THE 5th IN THE 4th.

Was ushered in by the booming of anvils, fire-crackers and a general jubilee on the part of the good people of Pendleton. The day was warm and clear with the exception of a dust storm that swept through the town about 5 o'clock P. M., enveloping everything. It was impossible to see across a street for several minutes. Stores, saloons, hotels and private houses were filled as if by magic with the crowd that had gathered on the streets to witness the last performance on the programme of sports for the day, tennis. The sack race, which finally came off about sun-down, was won by Harry Hester was the champion.

About 10 o'clock the Knights of Pythias formed in front of the court house, dressed in all the paraphernalia of the order, and they looked well and made a splendid appearance. Next came the Fire Company, the finest of all the turns out we had. Their engine was nicely decorated with flags and evergreens, and on the top of the engine rode Miss Minnie Sperry, who represented the Fire Queen. With Master Alie Despain and his active body guard. It was a great sight to see the Firemen, and their Queen, and many a cheer they received as the procession moved on. After marching forward through the principal streets the procession moved forward to the grove selected for the exercises. Here was gathered the largest assemblage of people ever in Pendleton before, and all seemed bent on enjoying themselves. As soon as order was restored it was announced that the exercises would commence. Rev. Mr. Kinnair opened the exercises with prayer; singing, then a solo, followed by the declamation of independence, which was much applauded; next singing; next, oration by D. M. Conley, for which he received the congratulations of the audience. Next, singing, and then the

TABLES.

Which were well loaded with good and substantial provisions, and everybody made welcome. The only mistake made in the whole arrangement was that the tables were too small, which necessitated the delay in resetting and resetting it, but by constant waiting on the part of the audience and the committee work on the part of Miss St. John, Sandy and I don't know how many ladies. All, at least, were supplied and all left the ground with a good appreciation of the days enjoyment.

LIBERTY CAR.

Well I had nearly forgotten the Goddess of Liberty and the little girls who sat representing the States, and the 13 older ones who represented the 13 old colonies that engaged in a rebellion 104 years ago, the result of which is a free and independent people; and this is the way that Pendleton did it.

W. M. ELLIS. S. Rothchild and several others of the Willow Spring veterans went to the Willow Spring battle ground, to spend the anniversary of their battle with the Indians on the 4th of July, 1878. They report a grand celebration on the old battle-ground, the Indians having located and honored by all who participated in the battle. The Captain of the company, J. L. Sperry, did not attend their celebration, but noted as Marshal of the day at the celebration in Pendleton. All Umatilla county ought to celebrate the day in honor of those Spanish 20 strong, who resisted for a day the combined forces of the Bannocks and Shoshones, who had overrun the county from Idaho to this point. Here was where they received their first check—always successful when in action against regular soldiers, they expected to scoop this little band easily, but after 8 hours hard fighting, this little band of 20 had held their own against the combined forces of the Indians at bay, and never offered to retreat till night had thrown her mantle over the earth; then taking up their wounded they retreated in good order and were met next morning by Maj. Throckmorton and his soldiers. As we said before, the actors of the day are worthy of all honor by all our citizens.

GRANITE CREEK.—James Beagle, just in from Granite creek, reports everything flourishing. The immense amount of snow the past winter, has given water sufficient to wade the streams, and he anticipated a rich harvest for the present year. The Mountain mill has been crushing rock for the last month; with what results he could not say positively, but thinks they have lots of bullion on hand. Several arrastras are running on gold rock and all are doing well. He has been crushing rock from the Buffalo to his arrastras, and is well satisfied with the result. He wants to make arrangements to take out his father and mother and let them enjoy the benefit of the cool mountain air, this summer. Jim looks well and is singularly successful.

YOUNG man, do you want a new suit cut to order and made to fit? If so, go to Frank Morgan's, on Main street, next door to Bon Ton.

Services at Milkey's Hall on the 1st Sunday of each month at 4 o'clock P. M., by Rev. Father L. L. Conrady of the Catholic Church.

Notice.—To those who want good pictures taken—I expect to go to Hepner on about the 20th of July, so do not delay but come while there is time.

SAFARI arrived Thursday evening from the Monumental Mine with 3 silver bricks which amounted to $4500. 97. A good future for a poor man, indeed.

