. & S. L. R. R. and differ with the Oregonian about asking, for we are sure to get no help unless we ask it.

Revs. W. H. Frost and S. W. Davis are our authorized agents and will receive subscriptions and receipt for money due this office.

Mrs. Barton is doing a good business for shipping millinery goods to her many customers. She has a good stock of goods and well deserves a liberal patronage.

The vault of the Fifth National Bank of New York, was blown open at noon, on Sunday, by burglars, who got away with $5,000.

BOX—On November 25th, in the wife of Mr. A. H. Porter, of Pendleton, a daughter, Weight 10 pounds.

No wonder Porter holds his head so high and looks so cheerful.

RETURNED—A. P. Craig returned home last Tuesday evening, after an absence of about nine months, away off in Idaho.

We are happy to see Mr. Craig's smiling face once more upon our streets, and we welcome you home.

A good tannery would pay well in Pendleton. A tanner desiring a location could do no better and find no better place than this to locate. The Blue Mountains abound in tannin and shamsack, hides can be had for a mere trifle, and leather bears a good price.

Prospectus—The "Pendleton Independent" will issue its first number in Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, on Tuesday, January 24, 1878. As its name indicates it will be independent in politics. It will be devoted to the best interests of Religion, Temperance, Good Morals and to the Home and Fireside. Terms $2.00 per year.

Mr. L. H. Lee is the champion duck hunter of Pendleton. He was out on short line last Wednesday and returned with nine ducks and two chickens. Less frequently acts in this way and of course keeps his table at the restaurant well supplied with the best of game—and better still he does not forget the printer. We are under obligations to him for two of so fine specimens of the feathered tribe as we ever said grace over.

Byers & Co. have commenced the foundation for an addition to the Pendleton Flouring mill. The addition will be 20x26 feet and same height of the other mill. One and perhaps two more runs of burrs will be added as soon as the addition is completed in the Spring. This is as good if not one of the best mills in the State and flour made here commands the best price in San Francisco.

A WAY-UP-THE-NEXT WEEK.—We are requested to announce to the public that the young ladies of the Episcopal Church intend to have an outing fair at Mr. Bailey's New Hall on Saturday the 22nd day of December, 1877, for the disposal of fancy articles—such as, lamp-mats, wall-pockets, wristlets, ties, and other articles too numerous to mention. Also cake and "sich like." All are respectfully invited, and a way-up-time expected. Come, boys and don't be backward, for 'tis to benefit the Church.

LIST OF LETTERS. Remaining in the Pendleton postoffice December 10, 1877: Acton, A. H. Bowman, Frank J. McShane, Thos. Newton, J. Blosser, James Bellows, John Bacon, J. W. Chambers, S. W. Crowder, Jerry Dinwiddie, Joe J. Dunaway, Mrs. A. J. Taylor, Jas. Davis, Charles French, S. G. Furman, J. C. E. Eschmann, Martin Howard, C. S.

Remember the Christmas ball. A. P. Shull has moved back to Pendleton.

Livermore & Beagle have a fine lot of Christmas toys for sale cheap.

Wm. Switzler is putting an addition to his store on Main Street.

Hon. Ben. Hayden has joined the Good Templars.

Frank Muldock of Heppner was in town this week and gave us a call.

Mr. Wm. Wells who has been suffering for the last two months from the effects of paralysis is out again.

Mrs. Caples, wife of John P. Caples Esq. of Portland died recently at Oakland, California.

Indians on Deadwood, Dakota are murdering citizens and in Western Texas are murdering the soldiers.

WANTED—By J. M. Bentley, teamsters to haul lumber from Watson & Lohr's mill. He will pay $10 per thousand.

Mr. M. P. Bull, former editor of this paper has turned granger and moved on his ranch on the Walla Walla river.

Don't forget to call in and subscribe for the EAST OREGONIAN when you come to the Christmas ball.

TELEGRAMS—A. B. Meacham is to be editor of a newspaper in Philadelphia, to be called the "Common Era". How romantic.

DIED—Bishop Marvin of the M. E. Church South, died at his residence in St. Louis, Missouri, Nov. 20th.

D. H. Stearns has opened an advertising agency at Portland. Mr. Stearns is a thorough business man and we wish him success.

Ed. Bishop of Umatilla is still a cripple from the effect of a sprained ankle. His father, B. R. Bishop has returned to Pendleton.

J. S. Grimes of Harrisburg has departed and since his departure it appears that he is both a defaulter and forger. He got away with about $4,000.

Eastern Oregon is a unit for the P. D. & S. L. R. R. and differ with the Oregonian about asking, for we are sure to get no help unless we ask it.

