RAILROAD.—There can be no doubt now but what the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company will build the road from the Dalles to Walla Walla the present year—and were possible we ought to have a connecting line to deliver our surplus freight to this line at some point on the Columbia, either at or below the mouth of the Umatilla river. It has been said by persons who ought to know, that telegraphs are being brought to the city. If that is the case there is little doubt about the city of Pendleton having railroad connection with the Columbia in a few short years. J. H. Kunze is now in town talking up the telegraph from Umatilla to this point, and we have no doubt that the necessary association will be formed before his return, and active work commenced, and before the June election we expect to receive telegrams direct from Portland and Walla Walla. A meeting of the citizens of Pendleton will be held at the postoffice on Saturday next, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of discussing and forming a company to build the line. Who have an interest in this much needed project are requested to attend.

ARRIVALS.—There has been a large emigration, this week, to this town, of men who have wintered in the Granite Creek country, after crawling around in snow waist deep for the last two months they became sick at heart, and concluded to seek a better climate, which most of them knew they could find by coming out of the Blue Mountains, where they have been trying to contend against the ice and snow, to the Columbia slope. We of this section, only 70 miles north have been enjoying one of the pleasantest of winters, with the exception of two weeks of what is called hard weather. The stock on the north side of the Blue Mountains have been roaming amongst luxuriant grasses. Hot cattle are better than in the state of Illinois where they are fattened on corn. Plows have been turning up the virgin soil all of the winter months, with the exception already noticed. Wheat has been sown and most of it is now from an inch to two inches high. We welcome the hard working winter among us after enduring the rigors of an Iceland winter, and hope he can find a good and happy home among us, till warm breezes and gentle showers again unclasp the ice kings reign, and they can return to enjoy the balmy air of the mountain ranges and take their fortunes from their mother earth.

Highway Robbery.

Mr. S. T. Northing, living one and a half miles east of Wheatland, in Multnomah county, was waylaid when on his way home from the ferry landing, and under the cover of a double barrel shot gun robbed of $20.00 to about the hour of noon. Mr. Northing was on his way home from Portland, having been down and sold his wheat to Messrs. Allen & Lewis, and started home on the steamer A. A. McCully which landed him on the east side of the river opposite Wheatland, from whence he had a mile and a half to walk home. Soon after leaving the river he met some Chinamen going towards the river, and soon after passing them a masked man raised up from behind a fallen tree and covered him with a double barrel shotgun and demanded his money. Mr. N. seeing there was no chance to escape dropped his money and passed on. The robber gathered up the sack and disappeared in the woods. It is not known who the robber is but steps have been taken to capture him.—Eg.

First Blood for Grant.

The Radical State Convention for Pennsylvania, which met at Harrisburg on the 4th was a signal success for Grant, and a thorough defeat for Blaine. The delegation is instructed to vote for Grant and Grant only, and that as a unit, so that there is no possibility of a break in those 58 votes. New York will come in next with her 70 votes, which gives Grant 128; this added to the votes he will get from the South will give him an easy victory, besides he will secure the vote of several Western States. Below we give the proceedings of the Harrisburg convention, and it will be seen that Grant's friends had everything their own way. The first movement was the introduction of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the delegates elected to the Republican National Convention from this State are hereby instructed to support for President the nomination of G. M. U. S. Grant, and to vote as a unit on all questions that may come before the convention.

Some offered an amendment:

Resolved, That while we pledge ourselves to support the Republican party, we see no good reason for abandoning the position taken by the party in our own and other States in 1876 of opposition to a third Presidential term, and we hereby endorse and reaffirm the resolution passed by our State convention held in this city in 1876.

Upon this question a discussion ensued.

The speeches of the anti Grant people were all from the Blaine point of view, and no other names besides Grant and Blaine were mentioned at all except in the remarks of Albright.

Stuart, after arguing strongly in favor of his amendment, withdrew it, and Strong of Texas, offered another, to wit: To strike out the name of U. S. Grant and insert that of James G. Blaine.