Fireman's Ball.—July 5th was a complete success. About 80 couples stepped to the music from 9 P. M. till 4 A. M., next day. The amount cleared for the Firemen's fund was $121. 50.

We notice on our streets, several citizens of Hepner this week, among which were Rhea, Fenland, Rush, Monks, all were full of business and none bored us on the Division-question.

Telephone.—The wire for that telephone is up from Umatilla to this place. The hose telephone man will be here in a day or two to make the connection all right and then we will get a little news.

We see it going the rounds of all the newspapers, that James Berry at Umatilla, has started for Cheyenne with a load of 6000 sheep. Now the man's name is Jas. Sperry, a brother of our ex-sheriff.

HATHAWAY, of the Red Stone, is selling out and making his money will him rich and he now offers his stock of fruits nuts, canned fruits, nuts water and ice cream, at reasonably low prices.

Wanted.—Situation on a ranch to keep house for a single man, and wife; the woman is a good cook and a good working house-keeper; either in Weston, Pendleton or Centerville. Apply to JOHN SMITH.

G. W. WEBB is worn out between runs, and is resting on the 4th and the immense amount of goods he sold out of his hardware store the past week—will be a little sick and weaks all his customers to call and buy of him quickly.

LADIES' PARADE.—At this fashionable military establishment, can be found Mrs. Wade, late of Boston, Mass., a first class dress maker, cuts and fits all styles of dresses and warrants satisfaction.

IMMIGRATION.—Passed through town, Thursday, eight wagons drawn by horses and cattle, just from Utah. We did not learn their destination but they still kept on westward. Families were in every wagon. It looked a little like the immigration of '52.

Mrs. F. A. LOGAN, Magnetic Heater, will cure the rheumatism in ten days, of those who will place themselves under her treatment for the present month. No one pay. Office at the corner of Johnson Street and Main in Pendleton Tribune office. Pendleton, July 6, 1880.

NEW OFFICERS.—The new county officers were sworn in last Monday and Tues. and the old ones "stepped down and out." Sheriff Martin surprised all the Republicans who participated in the battle. The Captain of the company, J. L. Sperry, did not attend their celebration, but noted as Marshal of the day at the celebration in Pendleton. All Umatilla county ought to celebrate the day in honor of those Spanish 20 strong, who resisted for a day the combined forces of the Indians at bay, and never offered to retreat till night had thrown her mantle over the earth; then taking up their wounded they retreated in good order and were met next morning by Maj. Throckmorton and his soldiers. As we said before, the actors of the day are worthy of all honor by all our citizens.

THE California, published in San Francisco, the 10th number of this elegant magazine lies beside us. We have pursued a number of the articles and they are all interesting. This magazine should be purchased by all the reading public. We pronounce it to be equal to the Atlantic Monthly, Harper's Monthly or Scribner's. Why it has not a greater circulation in these parts we are unable to conjecture, unless it is published too near home.

INSECTS.—In conversation with Rob. Sayers, he informed us that in the country around Pendleton, grasshoppers had been taken to exterminate the squirrel population. That in accomplishment of this object, poison has been placed on the ground instead of in the squirrels holes. That the consequence is, nearly all the insects eating birds have been killed, and but few would pass, till insects on the prairie would be a worse pest than the squirrel.

Mr. Sayers recommends everyone in putting poison for squirrels to see manage that the birds will not be killed.

D. W. PRENTICE, the Pacific Coast music teacher and pianist, is in town and will remain until the 4th of July. They report a grand celebration on the old battle-ground, the Indians having located and honored by all who participated in the battle. The Captain of the company, J. L. Sperry, did not attend their celebration, but noted as Marshal of the day at the celebration in Pendleton. ## Hepner Notes.

HEPNER, July 6th.
E. E. O.—The 4th at this place was well enjoyed by all. During the day Main Street was crowded with people looking on at foot racing and horse racing through the street... A little boy of Mr. Kirk's, living near this place, was thrown from a bucking horse the 29th ult., receiving a broken arm... A man was found dead last week on Rhea Creek with a rifle lying across his breast and a bullet hole through his head. It is wrapped in mystery as his death.
