

The East Oregonian.

SATURDAY... AUG. 28, 1880. PUBLISHED BY TURNER & COX. TERMS IN ADVANCE. ONE YEAR $5.

FOR PRESIDENT: W. S. HANCOCK OF PENNSYLVANIA. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: WM. H. ENGLISH OF INDIANA. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS: J. K. WEATHERFORD, T. G. OWEN, JAMES FULTON.

The political fight wears hot in Washington between Thos. H. Brents and J. B. Allen for nomination on the Republican ticket for delegate in Congress.

Gardner's nomination was undoubtedly one of the most important in the grand caucus. We say one of the worst, because Colfax, Patterson, a Subsidy Pomerooye or Ross Simpson's might have been as bad.

Senator David Davis has long been recognized as a favorite leader of the Liberal Republican or independent voters. As by the intimate friend of Abraham Lincoln, whom he was appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court, Mr. Davis' devotion to the original principles of republicanism and to the Union cannot be successfully impeached.

The Leader of last week seems offended at some unnamed party having reported in Weston that he was going to Pendleton to buy his provisions there as they were not to be had in Weston, and goes on to say Weston had sent two loads of flour to Pendleton during last week.

Col. C. H. Larabee of Seattle, W. T., will canvas Oregon for Hancock and English during the fall, speaking in Weston on October 13th and in Pendleton on the 14th. He is said to be one of the finest speakers on our coast, and we anticipate great pleasure in listening to his address.

Drs. Taylor & Conick, dentists, after spending several days in town returned to Walla Walla on Tuesday last well pleased with their visit to this place.

Sunday, the 15th inst, was truly an eventful day. Frank Porter was killed by a horse here; a man committed suicide at Junction City, and a sheep herder was murdered in Wasco.

We learn that one of the parties of excursionists from Pendleton to the mountains picked 100 bushels of huckleberries during the term of their stay, about a week.

Our readers will beyond a doubt incur our excuse for not having the usual amount of interesting local. The country exhibit is of an little importance to all who have the welfare of the country at heart.

We noticed among the strange faces in town this week Hon. J. H. Reed of Portland, W. H. Upton of Walla Walla, W. H. McCanna of the Mountain States, and Bob Standfield of Umatilla.

Ed. Marshall left on the stage Wednesday evening for Portland where he will attend school during the coming session. Ed. is a good boy and we know will do himself credit.

There was another nigger minstrel show at town last Monday night. They had quite a respectable house and all went away dissatisfied.

Hon. J. C. Franklin of Lena was in town this week. He informed us that he had partially contracted a sale of his patient system. He will go to Portland in a few days.

The Wages of Sin.

The Bible says, is death; but the present Republican administration offers a more tempting reward. The table we give below occupies quite an amount of space, and yet we do not begrudge the room, for it is matter of interest to all the people of the United States to know whom they have for officials in important public capacities.

Table with columns: Names, Political employment, 1876, Office, Salary. Includes Members of ret'ing boards, President returning board, Secretary returning board, etc.

Table with columns: Names, Political employment, 1876, Office, Salary. Includes Oregon, Dennis Eagan, L. G. Denis, H. W. Howell, etc.

The following officers of government were in Florida, drawing their regular salaries, looking after the canvass during the presidential canvass, to wit: Thos J. Brady, Peyton, H. Clay Hopkins, etc.

Names. (Political employment, 1876) Office. Salary.

Table with columns: Names, (Political employment, 1876) Office, Salary. Grand aggregate of annual salaries paid to the men who counted Hayes in.

Consider the above—$233,000 of the money of the honest taxpayers of the country paid out annually as a reward of crime. Could anything be more humiliating to a people than for such things as these to be known not only at home but among the nations of the world?

National Democratic Platform. The Democratic party of the United States is committed to the maintenance of the Constitution and the preservation of the Union. We believe in the right of every citizen to the free exercise of his religion, and in the right of every man to the free enjoyment of his property.
