

Card from Hon. J. S. Smith.
The following card will be read with regret by the many friends of Hon. J. S. Smith:
PORTLAND, Feb. 4, 1878.
EDITOR OF THE STANDARD.—Dear Sir: As I have been frequently mentioned as a probable candidate of the Democratic party for Governor in the ensuing election, I wish to announce through your columns, that I shall not be a candidate for that office. While I would highly prize an unsought nomination by my fellow Democrats for that high position, and an election by the people among whom I have lived so long, as a mark of their continued confidence in one who has tried to serve them well, the condition of my health is such as to constrain me to forego all aspirations in that direction. The effect of this season on my health convinces me that I cannot safely remain in this climate in the winter time, and I shall shortly leave the state to be absent many months—certainly until after the election. I am very respectfully yours,
J. S. SMITH.

Democrats, do you take your county paper, or do you wait for your neighbor to take it and then borrow it? If you are not taking it come in at once and give us your name, and when you come bring with you if possible the amount of the subscription price. If you haven't the money bring something else. Remember we take anything and are willing to allow a fair price for it. Whatever it will bring in the market. To run a paper money is necessary, absolutely necessary, and to make a paper a success, the patrons must take an interest in it. Speak to your neighbor, ask him to subscribe, send in whatever may transpire in your vicinity, give the items, we will arrange it and put it in shape if you don't wish to take the trouble on yourself. If any body marries, dies, runs off, gets drunk and raises Cain, murders any one or steals anything, let us know it, and don't forget to let us know when there is a new arrival in the way of a baby in your locality. And now again we ask you to send in your names, take the paper, advertise your business and help us along. Will you?

Ben. Butler says Hayes will not veto the Bland silver bill. He says: "By G—d this is no child's fight. Vetoes won't do when men smell blood. If you don't give the people this silver bill and repeal the resumption law, they will tackle the national debt next time and wipe it out at the double quick. If I had any influence at all with the bond-holders I would urge them in the name of common sense and common self-protection to help on the silver tide, and it has not yet reached its flood."

WELLS IN PRISON.—NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4.—Governor Wells was brought to this city this morning by the morning train on the New Orleans and Mobile railroad, and was taken to the parish prison. He is suffering from a slight attack of pneumonia. Wells declines to answer questions as to his reason for leaving town or surrendering. The current report is that he has surrendered to save the sureties on his bond, but the fact is, his counsel expect to get a favorable jury out of the new panel which was drawn last Sunday.

Democrats, rouse up! remember the last Presidential election! Be up and doing, the time is short for work. Talk to your neighbor—warm up in the work and let us give in Umatilla such a majority as we have not given for years. The states east are all wheeling in line. We have control of the lower House in Congress and a bare majority against us in the Senate. We can and must send a Democrat to succeed Mitchell.

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—The members of the Republican State Central committee are hereby notified that a meeting of the committee is called, to be held at the city of Portland, on February 20th 1878, at the hour of 1 P. M. A full attendance is desired.
DAVID GOODSELL, Chairman.
Portland, Jan. 29th, 1878.

Democratic County Central Committee are holding meeting to-day. Democratic Clubs should now be organized in every precinct in the county. Organize and have speakers to talk to you every week. We have a cunning and crafty enemy to meet, an enemy that will not scruple to practice any "trick that is vain" to defeat us at the polls. Be vigilant and all is well.

Hon. Joseph Smith declines to be a candidate before the Democratic convention for Governor, on account of ill health. He cannot remain in this climate. Perhaps Mr. Smith would accept the nomination for Congress. He is one of Oregon's best and noblest men and would be easily elected.

WASHINGTONIANS BELIEVE IN HELL.—The Capital thinks the proposed abolition of hell that originated with Beecher, Pope of Brooklyn, has not disturbed much the divines of Washington. They are too near the seat of government to be disturbed by any such wild theory. Even Bob Ingersoll, looking at Dawes, Pigeon Kelley and others, says he can see that if there is no hell that there ought to be one. Why there's John Sherman; if his head was not made for the devil to break bark over, to hinder his brimstone with the ruined business men of the land see no design in God's creation. Don't disturb hell or attempt to move the capital.

