A Bachelor's Will.

The sun of an August day was send-

A young man was kneeling beside it, pole in hand, ostensibly fishing, but the peckled denizens of the brook had but tle cause for alarm. The cool brain and steady hand-se dangerous to their peace under ordinary circumstances were not really putting forth any efforts against them.

It was a handsome young face turned in such evident eagerness toward the faintly defined foot path leading through the woods to the sylvan spot. The features were almost too regular for masculine itleas of beauty; but the firm way the red lips were set together and the massive chin redeemed them from weakness.

He started to his feet as the crackling of dried leaves and twigs betrayed an approaching footstep. Another moent, and a breathless young creature was beside him, panting from her rapid

"I began to think that you were not coming, Dot, and that my holiday was to prove a failure." "It was by the merest accident that got away. Father hardly trusts me out of his sight. But he was called off m unexpected business, and I've run every step. I feel so guilty all the ne-I can't do it unless things glowing brunette complexion.

"Dot," began Philip, reproachfully. "I know it is hard," continued the ri, "but I am as much the sufferer by as you. Though, Phil," with a sudn intensity in her voice, "one thing I can do. I solemnly promise never to marry any one but him I love, and that you know whom."

"That is poor comfort, Dot. To cnow that the girl you would shed your eart's blood for cannot give you a kind word now and then to keep up your its! I shall half the time think you are forgetting me, and making up our mind to marry the man your father so taken with."

on false, if you had promised to be rue. But I must go. I just came to ing him to even her dearest friend. ell you-no matter what happensat force could not drag me into a said to her one day, half jestingly :

nd Oram Dins- | did !" re began coming to the house. Much he bark of a tree."

"Really, Philip, you are complimentry. So money is the sum of my attractions, is it?

But there was no vexation in the yes she turned upon his troubled face. Hers was a true, truthful nature, and anderstood her lover's meaning, hough she tried to speak lightly and slayfully to prevent a painful parting e. Tears were near her eyes, but he forced them back; she must be strong for both. She held out her hand. "Good-bye, Philip. Don't be discour-aged; all will come right yet." Philip took the little hand in his rown palm, and gazedlengingly into the weet young face. Then he said : "Won't you give me one parting kiss,

"Yes, Philip, kiss me here," touching slender finger to one of her soft cheeks, and from this time that place shall be acred from the touch of other lips until e mest again."

Philip kissed the cheek which flushed edly at the touch of his lips. Dot was thery of permitting caresses, and though they had been fould of sadk other from hoir boy and girl days, Philip had never presumed to kiss her, unless when playnga game of forfeits in some of the merry rings which are sometimes given in ountry neighborhoods for the double ourpose of drawing the young people together and helping the farmers to husk brir corn, or get the rosy produce of the orchards into festoons of neatly bared and quartered apples to dry, on he principle that many hands and nim-le fingers make light and pleasant

The next moment-he was following he little little figure with sad eyes until t had disappeared under the overhang-ng branches. He lacked Dot's faith in kindness of the future. He could ot anticipate a long separation, and permission to speak," said Dot. o his cousin, Dorothy Ingraham. Dur rights, ag his lifetime he had nevershown that A month had hardly gone by when, first it was a great pleasure to the ment.

and she built many pretty "castles"

As

ip Bertram's sompany, began higher vice 17 for her, and off the world who had tried to palm off the semblance of love upon her during his unsatisfactory courtship.

"Miss Ingraham," he said, flushing as he spoke, "I have come to make a confinencian of seeing Dot though he asked ing good sense would have carried the day against her husband's sudden inflation caused by their good fortune. Both the been, and I wish to apologize to to be a country editor.

It is constitutible, durable and the chemp. Clevulars from the both and the chemp. Clevulars from the beautiful the best known respectively found fault with him." The boy was certainly not born to be a country editor.

SMOLE

It is constitutible, durable and the chemp. Clevulars from the beautiful the best known respectively found fault with him." The boy was certainly not born to be a country editor.

SMOLE

It is constitutible, durable and the chemp. Clevulars from the beautiful the best known respectively found fault with him." The boy was certainly not born to be a country editor.

