Publishers Convention.

There will be a convention of the journals of Eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho Territories at the Union County Fair grounds, September 28th, at 9 o'clock A. M.

Improvements.

Use Fallings' new bay window improves the appearance of his furniture store. His breakfast is almost done, and will about two feet above the highest water mark.

Most Popular.

At the musical entertainment last Saturday night, of Prof. S. Lawrence, the blind musician, a nice guitar was put up as a prize for the most popular young lady present, the result to be determined by ballot, at three different times, the results of each ballot added; these votes cost 10 cents apiece.

Religious.

Rev. E. P. Warren will preach at Meadows on Sunday the 14th inst. Also Bishop Keener, of the M. E. Church South, will preach at Walls Walla on Sunday the 21st.

Just Opened.

Thos. O'Brien, the popular landlord, (late of the Stone House) has opened the Exchange Hotel, Walla Walla. This hotel is a new fire proof building and is lavishly furnished throughout. It has been newly furnished and is the best hotel in the Territory.

Called.

Uncle Davy Coffman called upon us this week and informs us that he raised the largest crop of barley he ever raised while on the Meadows. From four acres and a half he raised 202 bushels.

Organized.

Last Tuesday night a few of our citizens met at the Court House and organized a Literary and Dramatic Society. The following are the officers elected: J. H. Turner, President; G. W. Walker, Vice President; E. Sharon, Secretary; I. Hathaway, Treasurer.

Returned.

J. C. Arnold returned home from Heppner on Monday, where he has been on a surveying trip. He surveyed a road from near Wm. Mitchell's place to the Caldwell cabin in the Blue mountains; laid off an addition to Heppner, for Geo. Stansbury, and laid some other surveying for parties near Heppner.

Heppner Notes.

The Hotel at Heppner has changed hands. J. W. Gilmore taking charge and Jere Crow stepping down and out. A new brick yard has lately been started. The brewery is nearing completion; Frank Dunn as head workman. Plenty of gold but silver scarce.

Arrived Home.

Abie Jacobson has arrived home from California, where he has been for his health. He has improved considerably and looks as of yore. Our wishes are that Abie will entirely recover from his unhealthy state. Welcome home Abie, to your friends.

Improvement.

The order of the day. XXX Horse Medicine put up in 50 cent bottles.

Pay the printer.

Mr. Spaulding arrived home last Saturday. Mr. Haller's family has arrived from California. The bridge above town is spoken of in high terms.

Thanks for a free ticket to the Washington County Fair. Don't forget to pay your subscription to the EAST OREGONIAN.

A man named Russell Bennett has been arrested for the murder of Mrs. Hagar. XXX Horse Medicine for sale by all druggists in 50 cent and $1 bottles.

D. W. Bailey made a trip to Walls Walla this week. R. Moreno also made a flying trip.

The lectures by Mrs. Logan Robinson during her stay in Pendleton were much appreciated. A dance, in honor of Miss Clara Turner, was given before she took her departure for Weston.

Here's to your good health and all your family; may you live long and prosper, provided you take and pay for the EAST OREGONIAN.

From the Portland papers we see that John Price has been arrested several times for assault and battery, and being drunk and disorderly.

Sanford of the Bon Ton has added bath rooms to his hotel, and gets and others can be accommodated with hot or cold baths at all times.

We return thanks for a complimentary ticket to the Third Annual Fair of the Baker County Agricultural Society. J. M. Shepherd, Secretary; C. M. Kellogg, President.

Sam'l Anderson, Executor of the Jewell estate, will sell all the personal property of said estate at public auction, October 15th, at the Jewell ranch on Birch creek. See posters and remember the time.

Mrs. Livermore, we regret to state, has been quite ill this week. Let returned to find her much improved. Mrs. Spaulding is a little on the improve from her severest tuck. He husband arrived this week.

Collar Golland and Bow Ointment, no farmer can be without it. For sale by all druggists.

THANKS.—Many thanks to Mr. Isaacs of the Walls Walla Agricultural Society for a free ticket to the fair, which we propose to make appropriate use of.

THANKS AGAIN.—I. Hathaway will accept our thanks for a delicious watermelon received during press hours last week, as then is the time we best enjoy such. Many thanks, Hathaway.

CARRIED.—At the school meeting Saturday, a tax to the amount of $800, was voted to repair the old school building for winter's use. This was a very sensible move and no doubt will satisfy all, until we are able to build a new one entirely.

BEST LOOKING MAN.—E. Loberstein, alias "Red," received the prize for the best looking man at Prof. S. Lawrence's entertainment. The prize was a pair of baby stockings. We don't know whether "Red" intends to lay them away for the future or not. "Red" took it in good part.