Anderson, one of the Louisiana conspirators of Retaining Board no-dicky has been convicted on a charge of fraud and perjury in returning the vote of that state for Hayes and Packard. That's right, "let no guilty man escape."

The little babe picked up here some time ago, and of which we spoke, is one of the quietest little things we have seen. It's nurse tells us that it has never yet as much as whimpered. It is kept constantly doped however with soothing syrup and kept well confined in its same old swaddling clothes. The poor thing is fed from a bottle and is doing wonderfully well considering everything. There is some talk now of having it made into mullage preparatory to posting stickers at the June election. If the proprietors find they can't fool anybody they will speak right out in "meetin'" pretty soon for Mitchell. Everyone who has seen it knows that it was gotten up as a little nose-rag for one Senator Mitchell—that man who is so muchly married.

The annual exports from Oregon represent an average of three hundred and eighteen dollars gold to every voter. Abundance of gold and cheap government, railroads, and private lands in Oregon. No land monopolies, as in California. Variety of timber in Oregon of exceptional excellence for industrial purposes. Oregon has great mineral resources, especially coal, iron, lead, gold and silver. Fine natural water system, vast water power. Oregon waters abound with fish.

There is no disguising the fact—for it is a fact apparent to all,—that the prospects for the fishing business on the Columbia river this season are not in the least encouraging. Contracts cannot be made at present at more than $1.40 to $1.45 per dozen, even less; and thousands of cans are held in the market now for which not more than $1.00 per dozen $1.00 per case, is offered.—Advt. Gen.

DAN HOLTON A BANKRUPT.—The announcement last evening of the failure of Mr. Dan Holton caused a feeling of keen regret in the hearts of his many friends, who were unprepared for such unwelcome news. Dan has been endeavoring to stem the current of adverse circumstances ever since the destruction of the Cosmopolitan Hotel; but was finally compelled to succumb. His creditors were notified of the situation and his application to be thrown into bankruptcy. They will hold a meeting next Monday and agree upon what course to pursue. The amount of the liabilities are variously stated, some placing them as high as $37,000; but of this, we cannot speak accurately. We have been reliably informed that the assets are sufficient to pay the indebtedness dollar for dollar. Mr. Holton has the sympathy of the whole community, who solicitous to see him clear of all his troubles. Dan is a general favorite; liberal to a fault to the poor and deserving, and ever ready to assuage the wants of the unfortunate by every means in his power. The statement of his affairs will be made public in a few days.—Portland Bz.

THE POPE'S DEATH.—ROME, Feb. 7.—The Pope's legs were so much better yesterday that he was able to walk a few steps. It is believed this exertion was fatal. The change for the worse occurred at 4 o'clock in the morning, when the death agony commenced. The cardinals were assembled in conclave in the next room, but altogether, with the dignitaries of the papal court, were at his bedside at the moment of his death. Cardinal Penabazca administered the last sacraments. All the ambassadors accredited to the vatican called to make inquiries during the morning. King Humbert also constantly sent for information. No one is now admitted to the vatican except pontifical chamberlains who are charged with the office of guarding the corpse. Monsignor Simonelli, cardinal secretary of state, ordered the Gazzettino Romano, the daily organ of the vatican, to suspend publication until to-morrow. The city is perfectly tranquil. The authorities have taken all measures they deem necessary. The police and municipal guards prevent approach to the vatican.

