ESTABLISHED IN 1864. O. BRECHT, Manufacturer of Bread, Cakes, Pies, and Confectionery. Fire Proof Building. Main Street, Walla Walla.

A New Way to Treat Diphtheria.

Quite a discovery in the treatment of diphtheria has been made here. A young man whose arm had been amputated, was attacked by diphtheria before healing took place, and instead of the matter incident to the disease being deposited in the throat, the greater portion appeared on the wounded arm, and the diphtheria was very light and easily managed.

Failures at Fall River. FALL RIVER, Oct. 8.—The reported liabilities of Thomas J. and Richard Jordan appear to have been exaggerated regarding liabilities on indentments. Those of Thomas J. Jordan are eleven hundred thousand instead of seven hundred thousand, and those of Richard J. Jordan are five hundred thousand instead of one million.

Probably Lost in Lake Michigan. CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Louis Faber, engineer on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern road, states that a week ago Sunday night, while at Miller's station taking water, he observed a large balloon directly overhead, which he judged to be less than a mile away, driving rapidly along in a northeasterly direction towards Lake Michigan, which is only half a mile from the station.

The Indian War. MEMPHIS, Oct. 10.—Seven new cases are reported; no deaths.

THE INDIAN WAR. CHATTANOOGA, W. Va., Oct. 7.—11 P. M.—Ordinance Officer Capt. Davis to-day received an order to issue to Gov. Pitkin, of Colorado, 1,000 stands of arms and 50,000 pounds of ammunition. No courier has reached Rawlins yet, but it is believed that one must surely come in to-night.

Denver, Oct. 7.—The following dispatches received and sent by the Governor, best show the Indian situation in the south. So far there has been no authentic report of actual outbreak or depredations.

Fort Leavenworth, Oct. 8. Gov. F. W. Pitkin—The Secretary of War is here and the arms and ammunition you ask for will be sent out from Rock Island. As soon as he leaves here to-morrow I will go to Denver to see you.

John W. Jones, To Gov. Pitkin—Indians within 15 miles of Kokomo, have plenty of men but no arms; can you send us 150 stand of arms and ammunition immediately; the mayor of the town will be responsible for them; please indicate how the arms will be sent; answer immediately.

Acting Mayor. CARBONATEVILLE, Col., Oct. 6. To Gov. Pitkin—Our citizens are organizing to repel the attack from Indians, but we are without arms or ammunition. We respectfully request 100 stand of arms with ammunition, and will be responsible to the State for the return of arms furnished.

Leadville, Col., Oct. 7. Information received since my last dispatch to you leads to the belief that there are no Indians within fifty miles of this place in any direction. I do not hear of any unusual excitement anywhere on the frontier.

Alma, Col., Oct. 7—4 P. M. To Gov. Pitkin—A man just in reports Indians between here and Breckenridge, and that Breckenridge was entirely burned down. Don't know the truth.

Mr. Mosby is a reliable man, but the rumor is not credited. The governor has telegraphed Mosby to send out runners to see if the reports were true and promised to send troops by special train if necessary, and notified Hatch accordingly.

Los Pinos Agency, Col., Oct. 8.—An Indian runner, through in 15 hours from the White River, arrived at midnight and reports to Chief O'Leary that the troops are still fighting, strongly entrenched and are able to hold the position until reinforcements arrive.

Chief Douglas sends word to O'Leary that all the white children are safe at his house. He has turned the O'Leary and papers over to the agent's wife, that O'Leary needs have no letters from the White River Indians. The fight is an affair of their own.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Nothing new regarding the Indian war has been received at headquarters this morning. All officers express great satisfaction with the actions of Captain Dodge and his colored troops, who first repulsed Payne although under no orders to do so. He made a perilous march through an untraveled country with 40 men and forced his way through savages into the camp with unequalled valor and pluck.

her loss owing to the prevalence of gales which have shaken out much standing barley; but out fields withstood the action of the wind to a great extent as the grain is yet unripe. Root crops and pastures have improved a little as a rule.

Ireland has been more favored and with the exception of a stoppage for a few days, owing to heavy rains, harvest operations have been carried on briskly. In South England many fields are now cleared; but the result upon threshing is most disappointing as to condition, quality and yield.

Trade opened very firmly at the beginning of the week both in the country and Mark Lane and there was an advance of two or three shillings on wheat and a shilling on sack and barrel flour. A large business was done in London on Monday, but on Wednesday the edge seemed to be taken off the trade, as having satisfied their more pressing wants, millers seem disposed to stand aloof and watch the course of events.

The samples of New England barley hitherto shown have been of such variable quality that the prices realized are too irregular to afford a basis for quotations.

Maine has recorded about sixpence per quarter. Oats the same, as supplies considerably exceeded the demand.

The foregoing remarks apply to trade up to Friday, since when a decided return of strength has been apparent, and on Monday prices advanced for wheat, barley and oats per quarter, making a total improvement of two to three shillings on the week's sales.

The sales of English wheat last week were 151,151 quarters at 4s 1d, against 71,141 quarters at 4s 4d for the corresponding week of the previous year.

Imports into the United Kingdom for the week ending Sept. 27th: Wheat, 1,175,034 cwt.; Flour, 250,457 cwt.

Paris, Oct. 8.—The Temps publishes the following: "At a cabinet council to-day a determination was expressed to uphold Ferry's educational bill in the senate. The question of granting plenary amnesty, which has been reopened by some articles in the République Française, was also discussed, and it was unanimously resolved to energetically oppose any attempt to reopen the question in chambers."