SMOLE

It is constitutible, durable and the chemp. Clevulars from the beautiful the chemp. Clevulars from the chemp. Clevulars from since his wife's death Mr. Ingraham had you and make my peace before I dare no one to influence him, for he consider-ed Dot a mere child, to be petted and desire to win her for my wife. Will ing golden shafts through the intersecting foliage overshadowing a limpid trout of age, instead of a well grown girl of ity and good sense. Affairs went on in this way for several months. Mr. Dinsmore's calls grew more frequent, and a strong pressure listen to his suit, which was now openly growing to be an unhappy one, her fa- self a model father. though doing her best to treat him with coming to the house.

he chanced to meet Dot, would pass her of the mistake.

girl, who created quite a sensation in posed thousands. the quiet village. She was from a city in the far West, and was very pretty,

Dot's heart felt like lead in her bosom, when one day she met the stranger walking jauntily by Phillip's side. She was shortly afterwards introduced to her, and for a few moments a hateful spirit suggested that she would make herself disagreeable; but she resolutely put the temptation away from her and appeared her own natural, lovable self. She soon ceased to wonder at Philip's evident pleasure in Miss Belmont's society. She was so frank and cheerful and sparkling in her conversation, that she was won from her prejudice, and they grew to be friends.

It was not long before Kate Belmont knew the true state of Dot's feelings "You are very different from the idea | toward Oram Dinsmore, though Philip's have of you if you give way to any name was as a scaled book between uch feeling. Why Phil all the people them. Dot loved him as dearly as ever, such feeling. Why, Phil, all the people them. Dot loved him as dearly as ever, and the world couldn't make me believe and the very intensity of her feelings for him made her strangely shy of mention-It was a great surprise when Kate urriage with Oram Dinsmore, and to "How strange that you don't like ay good-bye until we can meet as we Mr. Dinsmore better! I have taken a d to, with the full consent of father." great fancy to him, but have studiously "That'll never be!" was the gloomy avoided being even pleasant to him, for swer. "It's good-bye forever, I am rumor gave him to you; and thinking sure. I wish that old cousin of yours him your special property, I aidn't want ks, he'd never have bothered his head are; I don't think he cares for me. He

"Jared Ingraham," said Kate, muand she left all her friends and settled in the West. But she always remained single, and to this day is true to the only its Dorothy Ingraham, instead of Dot.

"Why," said Dot, "my name is Dorshort."

"I wonder if you and Miss Ingraham are related to each other. I am quite sure that Jared Ingraham was her lover's doesn't it seem strange that he should have left his money to a young chit like you, begging your ladyship's pardon, in-stead of his laithful old love?"

Dot's face was a study as Kate rattled on. It fairly shone. "Kate," said she, "I see it all! I dear cousin, Dorothy Ingraham '-that's enough. All the law terms in the world wouldn't make it plainer to me. We all thought it strange that he should have left it to me when he never had paid me the slightest attention when he was alive; but the lawyer said that to his knowledge there was no other person of that name, so I must be the one.

"I'll give it to you, of course, but first promise me not to say anything about it until you are sure." "I will keep silent until you give me oe that he had made her an heiress. society and half suspected the denoue-

As she went into the room he rose to air" about the way she would use meet her, and for the first time Dot felt an emotion of sincere liking and respect enter her heart for him. Under the inngraham, who har heretofore fluence of genuine feeling he seemed a different person to the plausible, polished intention of seeing Dot, though he asked for her father, poor Paffip began to be treated coldly, and at last was forbidden have never even liked, much less loved the unworthy man who stands before Had Dot's mother been living, things you; but for persecuting you with my would have been different, for her sterl- unwelcome attentions. Under the light

Dot held out her hand, "With all ever had, eighteen, of more than ordinary capac- my heart, Mr. Dinsmore, and I shall always respect you for the frank, manly part you have acted at the last. You and theologians. have my best wishes for your success."

