A ONE-HORSE MINISTER. - A Methodist parson, the Rev. Stanley, "got away" with Bishop Tuttle, as they say out with Bishop Tuttle, as they say out per day. The mines draw away more exercise or training which brought forth West, during his recent trip in the Missoula valley. It seems that the Rev. Mr. Stewart, of Missoula, was driving the elerical party (consisting of Bishop Tuttle, the Rev. Tillotson and himself) in his own one horse shay, and while en route met the Rev. Stanley driving two horses. The bishop, who is always ready for a joke, sang out: "I say, Stanley, how is it that you Methodist preachers manage to drive two horses, while we Episcopalians have to put up with one?" "Perhaps you are one-horse preachers," said the ready-witted Stanley, and the procession moved on amid hearty shouts of laughter, in which the bishop joined.
