The boys have a fortune in this ledge, as it is as rich as any ledge in that section. They have almost completed their nouses and with the intention of having a good time will soon be all settled down to hard work. Let us see if we can't represent Umatills.

Bio Crors.—S. G. Wormly informs us that Andrew Cochran, living between Holden Gulch and Greasewood, cut from four acres the largest crop yet heard of, being 79 bushels of very fine looking wheat to the acre. Mose Woodard raised 79 bushels of Woodard raised 79 bushels of Mc, is force pump affords this a very pleasebarley to the acre. What country can ant place to sit of evenings and chat beat this one for big crops? Next.

ARRESTED.—Emit Wilson, who was arrested about a mouth ago on complaint of Barney Kennedy, on charge of the larceny of a two year old steer, had his examination and held to answer before the grand jury in the sum of $500, in default of which he is now "playing checkers with his nose," in the county jail.

DANGERS OF THE DEED.—Emit Wilson, who was arrest need that Weston has a street sprinkler. A Chinaman with two square coal-oil cans with holes in the bottoms, tramping back and forth through the whole day keeps the Main street nicely wet down. Far ahead of Pendleton in this respect.

Helmbold's Medical Preparations

Helmbold's various medicinal prepara-tions have for the last twenty or more years Cottage Grove communication next week. occupied a prominent place on the shelves of every respectable druggist and physician in the land. The skill displayed in their preparation, the invariable promptness and efficiency of their action, the absence of nauseous and disgusting tasts of odor, and the attracting manner in which they are put up, have made them universal favorites. Especially is this the case of Helmbold's famous Buchu, a medicine which has be-come indispensable in the treatment of a large and troublesome class of diseases, particularly those which affect the digestive and urinary organs. As a diuretic, it is inveluable, and the great advantage possesses over other preparations is the bsolute purity of the ingredients, and the uniformity of strength. Parties purchasing should be careful to see that Helmbold's proprietary stamp is affixed to each