Mr. Ingraham was at first very angry was made te bear upon Dot to make her at Oram Dinsmore's defection, but when Dot satd decidedly: "I would not have declared. She had now tried to discour- married him if I and remained single all age him by treating him with marked my life," he determined to give up trying coldness and indifference; but he would to direct the course of true love, making not take a repulse, and her life was a virtue of necessity, yet thinking him-ther's conversation being almost princip- Dot was willing that her father should ally upon the perfections of her suitor, please himself with this delusion as long sittings. whom, at hears, she cordially detested, as he withdrew his opposition to Philip's

When a few months after, the real Philip knew of his constant visits, heiress, Miss Dorothy Ingraham, ap-edifices. and heard rumors of an engagement. peared upon the scene, uncharitable per-He grew gloomy and morose, and when sons said that Mr. Dinsmore had known in a way that made her poor little heart | But Kate Belmont, his betrothed wife, had the pleasant consciousness that she So things went on from bad to worse, had won his heretofore mercenary heart until Dot would have been glad if her | while he thought Dot the true heiress, inheritance had been sunk in the sea. and that he valued one glance of her At last another actor appeared - a young | bright eyes more than he did Dot's sup-

The real testatrix was very much taken with her namesake, and would not conand knew just what colors to choose for sent to take more than half of the propher toilet to set off the tints of her erty. The mistake about her legacy had been the means of drawing her into the hotels. society of a young relative of whose exwarm, human affection, bestowed upon dience at St. Mary's, Oxford. Bertram, and the happiest little matron poor and needy of the parish.

Living in San Francisco.

not mean in the money sense, but it street colored church, New Haven. doesn't pay in any way we look at it. Mr. William E. Dodge says he never This tremendous pace that we are going invested any money that brought a will very soon result in driving all the better return than that he expended for nice poor people out of society. We the education of Rev. Wm. D. Johnson. people, the most gifted, and most culti- members in Macon, Ga. vated, the best born, and the best bred, who are now exiles from social life because they cannot afford to come into competition with the wealthy in this race of jewels and clothing-this vulgar head-line in an exchange. "Ah! Went contest of display of shops' contents back on you, did she !" and tradesmen's baubles. We know of The Duke and Duchess of Beecleugh young ladies, just as lovely as youth, will soon celebrate their golden wedding. beauty, education, good manners and He is the premier Dake of Scotland accomplishments can make them, en and is lord of 450,000, with a rental of ad left his money to some one else. It to play with edged tools. But if you don't love him, I shall adopt different society, denying themselves an indul Mr. O'Flanagan: "Well, Barney, ather seemed to like me until that will tactics, for I think he is perfectly splen- gence of their natural tastes because when you come to see your landlord, ye they cannot honestly rival their more meight put a coat on you." "What is meat to one is poison to wealthy associates, and because they are "Is it cost, your honor! Shure, thin, as he might have been taken with your another. How true those old adages too prond to appear in harness not gilded the only dacent coat I'll be having is and silver plated with monogram and jist a bundle of howls stitched tigethurr, about you unless there had been a pros-pect of adding to his possessions. I wish old Jared Ingraham had left his now him of old, and he's as tight as money to same one else."

never looked at me before I came rich. I wish old Jared Ingraham had left his money to same one else."

