Letter of Fred'k Billings President of the N. P. R. R. to Henry Villard.

[Last week we published the suggestions of the O. R. & N. Co. Our readers will be interested in the views of if Mr. Billings, to be found in the letter w below. By comparing the two docu- to ments it will be seen the views presented are at variance only on a single point. Mr. Villard suggests that the Northern Pacific postpone all new construction west of Wallula, until the doubled because within the limits of the grant. The people would say just the grant or both, as the best interests of the company may require. Mr. Billings answers, in substance, that he does not wish to consent to postpone construction of the western division of the worthern Pacific.
