

The East Oregonian.

L. B. COX, Editor.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1881.

WE STAND FIRM.

The genius of the Tribune seems to have been concentrated in its last issue in an effort to demolish us for what we had to say the week previous concerning the James boys. We regret the waste of so much valuable time and space on its part, for the "effort" has not disconcerted us in the least. The Tribune is mistaken when it imagines that we have taken a "new departure"—we shall continue in the future as well as in the past, to speak out our sentiments boldly, without the slightest regard as to whether they coincide with public opinion or not. Now the matter of the James boys was going the rounds of the press and when it came our turn to speak we spoke. We did not expect much company in our views, for we have never seen any journal take the same ground, although some of them at heart, perhaps, coincide with us, and we are not disappointed that we seem to stand alone. We have nothing to do with the defense of the Younger brothers or Billy the Kid, nor do we "champion the cause" of these men, as is stated in the Polk county Itemizer, in the sense of abetting future outrages. We distinguish the case of the James boys from that of all other outlaws. Before either of them had ever shed a drop of human blood their step-father was hung by a gang of ruffians and one of themselves beaten until he was left for dead. The first outrage was committed against the James boys and not by them—a fact which the Tribune overlooks. We do not sustain them in all of their transactions by any means, as we stated before. We do not approve of their robberies or the killing of innocent men, and only excuse it on the ground that it has, in a sense, necessarily fastened itself upon their object of retaliation. Our position is simply this—we admit that the James brothers have committed crimes which would be unpardonable were they without excuse, but they were urged on by a provocation which overbalances their transgressions. They were made what they are, and the best evidence of this is the fact that they have the sympathy of a large and respectable element of the citizenship of Missouri. We would be glad to see them discontinue their operations for the future, but as to past transactions we stand flat-footed on every word we wrote two weeks ago.

GIVE US AN ORGAN.

The Democracy of this State need a mouth-piece and can never hope to effect anything without one. They will be called upon next spring to enter into a political contest involving the election of a Governor, Congressman and United States Senator. It must be patent to everyone at what a disadvantage they are taken without an organ in Portland to compete with the Oregonian. This thing of going into a fight without such an expounder of our cause and its principles, is very much like an Indian going to war without his whoop—a still hunt may do well enough for some sort of game, but it seldom wins an office. With all the talent, wealth and position of the Democrats in this State, it is not only a reproach to themselves but an imputation upon the Republicans that we have no representative paper. If it is so, however, that the State of Oregon cannot furnish a competitor for Scott, let us import one. If the proper enterprise is exhibited the foundation of a good paper can easily be laid. Every county in the State we believe would average a donation of a thousand dollars for this object—we know one gentleman in this town who offered a few years ago to give that sum for such a purpose. The rest would be readily supplied by capitalists as a business enterprise. A journal commanding the respect and patronage of the people would be worth hundreds of votes to the Democracy in any election, and in a state as evenly balanced as Oregon it is a shame that they are without one. Multnomah county may be said to hold the balance of power in the State and there we are the weakest—where the hardest fight is to be made. It is time to establish such a journal yet before the coming contest is upon us, and it will be a burning desire if something in that direction is not done. We hope to see early, earnest and united action on this subject.

DR. TANNER, the idiot who lately fasted forty days or was said to have done it, has now undertaken to go without food for ninety days. The fool killer must have gone to Arkansas.

NOTICE TO BOOK AGENTS.

(PARTICULARLY THOSE OF THE FEMALE PERSUASION.)

A misconception of our needs seems to have gone out into the world and to save future time, trouble and money we will make a correction. We don't want any books. We have everything in our library from Don Quixote to a Chinese immigration report, or from Byron's "Dream" to "My Grandfather's Clock." We have read every piece of poetry that has been written from Homer's "Iliad" to the "Arkansas Traveler." We think Bryant is a fraud, that Tennyson has no more sentiment than a wooden Indian cigar sign, and that Byron is as destitute of pathos as a buzz-saw. Besides this we never read poetry. We are a walking statistical encyclopedia and don't need any works on this branch of science. We know the history of the world from the building of the Pyramids of Egypt down to the surrender of Sitting Bull. We are so well versed in the geography of the country that we can give the population of every city on earth from Pekin down to Umatilla Landing, the height of every mountain from Mount Chimborazo down to Dollymount, the length and depth of every river from the Nile and Amazon down to Wild Horse creek. We are acquainted with all the heavenly bodies from the sun-dog to the star-fish. We know the species of every bird and beast that infests the earth and their habits. We also know the depth of water the whale that swallowed Jonah swam in. We repeat a chapter of the Koran every morning for diversion and rehearse one of Cicero's orations every night before going to bed. We speak forty-nine different languages. We converse in the Arabic tongue during the week and in "Chinook" on Sundays for a variation. We don't want any books—we came from Missouri and can't read. We further warn all itinerant maculine bipeds of this profession that we keep a "navy six" in our table drawer and a cross dog chained to the leg thereof. As for talking to a woman we would rather be hung up by the thumbs, scalped, barbecued and cremated than do it. In addition to this we have no money to pay for a book if we were to buy one. We have got the whooping-cough and are dead sure to give it to any one who comes about us.

THE CREDIT SYSTEM.