orest stamped by fashionable society. We think, and all gentlemen think, that a young girl looks prestier in a lawn.—bad cess to it intority." in a simple white cambric, with peachsingly; where have I heard that name ! down and a blush, hair natural, than Ob, I know; I have the dearest old one in train and founce, with hair friend out West, and it's her love story chemically dyed and face painted in which that name has brought to my French cosmetics. But women dress mind. Something happened to separate for women, not for men, and there is them when they were both very young, only one way of reforming this abuse. and that is a strike on the part of all pretty and sensible girls against this et was more than ordinarily becoming, unreasonable social tyranny. Let them the gold threads with which her white memory of her old love. By the by, not decline to attend parties, but rally her name is almost the same as yours, in force with plain, cheap and simple handsomely with her dark hair and eyes dresses, and with their other charms and brunette coloring. The waist of give battle to the rich ones, armor clad her dress was cut V shaped in front, and in clothes of expensive material and filled in with lace. The sleeves were of othy. They only call me Dot for fashionable make. All the gentle. Duchesse lace and embroidery in seed The Easiest to Learn, men will be on the side of the pearls on the finest net. The court dress young and pretty ones, and we will was long and square and entirely made drive these dressy old maids, wives and of the white brocaded satin, on which dowagers to the wall. Expensive enter- rose buds were worked in threads of name. If it was the same person, tainments and costly dressings are an gold. The petticoat, of plain white evil in San Francisco society. There satin of the richest texture, was trimmed NO SHUTTLE to THREAD are hundreds of pleasant houses that with bias folds of satin arranged horinever entertain because they cannot zontally, with a fringe of gold and pearls rival the more elegant affairs given by between. Up either side, where the millionaires. This has a tendency to court train fell back from the petticoat, discourage social gatherings of the more were broad bands of embroidery in gold Those who have tried it are delighted unpretentious kind. An association of thread. In her hair was a silver comb. am an interloper. Isn't it nice! The the kind we suggest would bring to it and on her neck a pendant (a cameo will said, 'I give and bequeath to my nearly all of the young, most beautiful, head of the President set in diamonds). and most accomplished girls of society; all I can remember verbatim, but that's all the young married ladies, who, being wives of poor men, do not desire to impose upon them burdens of extravagant dressing, and all the rich girls who have sense enough to know that youth and beauty are overmatches in attractiveness to the display of dress and jewels. From this class the wives would be chosen. All girls hope to be married-all gentle-Give me your friend's adcress, and I men expect to marry; it is the natural will soon get to the bottom of the matrelation. But he is a brave young man who will take upon himself the responsibilities of married life. She is a cour- barn, wagon or machinery, the wonderageous girl who will yoke herself in life's ful Imperishable Mixed Paint is surely harness to a husband. It is a rare couple the best, for it is warranted by their who, not being rich, will say to each agents in your own town not to chalk, other: "We will harness for the crack, peel or blister; to cover better and chaps estrangement; and it was with a serve at once to the old lady, and in due time received a reply which confirmed her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property attely died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions. So she immediately died, and had willed his property that Miss Ingraham should receive her suspicions and toils of life's journey; we shall marked the first premium, other paint was awards and toils of life's journey; we shall be content ourselves to be excluded from social life because we cannot afford the costly expenditures it entails; we will work for ourselves a life because we cannot afford the costly expenditures it entails; we will marked to a start that the catterian any other paint. The Imper labely each that any other paint was awards, and to content ourselves to be excluded from social life because we cannot afford the costly expenditures it entails; we will marked to a start that the catterian any other paint was awards, and the costly expenditures it entails; we will marked to a start the catterian any other paint was awards and to content ourselves a life because and toils of life's journey; we work caster than any that lower plane to which we are confined for want of money." It demands writing in response to any advertisewas aware of the existence of our much to Dot's amusement, Mr. Dins a high moral courage for a young couple ment in this paper you will please men ttle Dot, and it was a great surprise to more called and requested a private interview with her. She had noticed his ciation of friends, and attempt to carve out for themselves an independent career; to live within their means when their "means" is confined to the earnings of the young husband. All along the shore of social life in California we see scattered wrecks of domestic life. Who that lives here cannot count up by the score the ruined homes? Who that notes the current of events does not > recognize the hazard of marriage ? Look at the divorce record of to-day in comparison with that of a half century ago.

> A minister in one of the small Illinois towns was the unfortunate loser of several dollars the other night. He had a donation party.

A Liverpool boy recently hung him-

Religious Intelligence.