WESTON OBSERVATIONS.
FEBRUARY 11, 1878.
EDITOR E. O.:—The recent rains has put a stop to farming for the present, and now the farmers can come to town and talk railroad, politics, etc.
A few cases of diphtheria are reported yet in the neighborhood. Mr. T. J. Kirk, living near Weston, lost a little girl a few days since, which makes three out of the family within two weeks.
A debating club has been organized here and on next Wednesday evening the great Chinese question which has agitated the people of this coast so long will be permanently settled. The club is composed mostly of doctors and preachers, a singular combination of testaments and pills, and if one side don't succeed in converting John from paganism to Christianity the other can give him a dose that will cause him to emigrate.
I am informed that the young ladies of Weston have organized a calico society, or old maid union. I have not learned the object to be attained by the institution, but its early disruption is clearly indicated by the sacrifices demanded of the members who are required to tell all their secrets to the sisters, not to look at the old bachelors especially when said bachelors are looking at them. They are also required to rise at five in the morning and build a fire, that they may be better fitted as the better-half of some unsuspecting bachelor.
The usual quiet of our town was disturbed a few days since on the arrival of a Chinaman from La Grande, accompanied by a Chinawoman, when one of our wash Chinaman took occasion to settle old scores with the other celestial by drawing a pistol and threatening to shoot, but old Al, the stage driver, turned loose his bazooka, and in language more forcible than elegant persuaded him to defer the matter until some future time. A woman was at the bottom of it as usual.

Now and Then

We often hear of young men complaining now-a-days of hard times. They tell us there is nothing doing, can't get work, wages too low, etc., etc. To all such we would say they are blessed, times are good now compared with what they were years ago. A boy can readily get $1 00 per day and board, while in the remembrance of those who lived 40 or 50 years ago they could get only a very small proportion of that amount.

One day this week we listened to the history and experience of one of our friends Rube Oliver. He gave a full account of his start in life in Missouri, says he worked when he first left home for a man at $7 00 per month, and was to take a calf in payment, valued at $3 00. When he earned the calf he quit work and got the man to winter it. When spring came he went to see his calf and found his man charged him $4 00 for wintering it. As he did not have the money he let his man have the calf for $3 00 and worked the other dollar out at 25 cents a day, the man at first wanting him to board himself, but finally agreed to board him. Rube then went to cutting hoop poles at 25 cents a day, worked one day and the man turned him off, giving him an order on a store 6 miles off for his pay. As it was so far he staid 'till after breakfast and was charged 25 cents for his meal and as he had no money he had to give the order back. He says he then took his "kiverlid" on his back and went to Indiana where he got a job on a flat-boat down the Wabash to New Orleans. He was to get 25 cents a day and board, went down as far as Cairo where he was turned off and set ashore without a cent, the captain claiming 25 cents for extra meals had on the way when there was nothing to do. He then offered to give his gun if the captain would give the change. The captain refused. He then offered to give his dog knife, the only article of property he had except the gun. But the captain opened his heart and told him to go, and Rube went fighting his way on foot back to Holt County, Missouri 17 days travel, begging his way. Soon after this he struck for California with a man on the shares, agreeing to give him half he made.

Most young men would have become discouraged before they would have gone through half this, but Rube has battled his way through and now has competency in this world's goods, a nice family and is as happy as a clam.

A CARD AND PROSPECTUS

HAVING OPENED A FREE INTELLIGENCE OFFICE, for the purpose of aiding and assisting new settlers by all possible means at my command, wherever they have any land to be sold, whether in Oregon and Washington Territory, I have also determined to establish a land journal, to be called "THE OREGON AND WASHINGTON LAND REGISTER." The object of which is to bring Land Owners and Real Estate Agents into closer communication with the thousands of immigrants who are arriving in the city with a view to the ultimate purchase of land. It will be printed in regular weekly numbers, and will be devoted solely to the interests of the settlers. It contains a list of 4,000 acres of land to be sold on the 15th of February, 1878, and is often thereafter as the index of immigration demands.
Descriptions of farms and other property for sale will be contained in every issue (70 words) or less, and will be charged for at the rate of $1 each. It is more than possible that from twenty-five to 30 thousand people will be added to our population during the spring and summer of 1878. Nearly all immigrants who come to Oregon and Washington Territory will look at Portland, and will receive a copy of this paper, or it will be distributed gratuitously. It will therefore be the best possible means of bringing lands and other property for sale into their notice.
Descriptions of property for sale may be written out in full, giving character, location, price, terms of sale, and all other particulars, and a copy of the paper, which will be absolutely confined to the requirements of the advertiser, and sent to the advertiser free of charge. No charge will be made for sales arranged through this agency.—Only the required being one dollar for each description, and the fee for the State and Territory for sale will be forwarded with the description. It will be returned by registered letter, or by postal order at my risk.
