ON THE COLUMBIA THE STATE'S WEALTH

SIGHTS THAT GREET THE WONDERING TRAVELER. Locks at the Cascades and their Great Cost—Immense Volumes of Traffic That Pass Down This Waterway.

Columbia River, Feb. 9.—The traveler journeying up the Columbia has a choice of two routes. If he is in a hurry he can take the railway; if he is not he can take the water route. The latter is the more desirable one for it is not only more comfortable but it is also more economical. The water route is the one that is taken by the majority of the people who travel up the river.

Trasny Literature.

It is strange, how particular some people are about who handles their mail. A few days ago we stood by the general delivery window in a store and saw a man who was waiting for his mail. He was very particular about the person who would handle his mail.

THE TAX SALE.

Large Amount of Land Bid in by the County.

The tax sale, the first under the present law governing the subject, was held this forenoon, as advertised. A large quantity of the land advertised, that which was not wanted by private individuals either for holding or speculation, was bid in by the county at 10 per cent interest from the present owners in case of redemption.

Swine Plague.

J. Christie, the veterinarian, says the swine plague has resumed operations around Athena and Weston, those being the only localities in the county where the disease has put in an appearance this season. Two farmers in that part of the county killed and skinned down several hogs with probably no thought of anything being wrong with the animals.

Will Duplicate Her Ticket.

It has been concluded, in view of her improved condition of mind, not to take steps to legally inquire into the sanity of Mrs. Ida Poole. The railroad company will duplicate her transportation from Pendleton to Lincoln, Neb., and as it arrives at Adams, it will be started on her eastward journey.

Feed Choppers.

W. L. Purcell and L. N. Smith, of Holdman, have recently built a house 24x30 feet in size for the housing of their feed choppers and grinder. The plant has a capacity of two and a half tons per hour and is in operation.

Six Inches of Snow.

A. Ruppe, of Pleasant View, states that six inches of snow fell on there on a level, and that it was of great value to the crops. Mr. Ruppe spent Saturday and Sunday in the snow with his family, who are living here during the school year. One of his children attends the high school, and the two Academy.

Burial of Mrs. Pickering.

The funeral of Mrs. Pickering was held this afternoon in Baker & Folsom's undertaking parlors. Rev. Robert Wagner officiated. Frank Ogan, of Tacoma, a brother of the deceased, arrived yesterday and this morning purchased a lot in Olney cemetery, in which his sister was interred.

One of the most thriving and progressive literary societies in the country is at Sand Hollow, three and a half miles from Adams. It meets with unfailing regularity every Friday night and almost invariably the house is crowded.

Accidentally Shot.

Elmer Schell, of Huron, while attempting to kill a coyote Saturday evening was accidentally shot through the left hand with a .38-caliber revolver, inflicting a serious wound. The ball passed through the hand from a point near the union of the little finger in the palm and came out near the wrist joint. The wound was dressed Sunday by Dr. Cole, and it is doing very well considering the length of time that elapsed before the wound was attended to.

Buys Umattila County Land.

Charles Parris, of this city, has sold his Umattila county ranch, near Helix, to Lewis Huson, of that place, the consideration being $3000.—Walla Walla Union.

TEACHERS TO MEET

INLAND EMPIRE ASSOCIATION TO HOLD SIXTH ANNUAL. Many Noted Educators to Gather at Walla Walla—E. Benjamin Andrews, of Nebraska, to Deliver Two Addresses.

The Inland Empire Teachers' Association is now making elaborate preparations for the sixth annual meeting to be held in Walla Walla, April 16, 17, 18, 1903.

This association was organized in Spokane in December, 1896, and has held meetings successively at Pullman, Walla Walla, Pendleton, Moscow and Spokane. Its membership includes all the leading educators of the Northwest and the former meetings of the association have been largely attended by teachers from each state represented.

At the Spokane meeting last April 400 teachers were present, and the management is now assured of an attendance equal to, or larger than this, at Walla Walla in April.

Among the well known teachers and educational workers to be present are the following: J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent of Oregon; J. A. McLean, president of the Idaho State Teachers' Association; J. F. Saylor, superintendent of city schools of Spokane; W. C. Beach, professor of Political Economy at the University of Washington; J. A. McLean, president of the Idaho State Teachers' Association; J. F. Saylor, superintendent of city schools of Spokane; W. C. Beach, professor of Political Economy at the University of Washington.

It is possible that A. Rhode, the cigar maker, will remove his factory into the rear rooms of the cigar store about to be opened by Botcher & Clark.

J. W. Maloney, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, has returned from Hood River, where he went to attend the fourth district convention of the order.

C. H. Rosenberg, of Falton, is in the city today. Mr. Rosenberg has in 600 acres of wheat and all of it is in fine condition, as is all the wheat in his part of the county.

Charles L. Parris has sold to Lewis Huson for $5,000, the southwest quarter of section 32, township 4 N., range 32 E. The property lies 14 miles northwest of Pendleton.

William Yoshika, who lives nine miles west of the city, is building a residence which he expects to occupy by the middle of March. He has also begun the erection of a new barn.