Prof. David Swing, of Chicago, thinks the last Christmas the best the world

Joseph Cook's monthly receptions are features of the Boston world of scholars

The Methodist Board of Church Extension received $105,631 during its fourteenth year, just ended. Dr. Dollinger is not yet wholly reconciled to the act of the Old Catholic Synod in abolishing priestly celibacy. The Church of England las year provided in elementary day schools

The M. E. Church in the United States has 11,423 itinerant and 12,492 local preachers, and 16,721 church

The veteran Dr. Shaw, of Rochester, entered upon his fortieth year as pastor

Mr. Hammond, the revivalist, is going about with a company of men and women in London, Ontario, singing hymns and holding prayer meetings in saloons and for 17 years. She used the 8t. Jacobs 00 for shree days in London, Ontario, singing hymns and Canon Lindon is regarded as perhaps istence she would otherwise have been the most brilliant of the living preach ignorant. It proved very pleasant to ers of the Church of England. He apher to have such a treasure-trove of pears at his best before a cultured auher, for young Dorothy loved her aged | The lady members of one of the cousin very dearly, and was always Episcopalian churches in Brooklyn colpleased to entertain her in her pretty lected among themselves $500 at Christhome, for she became the wife of Philip mas, which they distributed among the Luke Lothrop, known to Yale graduates of many classes as a college janitor, has recently died. For twenty-five But, after all, it doesn't pay; we do years he was a deacon of the Temple know many of the best, the very best the colored pastor of a church of 800

Feminine Items.

"A Fraud in Silks," is the startling

The late Mrs. Catherine Hogarth Dickens was in her youth a pretty, bright-looking young woman. In her later years she is described by an acquaintance as a comfortable looking matron of the English middle class, amiable, but commonplace in conversation.

On New Year's day Mrs. Haves' toilbrocaded satin dress wrought contrasting

Mr. Phillip Remlinger, an old subscriber to our paper and well known to the whole surrounding country, informed us the other day that his wife, who for two weary years had suffered with rheu- It was Winner over Eighty Competitmatism in the shoulder, during which time she had been treated by several physicians without success, had been Try it and you will be sure to like and buy it completely cured by a single bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. - Bucyrus, Ohio, Courier, Feb. 13, 1879.

If you are going to paint your house, to la making any purchase or to

VALENTINES! COMIC AND SENTIMENTAL,

In Lots of 82 50, 85 and 810. Cash Discount to trade 55%. Feat by Mall anywhere, BY WM. BECK & SON.

DuBOIS & KING, GENERAL AGENTS, commission and Forwarding Merchants, 108 Front street, fli Washington sueet, Portland, Ogn. San Francisco, Cai
Special attention given to the sale of Wool Floor, Grain and Produce in Portland and San Francisco.

THIS NEW ELASTIC TRUSS

The veteran Dr. Shaw, of Rochester, entered upon his fortieth year as pantor of the Brick Presbyterian Church December 7th.

Philadelphia churches have raised $9,000 toward the expenses of the great council to be held in their city in 1880, and will raise the whole $15,000 if necessary.

Rt. Rev. Bishop |Gilm onr-lCleveland

Rey. F. W. Pacho'z Wasses Minn-

Rev. Dr. B. Pick Rochester, N. Y. making so intensely from Rhommatic points that he was makin to preach. So noral applications of the lit. Jacobs Oil "relieved him wassierfully."

Huse Preyer Esq. Matienal Candidate for Lient Governor of Ohio. 1879.

It care not of liberarism and I can recommend it.

Hen. Thomas B. Price. U. S. Trensury Dept. Washington. D. G. recommends the rt. Jacobs Oil as the most wonderful pain-relieving and healing remoty in the world. His testimonial is endowed by some of the head officials of the Trensury

Mr. R. Schafer, No. 31 Brown St., Alleghaney City, Pg., but the libergration for eight years, and bad used every known medicine without relief. A single bettle of St. Jacobs Off pured Gustav A. Heilmann. Editor of the "Pittakuse Daily Republican." - suffered with chemication for three years, and by many a night unable to sleep an account of herrible poins. Two leaf-a case where a man suffered so failly with Edecomidate that he sould not move. His logs were swolen and he had the most terrible pains. Twelve house after the first application of the ht. Junior will the pains ware gote and the swelling had disappeared. Mr. Henry Shaefer, Millersburg.

Mr. Henry Lear. Patriot. Ohio. had each a pain in the left shoulder that he could not move. St. Jacobs Oil curred him after a few appli. Alons. The St. Jacobs Oil is fire sale by all Designites, bealers in Medicines, and General Storakeepers at Pitty Cents on bettie. the usual sources and cannot induce their druggists to promptly order for them, they will, by remitting Five Dullars to us, (per money order or registered letter), re-neive Ten Buttles by Express, expenses prepaid.

