Strange Cache.

INDIAN "SCALPS" AND SCALPS OF TWO WHITE MEN AND ONE WOMAN, AND THE BODIES OF THREE INDIANS FOUND.

From R. B. Bishop, who has just returned from Heppner, we learn that a young man by the name of Gilmore came in a few days ago and reported finding an Indian cache near the mouth of John Day's river.

Mr. L. R. Wells has been delivering the pictures he received in this county for raising, and they give general satisfaction.

WEATHER.—What can be the matter; the weather has been most delightful for the past week that it is difficult to remain indoors, but to sit outside and sun yourself.

FEATHERS.—J. Hexter has a fine lot of feathers just picked from live geese, for sale. Don't sleep on straw any longer, but go buy some feathers.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Clyde Pennington paid our burg a flying visit, last Wednesday, returning home next day. He says prospects for a good crop are favorable in his section of country.

ACCIDENT.—Beza, one of the drivers of the U. L. & O. Stage Co. was thrown from the box and hurt to such an extent that he concluded to lay up for repairs.

T. J. Millon, a nephew of J. M. Bentley, came up with John from San Francisco on the steamer Great Republic.

FLORING MILLS.—Denais & Hewison, proprietors of the Heppner Flouring Mills, have gone to spend the summer in the old country.

COAL MINE.—Coal has been discovered in paying quantities near Heppner. Mad, dock & Bishop are half owners in the mine and we are informed by those who have tested it that it is of good quality.

SOLD.—Last Saturday the interests of three of the Reeves' heirs in the house and lot back of L. Blum's store was sold at guardian's sale.

NOTICE.—Last week we published a local for one Maurice M. Black who is traveling through the country selling ladies underwear, embroidery etc.

COLOR.—The Court house buildings is receiving a new color, in the way of a coat of whitewash.

SOON.—From Mr. Coffey, we learn, he has some intentions of going into the mercantile and grocery business.

EXPRESS TARIFF.—Wells, Fargo & Co. have reduced their tariff from 25 to 50 per cent, and now its almost as cheap to forward packages and money by express as by mail.

ARRIVED.—Mr. Jones, an emigrant who anchored in the Cove, in Grand Bend valley during last winter, was arrested on a charge of the larceny of a horse, alleged to belong to an Indian—Le-Jon-kin.

PACK TRAIN.—Jake Barnes' pack train passed through town last Sunday enroute for the "upper country," loaded with freight for a Chinese firm.

IN THIS ISSUE.—As will be perceived from glancing over this week's issue, from the tone, that our senior has resigned and given up the editorial chair to his junior who is now endeavoring to wield the quill to the best of his ability.

Too Bad.

Too Bad.—'Twas actually a fact, the poor fellow had worn his nice white shirt during his hard day's work and had worn it in several places just below the bosom, so much that 'twas useless to think about having it stitched.

Mr. L. R. Wells has been delivering the pictures he received in this county for raising, and they give general satisfaction.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

CASH IS KING!

Call at Blum's and be convinced. THE CHEAPEST PLACE IN THE County to buy GROCERIES, TOBACCO, DRY GOODS, FANCY GOODS, GENTS CLOTHING AND Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes, Hats, House Furnishing Goods, Etc., is at L. BLUM'S

Successor to Wm Switzer, at the old Stand, Pendleton, Oregon.

LECTURE.—Judge McArthur will lecture next Wednesday evening, at the M. E. Church, on Education. Proceeds for organ fund of the Methodist Sunday School.

RETURNED.—Mr. John Bentley and L. Blum arrived home Tuesday.

AMES.—In Pendleton, of diphtheria, at the residence of R. Sargent, on Sunday morning the 23rd inst. Gerry Ames, daughter of J. S. Ames, aged 9 years past.

Gerty was a bright little girl for her age and far surpassed her school mates in her everyday study. Her parents and relatives have our sympathy.

BEAGLE.—Of diphtheria, at Pendleton, on the 23rd inst. Frank Beagle, son of W. M. and Maria M. Beagle, aged 2 years, 6 months and 4 days.

Little Frankie was a bright little boy, the pride of his parents and was loved and petted by everybody who knew him. He was an only child and his death is hard to bear by his grief stricken parents.

CHERUB.—Today we are given bright cherubs and in a few days are called upon to see them suffer and die. But it is a blessed thought to know that our loss is their gain, and that their little spirits have gone where rest, peace, joy and happiness is perpetual.

PRECIOUS CHEER.—Where death can never come, And when on earth our work is done, We'll join thee in thy home.

Business Locals. WANTED TO TRADE.—American horses for rails delivered 2 miles northwest of Pendleton. Enquire at this office or at my ranch 3 1/2 miles from Pendleton.

COMPLETE.—A full and complete stock of fresh paints and oils at the drug store just received. White lead in tin, $3.50. Call and enquire before purchasing elsewhere, as we will not be undersold by any house in town.

MILLINERY.—Mrs. Carlen takes pleasure in announcing to the ladies of Pendleton that she has opened a millinery shop on Court street, on the corner of the block immediately back of Blum's store, where she keeps a well selected stock of the latest styles of ladies hats and all articles that go to make up a No. 1 establishment. Call and examine.

HIDES HIDES.—I desire to purchase all the hides, beef and murrain, in the county. The cash will be paid on delivery. All those having any will find it to their interest to consult me before disposing of them.