London, Oct. 8.—Returns so far show that of 400 members of the Prussian diet known to have been engaged to-day by the electoral, 154 are conservatives, 100 are liberals, 100 are socialists, and 44 are unaffiliated.

Sir Frederick Roberts telegraphs from Cherrab on the 6th that the Afghans advanced from Cabul in force; heavy fighting all day; Afghan position carried and 12 guns captured; British loss about 80 killed and wounded.

London, Oct. 9.—A boiler explosion in the dye works at Halifax this morning killed five persons. These have been recovered and it is believed that others are dead in the ruins.

Two hundred and sixty-seven farmers and their families left Liverpool to-day for Texas.

Chilias and Peruvian boats have had an engagement off Megillines. The Peruvian ran Enscar was captured.

London, Oct. 10.—Infantry will be stationed throughout the county of Mayo, Ireland.

Yesterday morning H. Wallace, lately employed as a canvasser for the Bradstreet company at 230 California street, committed suicide in a room at the Philadelphia House at 411 Bush street, by shooting himself in the head. Deceased had left the Bradstreet company some weeks ago and last week was negotiating for a canvassing trip for Code, Elliott & Co. He was not financially embarrassed and his suicide is probably due to mental aberration.

Capt. Hines, master of the scow Express, was drowned in the bay yesterday about noon. He was knocked overboard by the main boom while going on board.

Victoria, Oct. 7.—Despatches from Ottawa announce the selection of the Fraser river route for the Canada Pacific railway. The contract for the first 125 miles will be let on November 17th. The entire town site of Emery's bar, the temporary western terminus of the Canada Pacific railway and the future head of steamboat navigation on Fraser river, is owned by Oppenheimer Bros., who bought it last Spring for $500. It is now valued at $100,000.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—More than 10,000 persons assembled to witness the finish of the pedestrian contest last evening at the park. At five minutes past ten McIntyre completed his 500 miles on a dirt road in five minutes and 25 seconds amid tremendous cheers. He then retired to his tent. Most of the other contestants walked the track at a leisurely gait until a few minutes before 11 when a procession, well formed, headed by the band, followed by the pedestrians and moved twice around the track, the victor being borne on the shoulders of his friends. The net profits of the match approximate $10,000, half of which goes to the four leading contestants, in the proportion of 50, 30, 15% and 7% per cent, respectively. These making 350 miles save entrance money, with $50 given to all making 375, and $100 to all making 400 miles. The contest has been conducted in the best possible manner throughout.

There was another good crowd to witness the opening of the women's walking match to-night. On calling the contestants for the start, all appeared who had entered except Miss Walton, withdrawn on account of sprained ankle. At 11 o'clock the start was made. The first mile was scored by Lillie Denman of Montreal, in 9:34 1/2.

San Francisco, Oct. 9.—Last April J. R. Alsip, bookkeeper for Mosier, James & Co., absconded, defaulting to the amount of $4,000. It was ascertained that he had left for Callao on the British bark Golden Star. Detective Jehu went by steamer to Callao, arriving in advance of the bark, and when she made port arrested Alsip on requisition. He with his prisoner took passage on the ship Valparaiso, which came into the harbor last evening. While off Fort Point, Jehu, who was sitting on deck with Alsip, left him for a moment to speak with the captain about putting him on board a police boat before coming to anchor. On his return Alsip had disappeared but his coat was lying near where he had been sitting, and in a pocket was found the following letter:

To whom it may concern—Better than to be in prison, I have concluded to fly to those I know not of. I have said that I never would be taken to San Francisco alive, and I keep my word. I desire that W. E. Robinson take charge of my effects. For all this—a shameful crime, a blasted life, a shameful end, and perhaps a diamond social—thanks to the honorable D. M.

The title was running strong, and it is considered impossible that Alsip should have escaped to the shore.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—Detectives engaged in searching for Alsip, who jumped from the ship Valparaiso as she was entering the harbor on Tuesday night, have thus far found no clue indicating that he succeeded in reaching the shore. It is thought now that there was some method in his rash act than was at first supposed. Alsip is known to have been an expert swimmer, and it now appears that after he was missing a sailmaker's bench and a paddle belonging to the vessel were also found to have disappeared. Detectives generally believe the opinion that he could not have made the shore, and the pilot of the Valparaiso believes that no man could have lived in the choppy sea that prevailed at the time when Alsip took to the water, but he had an opportunity to communicate by letter forwarded by steamer, with friends in this city after his arrest and before he left Callao, it is thought that he may have had assistance from this city in his escape, and that a boat may have been stationed ready to pick him up when he left the ship. Whether or not there is any truth in this theory, his expected arrival in San Francisco on the Valparaiso was certainly known by others besides the police authorities, and on the morning after the Valparaiso entered this port, and before the fact of Alsip's escape had been published or generally known several persons called at the police office and inquired whether he was in the city prison.

Defendant's demurrer to the complaint of John H. Burke against J. C. Flood and the estate of Wm. J. O'Brien, deceased, to recover $25,000,000, was submitted to the court to-day for decision without argument on either side, the points of law raised being similar in all respects to cases already argued in the Nevada Bank and the Pacific Railway by the plaintiff, and were both fully argued and submitted on the 29th day ago.

A great deal of interesting sometimes in a sentence of a few lines, as in the following from the Liberal paper, the Seymour (Ind.) Weekly Times:

One barrel of flour is a better morsel advanced than forty thousand Bibles.

When did the prayers of the priest ever restore the dead child to the dying parent!

The medical man should be reminded to rail-managing, who looks to his God for the effects of his remedies.