A. VOGELFR & CO. The trade supply 2 by MESSES- HODGE- DAVIS & CO.

VALENTINES!

An Immense Stock Just Received.

They are put up 'in retail assortments at $5, $10, $20, $30, $50

Special discount of 10% on especia lots to dealers. J. K. GILL & CO. Booksellers, Portland, egn.

The New Silent No. 8. Wheeler & Wilson Is the Cheapest to Buy

- BECAUSE IT IS .. The Easiest to Manage, The Most Durable, The Lightest Running. ... AND DOES

The Most Perfect Work.

Uses a Straight Self Setting Needle and Does the Greatest Variety and Widest Range of Work.

with it, as it is the ONLY SILENT SEWING MACHINE that makes the LOCK STITCH.

It is the Best Machine for all Family

Use, not Liable to get out of Order-

We place it on trial with all other Machines in the world.

ors in Paris in 1878.

Agents Wanted.

WHEELER & WILSON MANF'G CO. 131 Third St., Portland, Ogn.

HOTEL DE FRANCE, LEWISTON, IDAHO.

Mmc. M. LeFrancois, · · · · Proprietress This well known cotablishment, entirely rebuilt, is open for the reception of guests, with everything new and elegant. Experi need French Co-ks in the cultisary department. The House will be k pt open all night, and a free coach to and from the steamboats.

Cosmopolitan Hotel, THE DALLES, OREGON.

public patonage is respectively someoneh to and from will be kept open all night, and a free coach to and from the trains.

THO MAS SMITH.

ort B-3m

Formerly of the Empire Hotel.

J. A. STROWBRIDGE, Direct Importer and Dealer in LEATHER AND SHOE FINDINGS. We, 141 Front St. Portland, Gr.

Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster

A Wenderful Remedy, A Weinderful Remedy.

There is no comparison between it and the common slow acting porous plaster. It is in every way superior to all other external remedies, including liminents and the so-called electrical appliances. It contains new medicinal elements which in combination with rubber, possesses the most extraordinary asin-relieving, strengthening and curative properties. Any physician in your own locality will confire the above statement. For Lame Back, Rheumatiam, Female Weakness, Stubbern and Neglected Colds, and Coughs, Diseased Kidneys, Whioping Cough affections of the heart, and all file for which pocupaters are used it is simply the best known remedy:

The Oregon Kidney Tea!

The Most Wonderful Medical Discovery!

OF MOIDERN TIMES.

Challenges the World as a Remedy for

Pains in the Back and Kidneys, Non-Retention of Urine, Inflammation of the Bladder or Kidneys, Brick Bust Deposit in Urine, Nervousness, Painful or Suppressed Menstruation.

And all the complaints arising from a discussed or debilitated state of the Midneys or Urinary Organs of either ser. It is PU-ELY VEGETABLE and ENTHRELY HARMLETS, and expended adapted to the needs of Women Leaf of the Plant in its Natural State for those who wish to make their own Tax; and for those "whose made of life frenders it difficult to do this, we CONCENTRATED EXTRACT. Which contains the virtues of the Plant in a form/movement for travelers and others.

Full Directions Accompany Each Package.

Road the Following Testimonials:

My Hidneys were in a very bal condition. The Urine was like brick dust, and I suffered a great deal with back. All remedies were near-allow until I trial the ORDIOUS HIDNEY TEA, which gave use almost a liste relial.

H. HAMILTON.

PORTLAND, Fregue, August 2, 1878.
Having a severe backs the last Window, I was induced to try the OREGON KIDNET TEA. I found it very self-tal in its results. It was not more unpleasant to take than other tea. I would recommend it to those inted as I was.
JOHN P. FARMER,

The GREGON RIDNEY TRA has enred my back and Kidneys, and I am at a loss to express my graints' shall always remember the OREGON RIDNEY TEA with pleasure and exteem, and highly recommend in the I by triends and sequalistances.

