

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last about noon, a little girl of Mat Taylor's undertook to get a drink of water out of Byers & Co's mill race where it enters the culvert opposite J. K. Bean's house. By some mishap the little one lost its balance and fell into the water. The force of the current drew it out of sight, and although the accident was discovered as soon as it happened nothing could be done to save it. A large crowd of people assembled and every effort was made to recover the child's body but for a long while without success. The water runs with great force through the passage, which is some 400 feet in length, and entirely fills it. The flood gates were immediately shut down but some two hours elapsed before the water had subsided sufficiently to allow any one to enter the aperture. Several parties ventured in as soon as possible but soon came out, being unable to make headway. Finally one of the Love boys made his way through and reported that he had found the child's body but was unable to reach it, being on the opposite side of the ditch. Charley Henderson then entered the culvert at its lower end and made his way through bringing the child's body with him. Both Love and Henderson were almost exhausted when they got out. Mat Taylor was in Walla Walla at the time of the sad occurrence but his wife was present and almost heartbroken at the loss of her child.

BUSINESS GROWING.—Some idea of the great increase in real estate transactions in this county may be gained from an inspection of the deed records. Book "A," the smallest of the set, last set from March 14, 1861 to Nov. 8, 1871, "B" from 1871 to 1875, "C" from 1875 to 1878, "D" from September, 1878, to December, 1879, "E" from January 1, 1880 to January 1, 1881, while during the last year book "F" entirely and 574 pages of book "G" have been filled.

CLEAVES! CLEAVES!—Frank Cleaves is in town with a full theatrical troupe and will give nightly entertainments during the session of Court at Liberty Hall. No one should miss this opportunity of enjoying the finest performances exhibited in Pendleton for years. Mr. Cleaves has been here before and gave universal satisfaction every night. He is no fraud.

CHANGING AGENCIES.—J. H. Raley has sold the new drug store to Tom Robbins. The latter has sold his interest in the firm of Robbins & Houser, butchers, to C. B. Wade. So goes the world—every body made a good trade and all happy.

INSANE.—The Walla Walla Union says that Jacob Bruner (or Burner, as the name properly is) has been sent to the insane asylum at Steilacoom. He is the man who occasioned so much mysterious speculation in this county recently.

NO BURGLARS ADMITTED.—J. M. Leezer has made for the ware house of Alexander & Frazer a set of iron doors, proof against both fire and burglars. Parties wishing duplicates would do well to call and examine these.

LOST.—At the hall of the Liberty Hall Association on Dec. 23d, a cameo carrying set in gold. The finder will render a great favor by returning the same to this office.

PLEASANT EVENT.—From the accounts we have received of the La-Grande masquerade, we gather that it was a great success and must have given universal satisfaction.

DEDICATION SERVICE.—The Baptist Church of this place will be dedicated on next Sunday morning. Several distinguished divines from abroad will participate in the services.

ABJURED.—On account of the conflicting session of Circuit Court, County Court has adjourned to meet on Jan. 10th.

PERSONALS.

We notice in attendance on Circuit Court this week his Honor, E. L. McArthur and Hon. J. K. Weatherford of Albany, Messrs. Caton & Crowley and J. H. Lanter of Walla Walla, M. Baker and R. J. Slater of LaGrande, W. S. Crawford and S. V. Knox of Weston, in addition to the local bar.

Mr. R. Alexander has a letter from "Red" Lobenstein written from Mississippi. "Red" says he will be home by March 1st. With characteristic generosity he wrote Aleck to put him down for $10 for the Heppner people, but we are glad to say they do not now need it.

The young ladies from St. Paul's school, who spent some of their Christmases with us and contributed towards making the time pass so pleasantly, left for Walla Walla on Tuesday morning last. The gentleman from Sandy Bottom says he feels "awful lonesome."

Mr. William Cox of Birch Creek was in town Tuesday last and told us he had hauled over 100,000 feet of lumber to Sharon & Co's planing mill and the mountains this summer and was 60 years old that day. Who can beat that?

W. S. Goodman, Esq., from "the upper country" dropped in on us for a pleasant visit the other day. Likewise J. L. Killian, Esq., of Helix.

We acknowledge the receipt of the card of A. F. Farler of the Nez Perce Reservation. We regret our absence at the time of his call.

Morris Abbott has retired from the force of the E. O. and Carly Bull is once more at his old post as foreman.

W. J. Snodgrass and Daniel Chaplin, Esqrs., of LaGrande are in Pendleton attending court.

A CARD.

I desire to publicly thank through the paper, as I cannot see all parties personally, those persons who rendered such kind and generous assistance on Tuesday last in the matter of recovering the body of my little girl. Their services and liberality as well as their sympathy in our affliction, are fully appreciated by myself and wife and will ever be gratefully remembered.

THE GREAT BALL.—The grand masquerade ball of the Knights of Pythias and firemen came off in Liberty Hall according to programme on Dec. 28th and was a complete success in every particular. The vast room was filled to its utmost capacity and the scene was one never to be forgotten. There were, perhaps, 70 masked couples on the floor in every style and variety of costume. The music was good and the supper at Dave Horn's just tip-top—the tables before broken in upon presented a spectacle which would cheer the heart of the most fastidious.

We have been kindly furnished with a list of the ladies' costumes as follows: Mary Hopper, Tambourine Girl; Jessie Lindsey, Pocahontas; Nellie Barger, Shepherdess; Mrs. Dunphy, Red Riding Hood; Mrs. Baker, Turkish Lady; Mrs. W.