On vote by yeas and nays, Strong's amendment was lost, 95 to 154, several of the Blaine people voting against it on the ground that it was not proper to instruct a delegation for any one.

The question then recurred on the original resolutions, or rather that part of it which instructed the Chicago delegates to vote for Grant.

Again yeas and nays were ordered and showed a vote of 133 in favor and 113 against that portion of the resolution.

The second portion of the resolution, instructing the delegation to vote as a unit, was adopted by a viva voce vote.

A. S. Olmstead was made permanent chairman.

Here are a few more of the T. T. Lincoln's:

The people of the Sound countries of Washington territory have extraordinary good judgment in the selecting of men for important public duties, and what is still more extraordinary, the good sense to retain in office honest and competent men when found. The following interesting statement is from the Seattle Independent: Auditor Smith, of Whatcom, like Auditor Booth, of King, has faithfully and acceptably served the people for (at the expiration of 1880) three terms, or six years and now declares himself out of the political field. His official record is a worthy one, upon which he can retire with honor. Rotation in office among Puget Sound auditors by the way is unknown. Auditor Phillips, of Thurston is now enjoying his twelfth official year, and Auditor Kandle, of Pierce his eighth. Mr. Sawyer, of Jefferson, seemed to hold a life lease of the office in this county; his re-elections numbered close upon a dozen and his official years close upon a score. Mr. McCullum, of Kitsap, can probably hold on as long as he wants, and it is much the same in Snohomish and Island.

Below find one of the reasons for a "no fence law."

HELENA, Feb. 6.—The board of trade has unanimously adopted a resolution protesting against the passage by congress of a bill withdrawing from pre-emption and homestead entry public lands lying west of the 100th meridian, and declaring that the report of the committee which assumes that all land lying west of the meridian is not tillable, is untrue so far as concerns Montana, which has fifteen million acres of the most productive lands in America, and declaring that the change in the laws which puts these lands in the hands of non-resident speculators is a pernicious one and will shut off immigration from this territory which will otherwise be one of the greatest states in the union.

While the fence or no fence law is agitating the public mind, we have concluded to inform our readers about hedges, which we clip from an exchange:

After carefully reading and examining many experiments and tabulate cost, we do not hesitate to say that the farmers and stockmen of Eastern Oregon and Washington should at once test the practicability of the orange orange hedge fence. We give what a farmer in Ohio says upon the subject:

I have had an orange hedge on my farm for years, and one of my neighbors has had a hedge of this kind 19 years. It grows rapidly; makes a good and ornamental hedge in a short time; endures our heat and cold, extreme dry and wet weather; fourishes equally well on all sorts of soil, hill sides or on the bottom.

The same gentleman gives the cost as follows:

First cost of hedge per 100 rods for 3200 plants, $13.00; preparing the soil and cutting the plants, $4; total, $17.00. For three years the cultivation equals that of a row of corn the same length, after which time the hedge will turn stock better than almost any kind of fence. After this the hedge should be trimmed with a scythe, the man trimming about 200 rods per day.

W. H. Abbott, that old Democratic war horse, we learn has gone to Boise city to take charge of the Idaho Democrat. Mr. Abbott will no doubt sustain his well earned reputation as a journalist and make things lively for the Republicans in that section.

The Portland papers speak of Walla Walla as having one of the most efficient fire departments of any town on the Pacific coast, with John Justice as "hyas tyer" of the department.

Quarrelling Brothers.

Considerable excitement prevailed at The Dalles on Wednesday, occasioned by a shooting affray between two brothers, Charles and Thomas Denton, and having its origin in a dispute between them concerning the ownership of a line fence dividing their property. Charles fired two shots at his brother and the two bullets perforated the coat of Thomas, whose arm was being carried by the fence. Charles was arrested and yesterday had a preliminary examination before Justice of the Peace Michel, and at the conclusion he was held in $500 bail to await the action of the grand jury. The Denton brothers are well known here and are very respectfully connected.
