A Suggestion.

It is quite unfortunate that our Democratic friends should disagree. The recent New York election shows how fatal that was. Tammany went one way and the other wing went the other way, and the consequence was that the Republicans, although much weaker, carried the State, while today it is Democratic.

Oregon is also Democratic to-day, unless mistakes are made in our own party.

We notice that the Portland Standard and Mercury are engaged in a bitter controversy, and that many prominent Democrats are being criticized by reason of this discussion.

We only ask, as a peace-maker, that this thing should cease.

We admit that the Democrat is only a "cow-county" organ; but it is a representative paper of the Democracy, and while it does not arrogate to itself any right to dictate, it surely has the right to suggest.—State Rights Democrat.

ED. "E. O."—The long looked for event has occurred. The brat is born, its name is division, second name is club. This happened at the office of one of the legal fraternity in Weston. It is a weakly infant of doubtful parentage; what its politics will be, it is difficult to determine as it is the fruits of the long looked for combination scheme, but if it survives for a few months it will no doubt develope into a staunch Republican, there being a scanty nourishment for the little waif. The editor of the Leader will act as wet nurse until the little fellow cuts his teeth, or at least until its Democratic friends get their's cut. Some disappointment is manifested by its parents on account of the small number of persons being present to witness its advent into the world. In fact but few persons in town knew that the thing had been born, even the Leader failed to announce the fact the next day.

As I said before, some doubts are entertained as to its living long, but its friends think that by mixing a little Democracy and a little Republicanism together and giving it a large dose, that it will either kill or cure it. Its birth was premature, caused, no doubt, by one of its parents being kicked and cuffed around town some time since by an enraged landlord. On next Wednesday evening the friends of the chap will meet to take into consideration the best means of promoting his welfare. Meantime the medicine will be prepared, and such a dose: Ten vacant lots, ten kegs nails, ten law-suits in circuit court, one barrel sugar, twenty yards calico, twenty pair boots, 100 lbs tough beef, diluted with ten barrels Nabob whiskey; well shaken and rubbed on by a Republican Legislature aspirant.

The majority of Democrats are looking on to see what the effect will be.

Yours truly, LOOKER ON.

Fence or No Fence.

Once upon a time one man wished to own the whole world; another hearing of his desire said, "I wish I owned all the cattle and horses." No. 1 wanted to know what he would do with them. No. 2 said he would let them run on his ground unless he fenced it in. No. 1 became much enraged and said "you must heard your stock off the earth."

MORAL.—Let every man take care of his own property. If in lands, fence them; if in cattle or horses see that nobody steals them.

MR. EDITOR.—I came to town this week and concluded to find out "some dings." First, who pays the taxes of Umatilla county, or in other words, who has got the better right to Uncle Sam's domain—the stock grower or the man who takes up from 160 acres of land up to 3,000 in a body, or the man who is satisfied with fencing his 160 acres, keeping around him a few cows, hogs, sheep, poultry, etc. So far as the mere matter of right is concerned there is but little difference to my mind, but which part of this community is it that supports the county and people of the county best. It is easily answered—the man who makes a home and the man who makes that home comfortable by surrounding his farm with good fences, builds good houses and barns, keeps a few cows and pigs, horses and poultry, and is allowed the privilege of ranging his stock on all unappropriated government and railroad lands.

But this is getting long for me and I will come to the point at once.

The assessor found of live stock in this county this year the worth of $869,456; he found of real property, and improvements on the same, including town and city lots, $844,232. Here you have it in a nut shell. The men who would advocate a no-fence law would drive from the county the stock which to-day pays more taxes than all the real property within the county—is this justice, or is it hogging things?

I want you to publish this because these are my sentiments, and I believe that nine-tenths of the citizens of this county think as I do. ROOSTER.

