

If it were true in the misty of the past that that roads ran to Rome, it is no less true in the feverish present that all interests in America center in New York.

METROPOLITAN LIFE.

Winter life in the Metropolis is so full of interest and fascination that one literally takes no note of time but by its Sundays, which, fortunately, are not yet constructed here on the "European plan."

And here in the centre of American life, activity and enterprise you propose to have a correspondent. Well, if you will let me I mean to depart occasionally from the beaten track of city gossip, and tell you readers, now and then, about some of the many really great and deservedly famous features and men of New York.

RAPID TRANSIT.

If the year 1823 deserves to be memorable as that which witnessed the opening of the Erie Canal, the year 1878 promises to be far more memorable in the annals of Gotham by virtue of rapid transit.

MAKING THE CANALS FREE.

A strong movement is to be made this winter in favor of making the Erie and other New York State Canals absolutely free waterways.

VANDERBILT'S GREAT GRAIN LINE.

Even more important, if possible, is the new project of Van derbilt for cheapening terminal facilities here for handling grain.

Sixty-fifth street, alongside which he proposes to run his trains laden with grain, which will then be discharged direct into the holds of a line of swift sailing iron steamships bound for various European ports.

A BRIGHTER OUTLOOK.

Times are better. There is no mistake about it. Every department of trade feels it more or less. In my next I will tell you how two items of farm produce are looking up till it takes no prophet to predict a vast profitable industry in each; and they are but two in a hundred.

Another Caught.

THE CAPTURE OF SA-LU-SHIN

ARREST AND CONFESSION OF ANOTHER ONE OF THE PERKINS' MURDERERS.

The following confession of one of the Perkins' murderers is sent us from Okanogan, W.T., by a reliable and trustworthy gentleman, whose name we would give only that it might make trouble between him and the Indians.

Communication.

HAPPY CANYON, Feb. 4th, 1879.

I thought I would give you a few items from this Canyon where the people as the same implies are always happy.

CONFESION.

I am a Cayuse Indian. My name is Sa-lu-shin; have lived for many years on the Umatilla Reservation, as I belong there; have worked much for the whites, I left the reserve last Spring and went to the Kittitas valley in company with a party of Umatillas.

Communication.

HAPPY CANYON, Feb. 4th, 1879.

We are under obligations to Senators Grover and Mitchell and Representative Williams for copies of bills introduced by them and for speeches. Also Senator Wallace of Pennsylvania for one of his speeches. Senator Wallace is one of the ablest members of the of the senate.

seven of us—Wine-cut, Long Man, Tow-own, Tom-e-hop-thow-ee-na, Weeshow-wer-ee-na, Moss-to-neck, and Sa-lu-shin, (the prisoner). They were very bad because I missed them, and Tom-e-hop-thow-ee-na dismounted and ran towards them with his gun.