Lewis Huson has bought of Alvin W. Grover, the consideration being $125, a described fraction of section 11, township 4 N., range 32 E. The property lies in the 7-1/2 mile of the town of Helix.

Judge John H. Scott, of Marion county, stopped off last evening and called on some of his old friends. Judge Scott is en route to Detroit, Mich., to attend the National Good Will Convention.

W. L. Purcell, of Holdman, was in town Saturday. He reports the wheat as being so far in first-class condition all over that neighborhood. He himself has in 160 acres, and would have in twice that acreage had not the ground frozen up on him before he could get it all in.

A BRIEF BROADSIDE.

No. 7 Meets a Squall on Blue Mountains Between This City and Walla Walla. Saturday evening No. 7, the Spokane passenger train due here at 8:30 a.m. was delayed by a heavy snow storm which was blown up the mountain and down the valley.

SENIOR ANKENY'S RECEPTION.

Walla Walla Tendered Her Distinguished Citizen a Cordial Greeting. Walla Walla, Feb. 9.—A splendid reception was tendered Senator and Mrs. Ankeny at Odd Fellows' hall Saturday night, that being the first opportunity the people of Walla Walla had of expressing their appreciation of the victory gained by Mr. Ankeny at the legislature in the final settlement of the senatorial struggle.

The large hall was handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and potted plants and an immense arch had been constructed under which Mr. and Mrs. Ankeny received their friends.

Early in the evening great throngs of people crowded the hall, and for two hours the crush was almost unbearable. Thousands of people passed the rich and greeted the new senator and his wife as they entered the room. Music was served and the Ninth cavalry orchestra furnished music. When the crowd had dispersed to a certain extent dancing was indulged in until midnight.

AT GREAT EXPENSE.

Smallpox Cost Walla Walla Nearly $10,000 in January. Walla Walla, Feb. 9.—Smallpox cost Walla Walla nearly $10,000 during January, and but for a severe criticism of bills by the council the amount would have been much greater. A large number of cases were treated at the pest house, and but a small percentage of the cases in the city were heard of at the detention hospital. The expense for the month was the largest yet contracted, and the council is at a loss to know what to do to clear the city of the disease.

Early in the morning the pest house occupied by the city assumes no part of the expense where a party is quarantined at a private house.

Registered Stock.

B. F. Flathers, of Prescott, Walla Walla county, went through Pendleton Saturday with three head of registered Hereford cows, a calf and a bull, from the ranch of George Chandler, of Baker City. All the animals are thoroughbred. Mr. Flathers paid $250 for the cow and calf and $125 for the bull. The latter animal is eight months old and is said to be one of the finest thoroughbred Herefords in this part of the state. Mr. Flathers now owns 20 registered Herefords and 600 head of grades. Mr. Flathers came to Southwestern Washington in 1860 from California, where he had lived six years, and to which state he immigrated from Kentucky.

Assaulted His Wife.

In Judge Pittz Gerald's court this afternoon James Rattagan is being tried on the charge of assaulting his wife with a pick, threatening to take her life and otherwise making life a burden to her.

Cost of Orphans.

The trustees under the will of the late Joseph Stubbfield have in addition to the list previously reported received a response from the commission of King county in regard to the number and care of orphans in that county. Twenty-eight children are county charges, supported at an average cost of $9 each. However, there are 120 abandoned children being longed to King county which are now at the Washington Children's Home.—Walla Walla Union.

BREVITIES.

O. J. Adams took the morning train to Adams. Mrs. Hattie Powers, of Weston, visited yesterday in the city. S. A. Maloney will go to Weston to the depot here this evening. The depot for the county farm, recently purchased, was filed today. Sid Seldin, plain drunk, was fined $5 in the police court this morning.

A. B. Cooley, of Holdman, is building a grain warehouse that will hold 10,000 sacks. The general secretary of the Inland Empire Teachers' Association is expected home soon.

Rev. D. E. George, of Freewater, accompanied by his wife, was in town yesterday. They went to Watsburg this morning.

John S. Bahr, of Fulton, who has been in hospital for his health for some weeks, is expected home soon.

It is possible that A. Rhode, the cigar maker, will remove his factory into the rear rooms of the cigar store about to be opened by Botcher & Clark.

Great Retiring From Business Sale

Not a single article in the entire stock reserved. I have decided to retire from business and everything that remains of my stock will be gotten rid of at the earliest possible date.

Cost is Not Considered in Marking Down the Prices

The main idea is to get rid of the stock. The sale is on rugs, matting, curtains, portiers, floor linoleum, framed and unframed pictures, mirrors, wall paper and hosts of other articles.

SPECIAL I have just received some exquisite latest patterns of Oriental rugs and Arabian lace curtains which go with the rest.

SEWING MACHINES Every Sewing Machine in my stock has been marked down to such a low figure as to make them sell.

My carpets and undertaking business I disposed of to Baker & Folsom and the slaughter has been made on all that remains.

The sale is now in progress. First come first served.
