

BILLS NOW PASSED

LIST OF THOSE THAT RUN THE GAUNTLET.

Eastern Oregon's Legislators Have Introduced Some of the Most Important Measures of the Session. Bills Passed by the Senate. S. B. 1, by Marston—To provide for death sentences at state penitentiary. Passed January 27.

JUST IN NEW BOOKS

One of My Sons—Anda Katherine Green. The Blue Flower—Henry Van Dyke. Cecilia—F. Marion Crawford.

FRAZIER'S

Book and Stationery Store

NEWS OF MILTON

YES WHITE'S CHILDREN HAVE THE SMALLPOX. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McMillin Visiting in California—Seige of Scarlet Fever—Schools in Good Condition in Districts 10 and 83—Many Real Estate Transfers—James Boisee Dead.

CARRIED ON AT UNION IS MOST SATISFACTORY.

Professor Letenby Thinks $20,000 Appropriation Sufficient for All Purposes. In reply to the East Oregonian's inquiry in regard to the needs and purposes of the Eastern Oregon Experiment Station for the next two years.

JUDGE ELLIS DISPOSES OF SEVERAL CASES.

John Ferry Given Eighteen Months in the Penitentiary—Ed Osborne Remanded to the Reform School. Judge Ellis, of the circuit court, this morning disposed of some cases which had been called in the jury session.

SNOW 15 FEET DEEP.

W. F. Murray came down from the Greenhorn district yesterday and will remain until next May. He got out of the Greenhorn country just in time to get out at all probably, as the snow here was 15 feet deep when he left.

DIED IN MISSOURI.

The North Missourian, published at Gallatin, Mo., in issue of Jan. 20, says: "The little son of W. W. Harrat, who arrived here from Pendleton, Ore., died Sunday, Jan. 25, of scarlet fever."

RESUMES HER PLACE.

Miss Erza Benson has returned from Portland, where she has been ill ever since the holidays, and unable until now to resume charge of her room in the public schools—the second grade in the old Academy building.

EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES.

The measles are still epidemic around Milton. The Powers and Hughes families and the family of Fred Seerrey are said to be afflicted.

DANCE IN GERMAN HALL.

Dance in German Hall, at Middle Cold Springs Friday evening, February 6, will be a good time assured.

A PECULIAR CASE

WOMAN FROM SEATTLE THROWS TICKET AWAY. Laborer Under the Hallucination That She Was Being Sent to Lincoln, Neb., by the Wrong Route.

When train No. 2 arrived at Echo last Saturday evening, a woman passenger who was traveling through the country to Lincoln, Nebraska, threw away her ticket and went to the station.

OPERATION SUCCESSFUL.

Mrs. Mortenson was operated on last week in Walla Walla for cancer. Mrs. Terwilliger, who was removed to the hospital about 10 days ago, was operated on the same day.

TO RETIRE FROM BUSINESS.

D. J. Phelps, on account of poor health, has concluded to retire from business and sell his goods at a greatly reduced price, in order to dispose of them quickly.

PIONEER DEAD.

James Boisee, an old pioneer of this county, died at the home of Millard Davis, three miles below Freewater, at four o'clock on Thursday.

HIDDEN TREASURES.

The Western mystery scale to our minds the time when Mr. Hensell, of Weston, with a few members of the Commercial Club, armed with the proper implements, marched into this little burg and tried to locate a hole to get some of the "hidden treasures."

GEORGE CASE SELLS OUT.

Has Farmed at Cold Springs for Twenty-Two Years—Moves to Pendleton. George Case, who has farmed the Hingebach place, 13 miles northwest of Pendleton, in the Cold Springs neighborhood, for twenty-two years, has sold a public sale of his farming implements, livestock and other personal property, on January 23.

PRICE OF BUTTER.

Drouth Last Year Caused Many to Go Out of the Dairy Business. Mr. Dick, of East Hill, reports that he has been occupied by Will Steen and J. B. Hogart for nearly a year.

