

A thrill of satisfaction will pervade the whole community when it reads of the arrest of the notorious Johnson, the last of the murderous wretches who killed young Joseph and robbed and maltreated Mr. O'Shea in Portland a few months ago.

Though kept very quiet, information has been received and orders forwarded to every town and hamlet on the Pacific coast which Johnson would be likely to seek as a haven of refuge.

This answer went skipping along the wires: "Yes, there is $350 reward offered for his apprehension." Kelly, to make sure of no mistake sent another as follows: "Are you certain he is the right man. Look for F. T. on left leg." Chief Harris responded.

He has acknowledged everything, and has the letters F. T. on left leg." Capt. Kelly again telegraphed, "Keep him safe. We will forward a man with the necessary papers immediately who will return with him to Portland."

Crown Dying.

At 1 o'clock last Saturday the editor of the Standard visited the room of E. A. Cronin in Portland and found him dying. The physician had given him up and departed. He was unconscious, but was vomiting freely. He could scarcely live more than an hour, and ere this paragraph reaches your eyes the spirit of E. A. Cronin will have flown.

"Memphis has many rich men who own palatial stores along Main Street. There are none of these rich men here to-day, says a Memphis paper, in the hour our greatest calamity. These rich men are neither represented in person nor by their surplus dollars. The majority who are standing in the deadly breach, fighting the most gigantic plague that ever cursed American soil, are men who do not own one dollar in real estate in Memphis."

The citizens living in that portion of the country lying between Antelope, in Wasco county, and Heppner, in Umatilla county, says the Mountaineer, complain that the mail route that formerly passed between these two points has been discontinued. We have been unable to ascertain the cause. The country is thickly settled up for a new country, and the stopping of the mail works a great hardship upon the people.

Ed. East Oregonian:—Times are lively here. Several new buildings under way and quite a number just completed. More are in contemplation. Since the opening of Mr. Minor's store, we are blessed with that long wished for competition which tends to a diminishing of the extortionate prices heretofore paid for goods.

Mr. Heppner has just completed his large and commodious warehouse which he is now filling with an abundance of goods. His attention to his numerous subscribers is most commendable. To the subscribers of the East Oregonian we offer an apology for the last two issues. The acting editor has had but little sleep for the past two weeks. No night without his being at the bedside of his suffering little boy. It was too great a strain on his nerves to attempt to furnish matter for a newspaper, was out of the question. Our correspondents for some time have failed to connect. We ask your consideration in the premises that hereafter you will receive a more timely and valuable paper. We will be loyal.

FAIR NOTES.—UNION CO.—Jim Jacob's Diamond was entered in the "free for all" horse race that never won first premium public money" race. Grand Ronde horse took first premium—"Gray Mandy," La Buff's horse. E. Welch entered Humboldt in 3 year old, 2 in 3 race and got away with $1 money. Indication that the fair will end with very disagreeable weather.—Scenical.

Jim Handford has returned from the fair; also S. L. Morse and in fact all who attended from this side of the mountains. The fair is far from being what it was last year. The pavilion was the great center of attraction to all lovers of the beautiful, remarks the Gazette. The display of wools of skill and taste was really creditable. The display of vegetables was particularly fine. The fruit was good—much of it very good; but, owing to the scarcity this year, not as great a variety nor as large an amount as usual. On the whole the pavilion was a success.

Scenical says.—At the present writing, (Thursday morning) there are no more people on the Union County Fair Grounds than has frequently been present the week before the fair. Many reasons are assignable for the lack of interest manifested, which we will deem it our privilege as well as our duty to discuss hereafter.

1st day—Running at 2 o'clock, P. M., single dash of 1 mile free for all horses that have never won 1st premium public money; purse $50. 1st horse $40 saddle, 2d horse $10 bridle.

2d day—Running at 2 P. M., single dash of 1 mile, free for all 2 year olds; purse $50. 1st horse, $40; 2d horse $10.

3d day—1.30 P. M., running race, two in three, free for all three year olds, purse $75. First horse $40; second horse $15; third horse $10.

E. Welch, Humboldt; W. F. Moffet, Monkey; James Calvin, Remington. In the race Remington was the favorite although his backers seemed to have grave doubts of his making his race as he had frequently botched, and his turners gave notice that they would avail themselves of one of the rules of the society, which reads as follows: "Any animal or animals entering in a race may go against the time of the race, providing the intention so to do is stated to the judges before any of the animals start. Any animal bolting or flying the track may have the same privilege. In accordance with anticipations, Remington made several attempts to bolt, but his rider succeeded in keeping him in and came under the wire 20 feet behind Humboldt, Humboldt winning the heat; Menckey being distanced. In the 2d heat just before making the turn to go down the back stretch, Remington bolted, jumped over the low fence with which the turn of the track is enclosed, fell, rolled over and got loose from his rider. Fortunately neither were hurt and the heat was made by Humboldt in 2:17. Remington went against the time and won. The race caused considerable loud talk among the crazy wind bags that can always be found on a race course, and we think the rule is one that should be amended or stricken out. The two horses were then brought to the score, each having won a heat, but Humboldt's nerve was seemingly exhausted, while Remington was now calm and manageable, apparently in good condition for winning the heat, which he did easily. Humboldt winning second money.

Same day, trotting, free for all horses that never beat 3 minutes. J. L. Caviness, Billy Barlow; E. W. Reynolds, Sao Francisco Patchen; won by Barlow—time 2:04.

4th day—11 o'clock P. M., grand parade of cattle.

1.30 P. M., running race, three in five, free for all; purse $200 in coin. First horse $150, second, $50.

The entries in this race were only two—Grizzly and Pinto—and in the pool box Grizzly was the favorite nearly two to one. Grizzly won the first heat, 1:54; second in 2:04; third in 2:17, which carried away the 150 dollar prize and gave Pinto 2d money.

2 P. M., running race, one-half mile heats best two in three, free for all, purse $75 dollars. First horse 50 second horse 25. Won by Fire-fly.

5th day—11 A. M., grand parade of horses.

2 P. M., trotting race three in five, free for all; purse $150 coin. First horse $120, second horse $30.

Entries: Bashaw and Suttan. Considerable rain having fallen during the forenoon renders the track in bad condition for racing. The bright blue sky is invisible and the dark clouds and heavy fog seem to indicate a dark ending to the Union county fair.

Bashaw and Suttan came to the score three times, Bashaw leading and winning each heat.
