

Charlie Ross. The Charlie Ross abduction case has once more come to the front, and this time it is the discovery right in our immediate vicinity of a boy who is said to resemble in many points the long-lost child, that has reawakened interest.

The Marriage at Madrid. The cortes has given its assent, which was mere matter of form, and on Wednesday next a queen will ascend the Spanish throne. The son of Isabella, and of heaven knows whom besides, has made a longer stay of it in the E-curl than good heads deemed possible two years ago.

Jefferson and "Rip Van Winkle." From a delightful, homely and appreciative article upon Jefferson and "Rip Van Winkle," published in the last Apollon, we clip the following extracts.