NOTICE.—Everybody who feels an interest in his county paper is hereby invited to send us an account of all accidents, births, deaths, marriages, fights, elopements, etc., that occur in his neighborhood, signing his real name thereto; not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

WHISKEY TO INDIANS.—Wm. Lisham, who was arrested some time since for selling whiskey to Indians, in this section, on complaint of Maj. Conroy, Agent at Umatilla Agency, and who was taken to Portland, was fined $25 by Judge Dowdy in the U. S. District Court, and discharged. Got off very cheap.

FINE HORSE.—"Doc" Hamilton of Summerville has a fine horse at Boren's Livery Stable which can be bought at a very reasonable figure. Dunc. Canadian Kentucky Whip and one half Percheron-Norfolk; raised by Mr. Hamilton. About five years old. Our stock raisers should not fail to take a look at this fine horse.

DEED.—Another unfortunate, another name is added to the long list, and a man whose intellect was stored with knowledge and a gem of thought, brought to a drunkard's grave. Calvin B. Macdonald, well known as a fluent writer and a temperance lecturer, gave away to temptation, and after two weeks debauch, died.

CALLED.—Our friend Black of the Weston Ledger came down upon us this week and remained some time. He was down upon newspaper business and went back, we hope, well satisfied with the treatment which he received. Bro. Black surely deserves to be called, for if railing and enterprise is the foundation he will surely meet with success.

GOOD BUSINESS IN BUSINESS MEN.—The house of H. Rosenfeld & Co., Portland, is doing a splendid business and they should, for the firm is composed of liberal minded men, men who do not "hide their light under a bushel," but use printers ink freely. They are selling more and better tobacco, cigars, etc., than any house in Oregon, or in fact on the coast. Patronize liberal men if you want the worth of your money.

LAND.—Under "New To-Day" will be found a land notice of T. H. Cann, who has served eight years as agent for the Board of Land Commissioners, and having acquired a knowledge of all State lands of all classes, offers his services in cases of contest between land claimants. His charges, we assure you, will be very reasonable. His ad. will appear in this paper sometime, therefore remember in what paper the ad. appears.

HORSE THIEVES.—We are bothered with horse thieves throughout the whole country. On the 6th inst. G. H. Stansbury had stolen from him, near Heppner, two horses and a cow. He has been offered for the capture of the horses, and we have no fears but that the thieves will meet with a heavier reward if caught.

TO OUR PATRONS.—We are drawing near the close of the 4th volume of the EAST OREGONIAN. We have had charge of the paper for two years and have endeavored to collect money enough to pay the running expenses. Thus we have succeeded in doing. We are now in need of money to pay off a little outstanding indebtedness that is now due. We need the money and most have it, and we call upon our friends to come forward and pay what they owe us. Crops are good and you can pay if you will only make a little effort. We wish to buy some new material and a power press. To do this requires money. We will publish a list of those paying us weekly, and we hope to see the names of all of our delinquents in the list in a short time. If this is done we will be in a situation to make a more interesting and readable paper. Please read this over twice and don't delay coming to see us.

WILL CHANGE HANDS.—The Pendleton Hotel will change hands again soon. Hon. S. M. Pennington has rented it to Mr. Baker, an experienced hotel keeper, who will spare no pains in keeping up the reputation of the house. Mr. Baker will take charge the first of next month.

RENTIONED.—Jimmy Riley, our County surveyor, resigned his office at the late term of our County Court. His reason being that the Court did not allow him sufficient of his bill to defray his actual expenses.

NEW SCHOOL.—Miss Clara Jushin will commence school in the post-office building, Sept. 22d.

Try a 50-cent bottle of XXX Horse Medicine, the king of liniments, the old standard remedy.

PORTLAND.—Wool, valley, 180-21; Eastern Oregon, 180-17; Eastern Washington, 180-17.

Portland teachers prohibit marble playing among the scholars. What next?

The most intelligent man—Augustin Fedric Page-Tustin; where?

What holds all the snuff in the world? No one nose.

Mr. Swap edits a Kentucky exchange.

Well done Jack, we are always happy to see our friends happy. May the happy event prove a perpetual happiness to you and your happy bride, and may happy events happen every year to add to your happiness here, until your crop of happiness is full, and when you are called to pass over the Jordan of death may happy angels attend you to the other happy shore. "Holl, Jordan, roll." Mr. R. Alexander acted as interpreter, as the bride was a German lady and could not speak a word of English and the groom could not understand a word of German. We attended with Mr. Alexander, who being the only invited guest. Thanks to Mrs. Geisler, sister of the bride, for a nice cake.