Simeon G. Reed, the well-known capitalist and stock breeder, is the head at Portland of the system known as the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, to which the Oregon Steam Navigation is now tributary. He has his hands full of business in going over all the plans and specifications of this work. He represents Villard directly, as others do in detail, just as we predicted he would before the close of last year. The stock of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company is quoted in New York at 115; and in spite of the enormous outlay attendant upon the construction of this 110 miles of road, it will pay dividends at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum, which is a gilt-edged stock. It would not surprise us to see it go to 130 within three months after the road to Wallula is in running order. As money can be easily hired on real estate at 5 per cent. in New York, it will readily be seen that Oregon Railway and Navigation stock is one that will be much sought for; and with honest management there will be no difficulty in keeping it so.—Empire.

Murder Will Out.

A Mystery Solved. The Gallows Cheated by a Suicide!

THE MURDERER OF CONRAD WARNER DISCOVERED!

[Salem Statesman, Feb. 5.]

The citizens of Marion county still remember the thrill of horror that startled the whole community a few years ago when Conrad Warner was murdered in open daylight on the open highway almost within sight of the city of Salem. The murderer made good his escape, and a deep mystery shrouded the whole transaction and the secret remained unsolved to this day.

After nearly six years of time a solution of the mystery is now for the first time made public. A Mr. Munsell, of Buena Vista, gave us the following solution:

The citizens of Polk county, and especially in the vicinity of Buena Vista, will remember one William Tobbs, alias William Franklin, who some time in the year 1877 married a Miss Browning, near Buena Vista, and the tragical end of the wedded pair on the 4th of July, '78. It will be remembered that in a fit of jealousy Franklin on that day shot his wife, killing her instantly, and then immediately killed himself. It appears that the married life of Franklin and wife was one of continued domestic infelicity, and on several occasions separated only to be re-united. A few days before the fatal fourth of July Mrs. Franklin told to Mr. Munsell that to her life was a burden, that she was wedded to a man with whom she could not live, and that she dared not leave him. She said that in his confiding moments he had told her the history of his life under the pledge of secrecy, to be paid by the forfeiture of her life if she ever revealed his secret. He said that he had in his lifetime killed fifteen men; that one of them was a negro in Jackson county, from whom he got $1,500; that he was the man who killed Conrad Warner, near Salem; that he did it with the expectation of getting $200, the price of a span of horses sold by Warner a short time before. Franklin said that he knew when the horses were sold, the price, and the time payment was to be made, and he resolved to get that money when paid, and for that purpose laid his plans. He waylaid Warner on his way home, stopped him in the road, shot him dead, and after rifling his pockets started the team homeward in the road, and then made his way through the woods and by-ways to Scio and southward to Linn county, thence across to the west side of the river into Polk county, where he has resided the most of the time since. Franklin gave his real name as Wm. Tubbs.

THE RACE TRACK.—The grand stand, which was blown over by the late storm is again in position, and we sincerely hope that such an accident will not again occur. The track is in splendid condition, and the cracks of the turf kept at the stables are all in a high state of training and doing well. Mr. Collins will soon issue his programme of the spring races.—W. W. Statesman.

We understand that Wallowa Lake has been frozen over from shore to shore the full length of the lake, and that skating parties have been having high fun on the ice. Having been informed that the lake never froze over during the coldest winters, this seems a little like taffy. Will some of our reliable Wallowa friends "rise up and explain?"—Ex.

For the Women.

The Eighth Annual Convention of the Oregon Women Suffrage Association came to a close last night, and the three sessions of yesterday were all of a very interesting character. During the morning the time was passed in the discussion of various questions found in the letter box, which was taken part in by some of the ladies, all of whom spoke with great earnestness. At the afternoon session the first order of business was the election of officers, which was held with the following result:

Mr. E. P. Heroy was nominated for president; on motion the rules were suspended and the nominee elected by acclamation.

Mrs. J. DeVore Johnson was chosen for recording secretary, and Mrs. M. A. Edmunds for corresponding secretary after the same speedy and satisfactory method. Mrs. Keenan was elected treasurer by ballot.

President elect Heroy was escorted to the chair by Mrs. Duniway, who also took advantage of making a few remarks which were received with much merriment.

