

From Weston. JANUARY 14, 1880. Ed. "E. O."—Weston was visited last Friday, 9th inst., by one of the severest wind storms we have experienced for many years.

Grandma Townsend, a lady of seventy-six years, who resides about a mile from Pendleton, gave us a call this week and subscribed for the EAST OREGONIAN for her son who resides in Waltham, Mass.

Information Wanted

Of Wm. Sim, aged 19; left his home in Lion county last harvest, supposed for Umatilla county; last seen near Fish Lake on the Lelan road.

FESTIVAL.—A week ago yesterday arrangements were made for a festival of the Baptist Church, the elements were against it and it was put off till Saturday evening.

Look out for Bargains.

I will sell the remainder of my fall stock of Box and Parlor stoves at cost for CASH. NAILS—CASH.

MANQUERADE BALL.—Glen Sanford, of the Box Top, will furnish teams to take the ladies of the city to Minkley's Hall, Feb. 5th, in the evening.

At a meeting of Protection No. 1, held Jan. 6th, it was voted that notice be given to all property owners within the fire limits asking them to put ladders on the roofs of their houses in order to assist the Company to extinguish any fire which may occur.

RACES.—Our town has been entered by a horse race, last Wednesday afternoon; Uge Welch's horse winning; race made over to run Thursday; it was run; Uge's horse came out about 30 feet ahead but no money lost or won on the result.

BACK INTO THE TRACKS.—Our old friend Crowder wants stage again—let's let the contract from Pilot Rock to Granite and Prairie City. Good luck old pard, may your shadow never grow less when you are up to your waist in snow.

G. W. Webb is coming to the front by building his shop further back—this don't hinder him from waiting on his customers, you will always find him at his post, with his blindest smile. Call and see him.

DOG. Bailey has returned from Portland with his parchment, which proclaims him A No. 1 Attorney. He says always be found at his post ready for business. Office front of East Oregonian office.

NOTICE.—I have placed all my accounts in the hands of G. W. Bailey for collection. Unless my creditors pay him promptly he is instructed to bring suit and collect with costs. Take heed. J. BRYAN.

ESTRAYS.—From Thompson & Bernhart's ranch, one light bay mare, 15 hands high, branded with small c on left shoulder, white strip in face, hind legs white, 4 feet white, four years old last spring. $10 will be paid to any one getting her up and letting me know where she is. R. G. THOMPSON.