Revs. W. H. Frost and S. W. Davis are our authorized agents and will receive subscriptions and receipt for money due this office.

Mrs. Barton is doing a good business for shipping millinery goods to her many customers. She has a good stock of goods and well deserves a liberal patronage.

The vault of the Fifth National Bank of New York, was blown open at noon, on Sunday, by burglars, who got away with $5,000.

BOX—On November 25th, in the wife of Mr. A. H. Porter, of Pendleton, a daughter, Weight 10 pounds.

No wonder Porter holds his head so high and looks so cheerful.

RETURNED—A. P. Craig returned home last Tuesday evening, after an absence of about nine months, away off in Idaho.

We are happy to see Mr. Craig's smiling face once more upon our streets, and we welcome you home.

A good tannery would pay well in Pendleton. A tanner desiring a location could do no better and find no better place than this to locate. The Blue Mountains abound in tannin and shamsack, hides can be had for a mere trifle, and leather bears a good price.

Prospectus—The "Pendleton Independent" will issue its first number in Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, on Tuesday, January 24, 1878. As its name indicates it will be independent in politics. It will be devoted to the best interests of Religion, Temperance, Good Morals and to the Home and Fireside. Terms $2.00 per year.

Mr. L. H. Lee is the champion duck hunter of Pendleton. He was out on short line last Wednesday and returned with nine ducks and two chickens. Less frequently acts in this way and of course keeps his table at the restaurant well supplied with the best of game—and better still he does not forget the printer. We are under obligations to him for two of so fine specimens of the feathered tribe as we ever said grace over.

Byers & Co. have commenced the foundation for an addition to the Pendleton Flouring mill. The addition will be 20x26 feet and same height of the other mill. One and perhaps two more runs of burrs will be added as soon as the addition is completed in the Spring. This is as good if not one of the best mills in the State and flour made here commands the best price in San Francisco.

A WAY-UP-THE-NEXT WEEK.—We are requested to announce to the public that the young ladies of the Episcopal Church intend to have an outing fair at Mr. Bailey's New Hall on Saturday the 22nd day of December, 1877, for the disposal of fancy articles—such as, lamp-mats, wall-pockets, wristlets, ties, and other articles too numerous to mention. Also cake and "sich like." All are respectfully invited, and a way-up-time expected. Come, boys and don't be backward, for 'tis to benefit the Church.

LIST OF LETTERS. Remaining in the Pendleton postoffice December 10, 1877: Acton, A. H. Bowman, Frank J. McShane, Thos. Newton, J. Blosser, James Bellows, John Bacon, J. W. Chambers, S. W. Crowder, Jerry Dinwiddie, Joe J. Dunaway, Mrs. A. J. Taylor, Jas. Davis, Charles French, S. G. Furman, J. C. E. Eschmann, Martin Howard, C. S.

Remember the Christmas ball. A. P. Shull has moved back to Pendleton.

Livermore & Beagle have a fine lot of Christmas toys for sale cheap.

Wm. Switzler is putting an addition to his store on Main Street.

Hon. Ben. Hayden has joined the Good Templars.

Frank Muldock of Heppner was in town this week and gave us a call.

Mr. Wm. Wells who has been suffering for the last two months from the effects of paralysis is out again.

Mrs. Caples, wife of John P. Caples Esq. of Portland died recently at Oakland, California.

Indians on Deadwood, Dakota are murdering citizens and in Western Texas are murdering the soldiers.

WANTED—By J. M. Bentley, teamsters to haul lumber from Watson & Lohr's mill. He will pay $10 per thousand.

Mr. M. P. Bull, former editor of this paper has turned granger and moved on his ranch on the Walla Walla river.

Don't forget to call in and subscribe for the EAST OREGONIAN when you come to the Christmas ball.

TELEGRAMS—A. B. Meacham is to be editor of a newspaper in Philadelphia, to be called the "Common Era". How romantic.

DIED—Bishop Marvin of the M. E. Church South, died at his residence in St. Louis, Missouri, Nov. 20th.

D. H. Stearns has opened an advertising agency at Portland. Mr. Stearns is a thorough business man and we wish him success.

Ed. Bishop of Umatilla is still a cripple from the effect of a sprained ankle. His father, B. R. Bishop has returned to Pendleton.

J. S. Grimes of Harrisburg has departed and since his departure it appears that he is both a defaulter and forger. He got away with about $4,000.

Eastern Oregon is a unit for the P. D. & S. L. R. R. and differ with the Oregonian about asking, for we are sure to get no help unless we ask it.

Revs. W. H. Frost and S. W. Davis are our authorized agents and will receive subscriptions and receipt for money due this office.