The following vice-presidents, one for each county, were appointed by the president: Miss Agnes Coburn of Multnomah, Mrs. S. A. McCown of Clackamas, Mrs. M. Minto of Marion, Miss Maggie Foster of Linn, Miss Lillian Cooke of Yamhill, Mrs. M. J. Plymale of Jackson, Mrs. F. Owens of Douglas, Mary Shane Smith of Clatsop, Mrs. Nicholas of Polk, Mrs. Donnell of Wasco, Mrs. Tozier of Washington, Mrs. Webster of Coos and Curry, Mrs. Myers of Josephine, Mrs. Curry of Grant, Mrs. Eaton of Union, Mrs. Cleaver of Baker, Mrs. Olney of Lake, Mrs. Chenoweth of Benton, Mrs. Ream of Lane.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this association are hereby tendered to the ladies in the great national woman suffrage association, who, with Susan B. Anthony at their head, have secured repeated hearings before the judiciary committee and committee on privileges and elections in the Senate of the United States.

Resolved, That our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to Wheeler, Vice-President of the United States; Beck and Williams, of Kentucky; Allison and Kirkwood, of Iowa; Dawes, of Massachusetts; Ferry, of Michigan; Kernan, of New York; Pendleton, of Ohio; Conkling, of New York; Davis, of Illinois; Anthony, of Rhode Island; Baldwin, of Michigan; Voorhees, of Indiana; Saunders, of Nebraska; Farley, of California; Vest and Cockrell, of Missouri; Paddock, of Nebraska; Booth, of California; Burnside, of Rhode Island; Wallace, of Pennsylvania; McPherson, of New Jersey; Cameron, of Pennsylvania; Hoar, of Massachusetts; Plumb, of Kansas; McDonald, of Indiana; Hamlin, of Maine and Thurman, of Ohio, for their just actions in presenting petitions for a sixteenth amendment declaring suffrage based upon citizenship without distinction of sex, and memorials praying for the removal of individual woman's political disabilities before the Senate of the United States. And,

Resolved, That copies of the New Northwest containing this resolution be forwarded to the honorable gentlemen who have thus invoked our grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That this Association tenders thanks to the Oregon railway and steamboat companies, to the newspapers for their courteous reports, and to D. W. Prentice & Co., for the use of piano, and to Dr. O. B. Bird, Miss Mary Test, Miss Jones, Mrs. Cruzan, Mrs. H. W. Scott, Miss Annie Fearnside, Miss Sonora Witherell, Judge Adams, Rev. Mr. Cruzan and others for their able assistance in the convention.

Resolved, That each woman of property should send a personal petition to the members of the Legislature and Senate of her precinct requesting to be relieved of taxation on her property, or be allowed to represent it by a vote.

COTTAGE GROVE, Feb. 8, 1880.

ED. "E. O."—We are having cool, frosty nights. The farmers are plowing and sowing. Stock looks worse than usual at this time of the year owing to the shortness of the grass. We have had a very disagreeable winter so far, more so than we ever experienced before. Times are dull and money scarce, and considerable complaint of bad colds. The Cambelites have been holding a protracted meeting for a week; how much longer it will last we can't tell. We are now building up the burnt district in Cottage Grove. One building is 28x80 feet, which is intended for a store house. We will soon have a warehouse along side the same 20x60. There are other buildings in contemplation of erection the coming spring and summer. Mr John Shields, the contractor of the new store and warehouse, had thirteen or fourteen hands employed on Friday last shingling the storehouse; it is now enclosed. CUMTUX.

NEW TO-DAY.

Notice.—Taken up by the undersigned living in Meadows precinct, Umatilla county, Oregon, one sorrel horse supposed to be 10 or 11 years old, and about 13 hands high, with a white strip in face and all legs white to his knees; branded on the neck with triangle and on left hip with a circle with a cross in circle. Appraised by G. Lisle, J. P., at $20. THOMAS BAKER.