The bane of this country is the intolerable habit people have gotten into of dealing on credit so extensively as is the custom. It is the blight of every branch of trade. When a man does a piece of work or sells an article he is expected, so it seems, to wait a year or more for his money and when this time expires the creditor in many instances has to discount his bill or pay a portion of it to an attorney for collecting the balance. It is often harder work to secure money after it is earned than it is to earn it. All classes are subject to this criticism—one almost as much so as another,—but we think if there is any difference the farming element of our country is more especially open to this reproach. For past action we do not at all mean to condemn our farmer friends, as a class, for we regard them in all communities as the bone and sinew of the land and we know that in too many cases necessity has forced them into this practice against their will. Now, however, since nature has granted them such abundant crops, there is scarcely one of them that cannot get square with the world—and after getting square their aim should be to hold the ground thus acquired. It is better for themselves and all others that this loose way of doing business should be abandoned and we hope to see a reform inaugurated that will go through all classes of men. There are some individuals who would buy an elephant or a kangaroo if they could get it on time, but they are always in the mire. The man who deals on a cash basis is master of the situation.

GUITEAU, the assassin, made a deadly assault on one of his guards with a knife on the 17th inst. By a desperate resistance, in which he drew his pistol, the guard escaped injury. The pistol was discharged in the melee but unfortunately no damage was done. Guiteau was laboring under intense excitement caused by the impression that the President had died. It is a mystery where he got the knife.

A MAN by the name of Jack McKinzie was killed in Walla Walla last Friday evening. He was endeavoring to stop a runaway team, but being in an intoxicated condition stumbled and was struck in the head by the knee of one of the running horses. His skull was crushed and neck broken causing instant death.

GEN. HANCOCK will command the troops at the coming Yorktown celebration.

THE PRESIDENT.

We have the following dispatch concerning the President's condition today:

[Special telegram to the E. O.]
PORTLAND, Ogn., Aug. 25th, 10:45 A. M.
The President is no better to-day. His nausea is gone but the swelling in his neck has had to be lanced and is discharging pus. His fever is higher. Blaine says anxiety is increased.

From the above it is plain that there is no concealing the fact that intelligence of the President's death may be expected at any hour. There seems to be but little hope of averting the calamity.

A SERIES of lectures are being delivered here nightly by one Dr. J. L. York, self styled "the Ingersoll of the West." We did not attend the performances and hence will not attempt to criticize them. We do say, however, that we have no sympathy for the lecturer or his cause. Others may do as seems best to them, but it appears strange to us that the public should give such encouragement to every itinerant humbug that comes along. When we see a man, or woman, afraid to earn a livelihood by honest labor, but attempting to obtain it by an appeal to charity in return for a lot of "cheap John" garbage, it looks to us like a bad sign. We don't want anything to do with such individuals.

THE jury in the case of the State of Oregon vs. J. G. Robeson charged with the murder of J. D. Robb, at Astoria, last winter, failed to agree and on last Saturday night were discharged by the court. There was quite an array of legal talent interested in the case, the prosecution being conducted by District Attorney Caples assisted by Messrs. Mulkey, of Portland, Fulton of Astoria and Humphrey of Albany, while the prisoner was defended by Messrs. Hill, Thompson, Bingham, Belling and Gearin.

TRULY is it said corporations have no souls. We received a consignment of paper this week from San Francisco. The freight charges from that city to Portland were three dollars and ninety cents—from Portland to Umatilla the O. R. & N. Co.'s freight amounted to twenty-one dollars and thirty cents. This corporation rules the country with an iron rod indeed.

The largest yield of oats per acre is reported by Allen Embree, one of Hon. County Commissioners. He cleaned up an average of ninety-eight bushels to the acre, machine measure, and thinks a little care would have brought the figures up to one hundred. Who can beat it?—Columbia Chronicle.

As may be seen by the announcement made in our heading, Mr. C. S. Jackson is the financial manager of the E. O. That is, all who have claims against the paper must settle with him—all against whom the paper has claims may settle with any of the firm. Our foreman thinks "the altar" is a fit heading for all matrimonial scrapes. Whether he regards the participants in the light of innocent lambs, being sacrificed as in the days of yore, or not, we will not undertake to say. He has been there himself and can give his experience.

A FRIENDLY suggestion, well meant, should be kindly taken. The Washington Independent marks its good qualities by execrable presswork. The last issue was almost illegible. It's publisher should not do himself such an injustice.

MAUNA LOA, the great volcano of the Hawaiian Islands is in active operation, and the town of Hilo is in imminent danger of being engulfed by melted lava. It is a great center of attraction for tourists.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.

Health and beauty—how to secure them.—Female Regularity.
Beauty is as indispensable to the happiness of woman, as health is to her existence, the loss of charms being regarded as a greater affliction than death itself. Holloway's Pills and Ointment have done more towards preserving it and relieving the various disorders incidental to the sex, than all other advertised medicines united. Thousands of lovely females have their constitutions ruined and beauty blighted by gastric disorders, pernicious stimulants and poisonous lotions. The mild, soothing, and restorative influence of Holloway's great internal and external remedies in all complaints of women, are now generally admitted, whether in the Spring-time of womanhood, or in the Autumn, or turn of life.
IMPORTANT CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the signature of J. H. HOLLOWAY surrounds each box of pills and ointment. Boxes at 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 each.
There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.