Mrs. Barton is doing a good business for shipping millinery goods to her many customers. She has a good stock of goods and well deserves a liberal patronage.

The vault of the Fifth National Bank of New York, was blown open at noon, on Sunday, by burglars, who got away with $5,000.

BOX—On November 25th, in the wife of Mr. A. H. Porter, of Pendleton, a daughter, Weight 10 pounds.

No wonder Porter holds his head so high and looks so cheerful.

RETURNED—A. P. Craig returned home last Tuesday evening, after an absence of about nine months, away off in Idaho.

We are happy to see Mr. Craig's smiling face once more upon our streets, and we welcome you home.

A good tannery would pay well in Pendleton. A tanner desiring a location could do no better and find no better place than this to locate. The Blue Mountains abound in tannin and shamsack, hides can be had for a mere trifle, and leather bears a good price.

Prospectus—The "Pendleton Independent" will issue its first number in Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, on Tuesday, January 24, 1878. As its name indicates it will be independent in politics. It will be devoted to the best interests of Religion, Temperance, Good Morals and to the Home and Fireside. Terms $2.00 per year.

Mr. L. H. Lee is the champion duck hunter of Pendleton. He was out on short line last Wednesday and returned with nine ducks and two chickens. Less frequently acts in this way and of course keeps his table at the restaurant well supplied with the best of game—and better still he does not forget the printer. We are under obligations to him for two of so fine specimens of the feathered tribe as we ever said grace over.

Byers & Co. have commenced the foundation for an addition to the Pendleton Flouring mill. The addition will be 20x26 feet and same height of the other mill. One and perhaps two more runs of burrs will be added as soon as the addition is completed in the Spring. This is as good if not one of the best mills in the State and flour made here commands the best price in San Francisco.

A WAY-UP-THE-NEXT WEEK.—We are requested to announce to the public that the young ladies of the Episcopal Church intend to have an outing fair at Mr. Bailey's New Hall on Saturday the 22nd day of December, 1877, for the disposal of fancy articles—such as, lamp-mats, wall-pockets, wristlets, ties, and other articles too numerous to mention. Also cake and "sich like." All are respectfully invited, and a way-up-time expected. Come, boys and don't be backward, for 'tis to benefit the Church.

LIST OF LETTERS. Remaining in the Pendleton postoffice December 10, 1877: Acton, A. H. Bowman, Frank J. McShane, Thos. Newton, J. Blosser, James Bellows, John Bacon, J. W. Chambers, S. W. Crowder, Jerry Dinwiddie, Joe J. Dunaway, Mrs. A. J. Taylor, Jas. Davis, Charles French, S. G. Furman, J. C. E. Eschmann, Martin Howard, C. S.

Remember the Christmas ball. A. P. Shull has moved back to Pendleton.

Livermore & Beagle have a fine lot of Christmas toys for sale cheap.

Wm. Switzler is putting an addition to his store on Main Street.

Hon. Ben. Hayden has joined the Good Templars.

Frank Muldock of Heppner was in town this week and gave us a call.

Mr. Wm. Wells who has been suffering for the last two months from the effects of paralysis is out again.

Mrs. Caples, wife of John P. Caples Esq. of Portland died recently at Oakland, California.

Indians on Deadwood, Dakota are murdering citizens and in Western Texas are murdering the soldiers.

WANTED—By J. M. Bentley, teamsters to haul lumber from Watson & Lohr's mill. He will pay $10 per thousand.

Mr. M. P. Bull, former editor of this paper has turned granger and moved on his ranch on the Walla Walla river.

Don't forget to call in and subscribe for the EAST OREGONIAN when you come to the Christmas ball.

TELEGRAMS—A. B. Meacham is to be editor of a newspaper in Philadelphia, to be called the "Common Era". How romantic.

DIED—Bishop Marvin of the M. E. Church South, died at his residence in St. Louis, Missouri, Nov. 20th.

D. H. Stearns has opened an advertising agency at Portland. Mr. Stearns is a thorough business man and we wish him success.

Ed. Bishop of Umatilla is still a cripple from the effect of a sprained ankle. His father, B. R. Bishop has returned to Pendleton.

J. S. Grimes of Harrisburg has departed and since his departure it appears that he is both a defaulter and forger. He got away with about $4,000.

Eastern Oregon is a unit for the P. D. & S. L. R. R. and differ with the Oregonian about asking, for we are sure to get no help unless we ask it.

Revs. W. H. Frost and S. W. Davis are our authorized agents and will receive subscriptions and receipt for money due this office.

