

The East Oregonian. SATURDAY, MARCH 20, 1880. PUBLISHED BY TURNER & BISHOP. TERMS IN ADVANCE ONE YEAR $3. Democratic State Convention.

A Democratic State Convention is hereby called to meet at Albany, on Wednesday, April 7, 1880, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, three candidates for Supreme Judges, Judges for each of the several judicial districts and Prosecutors Atorneys, and the election of six delegates to attend the National Democratic State Convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the Convention.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Count. Lists delegates from various counties like Baker, Benton, Clatsop, Columbia, Curry, Douglas, Grant, Jackson, Joseph, Lake, and Tillamook.

It is recommended that no person come more than two miles, either by proxy or otherwise at said Convention, and a full representation is most earnestly requested. The Committee suggests that the primaries, unless otherwise ordered by the proper local committees, be held on Saturday, March 20th, and the County Conventions on Saturday, March 27th.

The Democratic County Convention for Umatilla County, Oregon, will be held in the Court House in Pendleton, on Saturday, March 27th, for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Albany, on Wednesday, April 7th, and to nominate candidates for county officers.

All lands on odd sections, in Umatilla county, forty miles south of survey of N. P. R. R., are withdrawn from market by the government, and are now held for the North Pacific Railroad Company.

The Democratic Primaries. We elip from that good old Democratic paper, the State Rights Democrat, the following, substituting the county of Umatilla for the county of Lane:

Democracy of Umatilla don't forget the Primaries-to-day. Every voter of the party should attend, and see that only good men and true are sent up to attend the County Convention.

Believing that division of the county is the vital issue before the citizens of Umatilla county, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the endorsement of the Division Convention.

In business matters it is a rule that the more customers a man has the cheaper he can sell his goods, but in school matters this does not appear to hold.

Look Out! Look Out! Our town will probably be filled to-day with Division notables and incongruous mass Republicans and Democrats, all Divisionist. We are led to this conclusion by an article in the Leader which stated that the Division Central Committee would meet at Pendleton on the 20th inst.

Where did this agitation commence? At Weston and Heppner each of the citizens of these respective towns expecting to find a bonanza for themselves by the locating of a county seat in the respective towns, and but for the money to be made out of such locations no division would have been agitated.

Ed. "E. O."—I have been traveling around somewhat through the county; talked politics some and heard a great deal of it talked by others. At Elk Horn School House the Republicans have really organized at this point and hope to march to victory through the discussions of the Democratic party. If it were possible, which I think it is not, to divide the Democratic party as the Weston Leader advocates.

Wool Growers Meeting. Eastern Oregon Wool Growers Association met at the Court House, Saturday, March 13th, 1880—the annual meeting of said Association. J. H. Frazer in the chair; C. H. Seely, secretary.

A Male Incubator. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Handley, of this place, being practical woolmen and agriculturists, having last year set their hen turkey, and thinking that turn about was fair play, have this year set their turkey gobbler.

Academy at The Dalles. The following is from a communication written by Rev. D. B. Gray: The favorable situation of The Dalles for a high school, has been under consideration for some time past, by the prominent citizens of the place.

Correspondence. BLK MOUNTAINS, March 15th. Ed. "E. O."—Knowing that you have a column open for items from this section and for the many readers of the best local paper in Eastern Oregon I write you a few lines.

Seeing communications to the Weston Leader from this place and thinking it was a little too far to send my kind of news, I concluded to let these few items stop here.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY. In a severe falling fever for several days, I was unable to get up, and was in a very weak and nervous condition. I had tried many remedies, but without success.