J. H. P. DOWNING (at P. Selling's). While I was in Tillamook last Winter, I was affected in my back and Ridneys at the it was almost imposs his for me is reach Portland. When I got here I was induced to try the OREGON KIONET TEA. I densit, at my mark, the tea made from it, and it has effected a red oil cure. I can highly recommend it to all whe are afflicted a I was Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the Eddneys, and had tried many remainer without obtaining any permanent raise! About three months ago we were induced to tryn package of the OREGON KIDNET TEX, which has apparently entirely cared both of us, as since taking it two weeks we have felt no symptoms of the disease. We can heartily renommend it to others similarly afflicted, as we believe t will do all that is claimed for it.

WHITE

Assetts, Oregon, December 28, 1678.

I take pleasure in testifying to the merits of the OREGON EIDNEY TEA. For the past three years I have been suffering from Kilmey troubles, and during the time have tried nearly every kind of Kidney medicine in the meries, almost without any relief. Having heard that the ONEGON KIDNEY TEA possessed wondertal properties, I purchased a package, and from the first duer obtained relief, and by the use of the one package fed completely cured.

EAMUEL GRAY.

I here entity that I was suffering from an attack of backsche as sowers that I went about doubled up and uld a sugation us. I used one markers of the OREGON RIDNEY TEA, and I am fully personade that I as restored by its help. HARRISON, Oregon, December 31, 1878.

I have used the ORESON KIDNEY TEA for point in the back, and I am extisted with its effects, and do not state to recommend it as a mild and mile remady.

Z. T. SOOTE.

HARRINGER, Cougon, December 31, 1672.

The ORRIGON KIDNEY TEA has done my wife as much if not more good time any of the many remains has used for pains in the back, and I believe it to be a good removing for the datases which it is recommend.

Hannesme, Oregon, Dec. H., 1979.

Some three months ago I was attacked with a server Pale in my Back. I bought a package of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA and by the time I had used one half of it I was entirely relieved and have not been troubled since. I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be suffering from a limit or weak back, as a pleasant, safe and good remedy.

B. J. GRIGENY

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS & GENERAL DEALERS.

Hodge, Davis & Co., Proprietors, Portland. Oregon.

THE TIDE IS SETTING IN!!

Now Out and for Sale at the Book Stores,

The Pacific Monthly AND = OFFICIAL GAZETTE!

The edition of the OFFICIAL GAZETTE published by me two years ago has been entirely exhausted, and has added its proportion to

the influences which are attracting the thousands of immigrants to our RICH AND PRODUCTIVE LANDS

And accelerating the development of our natural resources. The demand for such a work is constantly increasing, and to meet that demand I shall widen the scope of the GAZETTE, change its form and issue it hereafter in regular monthly parts under the above title. It will be

Devoted to Statistical Information

Concerning the material resources of Oregon and Washington Territory, including a full description of the Cities, Towns, and Counties, Topographical Appearance, Population, Growth, Business Enterprises, Lists of Officers, and a complete

Business and Official Directory!

Of the State and Territory. Our agricultural advantages, as well as the mining, manufacturing and all other material interests of the entire State and Territory will be fully represented.

TOURISTS

Who have a special love for the grand and beautiful in nature, are just beginning to turn their attention to Oregon's unsurpassed scenery. Realizing that the "half has never been told" of the Wonders and Beauties of Mountains!

Valleys and rivers; all parts of the State will be visited, and faithfut pen-pictures given, omitting nothing that will render this work invalua-

TOURIST AND GUIDE

And just the book for the crowds of immigrants now coming, and proposing to come to our State. To make its pages even more acceptable as a Traveller's Hand-Book, as well as

A Welcome Visitor to the Family and Fireside.

We shall add to each monthly part interesting tales, sketches, poetry, scraps of local history, news, wit, etc., etc.

Mr. H. M. Clinton will have immediate supervision of the details of bringing out the work, and will visit all parts of the State and Territory personally to insure its accurate completeness.

Sold complete only by subscription, at $3 00 per annum. Single parts 50 cents each. D. H. STEARNS, Publisher, PORTLAND, OREGON