The Villard Hotel is in full blast and cannot fail to be a popular resort for the weary traveler...

Slater is coming and "Uncle George" Webb is happy; happy in the thought that he will once more meet his friend, Hesper in the knowledge that he will hear a great speech, and happiest in the hope that the crowd then assembled will relieve him of some of his vast stock of stores...

Quite an excitement was created on Monday by the appearance of two young moose in the wagon of a stranger. The animals while confined in a cage seemed quite tame and in a prosperous condition.

We hear rumors of the establishment of a bank in Pendleton by Wm. Reid of Portland and others.

MILVERNY—Mrs. N. Hendryx has returned from Portland with a large and choice lot of millinery goods...

The irrepressible Charley Cohn, representing the well known liquor house of Wilkesburg & Co., spent a day in town this week.

Never say die. What if Indiana did go against us? I. Hathaway sells for the same price as of yore—cigars, fruits, nuts, cigars, tobacco, notions of all kinds...

I. Hathaway at the Red Store is new able to supply the constant stream of customers with fruits fresh and ripe, confectioneries of every kind, cigars, tobacco, notions and knick-knacks generally.

Dr. A. McCollie of Salem is doing genuine work in Pendleton. All work warranted. He is giving general satisfaction. Now is your time to get the worth of your money.

Paul Richter the indefatigable traveler for Gundlach & Co.'s liquor house, San Francisco, spent a few days in town this week. Look out for "ad" at an early day.

Hon. J. H. Beecher of Portland will speak at Pilot Rock on Saturday evening, October 23d, at 7 P. M. Turn out and give him a good attendance.

Lot Livorno, we are sorry to report, is quite sick but is improving and we hope soon to see him out again.

Messrs. D. M. Conley and O. F. Bell of our bar are attending Court in Union this week.

The Betroot Democrat reports a shocking rape on the person of the wife of Richard Garrett, living near Auburn, on the 8th inst. the perpetrator being her own brother, Mr. Garrett was away from home at the time but learning of the matter on his return swore out a warrant against the guilty party—James Hart, and he was duly put in iron. He has probably been tried for the crime during last week and if the facts in the case are as reported he should receive the fullest extent of the law.

LATER—Hart was convicted and sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary. Chambers, who was arrested near Pendleton and taken to Baker City, plead guilty to the charge of larceny of a horse and got five years. The sheriff of Baker passed through town on Wednesday bound for Salem with these prisoners.

MARRIED—WHEELER—In Walla Walla, Oct. 12th, 1880, at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, by Rev. H. W. Egan, John L. Sharpstein to Miss Edna Sweeney.

DECEASED—At the residence of his parents on Bitter Creek, Sammy, infant son of Benj. F. and Mary Selling, aged six months.