Mrs. Barton is doing a good business for shipping millinery goods to her many customers. She has a good stock of goods and well deserves a liberal patronage.

The vault of the Fifth National Bank of New York, was blown open at noon, on Sunday, by burglars, who got away with $5,000.

BOX—On November 25th, in the wife of Mr. A. H. Porter, of Pendleton, a daughter, Weight 10 pounds.

No wonder Porter holds his head so high and looks so cheerful.

RETURNED—A. P. Craig returned home last Tuesday evening, after an absence of about nine months, away off in Idaho.

We are happy to see Mr. Craig's smiling face once more upon our streets, and we welcome you home.

A good tannery would pay well in Pendleton. A tanner desiring a location could do no better and find no better place than this to locate. The Blue Mountains abound in tannin and shamsack, hides can be had for a mere trifle, and leather bears a good price.

Prospectus—The "Pendleton Independent" will issue its first number in Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, on Tuesday, January 24, 1878. As its name indicates it will be independent in politics. It will be devoted to the best interests of Religion, Temperance, Good Morals and to the Home and Fireside. Terms $2.00 per year.

Mr. L. H. Lee is the champion duck hunter of Pendleton. He was out on short line last Wednesday and returned with nine ducks and two chickens. Less frequently acts in this way and of course keeps his table at the restaurant well supplied with the best of game—and better still he does not forget the printer. We are under obligations to him for two of so fine specimens of the feathered tribe as we ever said grace over.

Byers & Co. have commenced the foundation for an addition to the Pendleton Flouring mill. The addition will be 20x26 feet and same height of the other mill. One and perhaps two more runs of burrs will be added as soon as the addition is completed in the Spring. This is as good if not one of the best mills in the State and flour made here commands the best price in San Francisco.

A WAY-UP-THE-NEXT WEEK.—We are requested to announce to the public that the young ladies of the Episcopal Church intend to have an outing fair at Mr. Bailey's New Hall on Saturday the 22nd day of December, 1877, for the disposal of fancy articles—such as, lamp-mats, wall-pockets, wristlets, ties, and other articles too numerous to mention. Also cake and "sich like." All are respectfully invited, and a way-up-time expected. Come, boys and don't be backward, for 'tis to benefit the Church.

LIST OF LETTERS. Remaining in the Pendleton postoffice December 10, 1877: Acton, A. H. Bowman, Frank J. McShane, Thos. Newton, J. Blosser, James Bellows, John Bacon, J. W. Chambers, S. W. Crowder, Jerry Dinwiddie, Joe J. Dunaway, Mrs. A. J. Taylor, Jas. Davis, Charles French, S. G. Furman, J. C. E. Eschmann, Martin Howard, C. S.

Remember the Christmas ball. A. P. Shull has moved back to Pendleton.

Livermore & Beagle have a fine lot of Christmas toys for sale cheap.

Wm. Switzler is putting an addition to his store on Main Street.

Hon. Ben. Hayden has joined the Good Templars.

Frank Muldock of Heppner was in town this week and gave us a call.

Mr. Wm. Wells who has been suffering for the last two months from the effects of paralysis is out again.

Mrs. Caples, wife of John P. Caples Esq. of Portland died recently at Oakland, California.

Indians on Deadwood, Dakota are murdering citizens and in Western Texas are murdering the soldiers.

WANTED—By J. M. Bentley, teamsters to haul lumber from Watson & Lohr's mill. He will pay $10 per thousand.

Mr. M. P. Bull, former editor of this paper has turned granger and moved on his ranch on the Walla Walla river.

Don't forget to call in and subscribe for the EAST OREGONIAN when you come to the Christmas ball.

TELEGRAMS—A. B. Meacham is to be editor of a newspaper in Philadelphia, to be called the "Common Era". How romantic.

DIED—Bishop Marvin of the M. E. Church South, died at his residence in St. Louis, Missouri, Nov. 20th.

D. H. Stearns has opened an advertising agency at Portland. Mr. Stearns is a thorough business man and we wish him success.

Ed. Bishop of Umatilla is still a cripple from the effect of a sprained ankle. His father, B. R. Bishop has returned to Pendleton.

J. S. Grimes of Harrisburg has departed and since his departure it appears that he is both a defaulter and forger. He got away with about $4,000.

Eastern Oregon is a unit for the P. D. & S. L. R. R. and differ with the Oregonian about asking, for we are sure to get no help unless we ask it.

Revs. W. H. Frost and S. W. Davis are our authorized agents and will receive subscriptions and receipt for money due this office.

Mrs. Barton is doing a good business for shipping millinery goods to her many customers. She has a good stock of goods and well deserves a liberal patronage.