ON EAST OREGONIAN FORCE.

Well Known Newspaper Man Accepts Position of Circulation Agent. Fred Lockley, Jr., of Salem, the well-known correspondent and writer, who has been connected with the Northwest Journal of this city, the Far West Journal of Astoria, and the Homestead of Salem, and whose interesting descriptive letters and pioneer sketches in the Oregon Daily Journal have been widely copied in the Northwest, has accepted the position of circulation agent on the East Oregonian and is now in charge.

DEMAND FOR FARMING LANDS.

J. Hudemann, of Warren, was in town Saturday. He reports about the same acreage of winter wheat in that neighborhood as last year. The wheat is looking well, but is small, because it made such a small fall growth, and has only grown during the winter.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A team belonging to Chris Beauchamp, which was standing in front of the second-hand store, became frightened at a board that fell down near it, and started down Main street about as lively as it could go, but owing to the thinness of the team and the depth of the mud, it did not go very far.

HEREFORDS AND DURHAMS.

E. F. Harney, from Upper McKay Creek, was in town yesterday trading. Mr. Harney is a stockman. He reports the tendency of the cattle raisers in his part of the county is to run to Hereford and Durham cattle exclusively, and there is scarcely a bovine to be seen anywhere that is not a grade of one or the other or both of those families.

SCHOOL AT UNION.

The school at Union, which was reported closed on account of the measles, did not close, but is still progressing, though the attendance is small on account of the measles. Miss Lulu Keller is teacher.

THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

IT PAYS TO TRADE AT THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE.

REMNANTS REMNANTS

We place on sale Monday and Tuesday all the Remnants left from our Clearance Sale. Everything in Remnants will be sold at half price.

Table with 3 columns: Children's Union Suits, Ladies' Union Suits, A Broken Lot of Children's Underwear. Prices: 25c, 50c, 14c, 29c, 10c.

The Peoples Warehouse, Pendleton, Oregon. Agents for Butterick's Patterns. Mail orders filled promptly. Send for samples.

A FEW BARGAINS

7 room house with bath room, wood shed, cellar, good lawn with shade trees, on Lincoln street, near Bluff. A snap for $1300. Two seven-room place on West Alta street. Two lots, good residence. Only $2500.

BRIDGES REBUILT.

Travel has been resumed over the bridges over Greenwood Gorge, all those having been rebuilt which had been taken out, and those repaired, which were in poor condition.

CHEAP RATES WESTBOUND.

From February 15 to April 30, 1903, inclusive, the O. R. & N. Co. will have on sale tickets from Missouri River points to Portland for $25.00 from St. Paul $25.00; from St. Louis, $27.50. Call on the O. R. & N. ticket agent for full particulars.

AN EYE-OPENER

In the morning, loosen an elastic strap, buoyant spirits and success through the day. GYRUS NOBLE BOURBON AND RYE.

LEGAL BLANKS

Write the East Oregonian for a free catalogue of them. A full supply always kept in stock.

THE GOODS MUST GO!

Great Retiring From Business Sale. Not a single article in the entire stock reserved. I have decided to retire from business and everything that remains of my stock will be gotten rid of at the earliest possible date.

COST IS NOT CONSIDERED IN MARKING DOWN THE PRICES

The main idea is to get rid of the stock. The sale is on rugs, matting, curtains, portiers, floor linoleum, framed and unframed pictures, mirrors, wall paper and hosts of other articles.

SPECIAL

I have just received some exquisite latest patterns of Oriental rugs and Arabian lace curtains which go with the rest.

SEWING MACHINES

Every Sewing Machine in my stock has been marked down to such a low figure as to make them sell. My carpets and undertaking business I disposed of to Baker & Folsom and the slaughter has been made on all that remains.

JESSE FAILING

MAIN STREET, NEAR BRIDGE