The vault of the Fifth National Bank of New York, was blown open at noon, on Sunday, by burglars, who got away with $5,000.

BOX—On November 25th, in the wife of Mr. A. H. Porter, of Pendleton, a daughter, Weight 10 pounds.

No wonder Porter holds his head so high and looks so cheerful.

RETURNED—A. P. Craig returned home last Tuesday evening, after an absence of about nine months, away off in Idaho.

We are happy to see Mr. Craig's smiling face once more upon our streets, and we welcome you home.

A good tannery would pay well in Pendleton. A tanner desiring a location could do no better and find no better place than this to locate. The Blue Mountains abound in tannin and shamsack, hides can be had for a mere trifle, and leather bears a good price.

Prospectus—The "Pendleton Independent" will issue its first number in Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, on Tuesday, January 24, 1878. As its name indicates it will be independent in politics. It will be devoted to the best interests of Religion, Temperance, Good Morals and to the Home and Fireside. Terms $2.00 per year.

Mr. L. H. Lee is the champion duck hunter of Pendleton. He was out on short line last Wednesday and returned with nine ducks and two chickens. Less frequently acts in this way and of course keeps his table at the restaurant well supplied with the best of game—and better still he does not forget the printer. We are under obligations to him for two of so fine specimens of the feathered tribe as we ever said grace over.

Byers & Co. have commenced the foundation for an addition to the Pendleton Flouring mill. The addition will be 20x26 feet and same height of the other mill. One and perhaps two more runs of burrs will be added as soon as the addition is completed in the Spring. This is as good if not one of the best mills in the State and flour made here commands the best price in San Francisco.

A WAY-UP-THE-NEXT WEEK.—We are requested to announce to the public that the young ladies of the Episcopal Church intend to have an outing fair at Mr. Bailey's New Hall on Saturday the 22nd day of December, 1877, for the disposal of fancy articles—such as, lamp-mats, wall-pockets, wristlets, ties, and other articles too numerous to mention. Also cake and "sich like." All are respectfully invited, and a way-up-time expected. Come, boys and don't be backward, for 'tis to benefit the Church.

LIST OF LETTERS. Remaining in the Pendleton postoffice December 10, 1877: Acton, A. H. Bowman, Frank J. McShane, Thos. Newton, J. Blosser, James Bellows, John Bacon, J. W. Chambers, S. W. Crowder, Jerry Dinwiddie, Joe J. Dunaway, Mrs. A. J. Taylor, Jas. Davis, Charles French, S. G. Furman, J. C. E. Eschmann, Martin Howard, C. S.

Remember the Christmas ball. A. P. Shull has moved back to Pendleton.

Livermore & Beagle have a fine lot of Christmas toys for sale cheap.

Wm. Switzler is putting an addition to his store on Main Street.

Hon. Ben. Hayden has joined the Good Templars.

Frank Muldock of Heppner was in town this week and gave us a call.

Mr. Wm. Wells who has been suffering for the last two months from the effects of paralysis is out again.

Mrs. Caples, wife of John P. Caples Esq. of Portland died recently at Oakland, California.

Indians on Deadwood, Dakota are murdering citizens and in Western Texas are murdering the soldiers.

WANTED—By J. M. Bentley, teamsters to haul lumber from Watson & Lohr's mill. He will pay $10 per thousand.

Mr. M. P. Bull, former editor of this paper has turned granger and moved on his ranch on the Walla Walla river.

Don't forget to call in and subscribe for the EAST OREGONIAN when you come to the Christmas ball.

TELEGRAMS—A. B. Meacham is to be editor of a newspaper in Philadelphia, to be called the "Common Era". How romantic.

DIED—Bishop Marvin of the M. E. Church South, died at his residence in St. Louis, Missouri, Nov. 20th.

D. H. Stearns has opened an advertising agency at Portland. Mr. Stearns is a thorough business man and we wish him success.

Ed. Bishop of Umatilla is still a cripple from the effect of a sprained ankle. His father, B. R. Bishop has returned to Pendleton.

J. S. Grimes of Harrisburg has departed and since his departure it appears that he is both a defaulter and forger. He got away with about $4,000.

Eastern Oregon is a unit for the P. D. & S. L. R. R. and differ with the Oregonian about asking, for we are sure to get no help unless we ask it.

Revs. W. H. Frost and S. W. Davis are our authorized agents and will receive subscriptions and receipt for money due this office.

Mrs. Barton is doing a good business for shipping millinery goods to her many customers. She has a good stock of goods and well deserves a liberal patronage.

The vault of the Fifth National Bank of New York, was blown open at noon, on Sunday, by burglars, who got away with $5,000.