General Slump in the Hide and Pelt Market—Nothing Doing in Grain, Which Will Be Dead Till Harvest—Interesting Notes on the General Situation.

The local market this week is a little mixed. Green hides have gone down along by the side of strawberries, while lots of green things good to eat have come in to gladden the palates of the people.

The tendency of the hide market is downward and uncertain. Green beef pelts have dropped from 5 1/2c to 4c and not much buying is being done at that figure. Sheep pelts are on the down grade and the men who want to buy are afraid of the speculation.

Strawberries are on the drop, and will go still lower. They are now 15c per box, a fall of 50 per cent in one last week and will be much lower by Saturday.

The feature of the market this week is the appearance of asparagus, radishes, green onions and cabbage. These things have come in at an easy price and will soon be too common to provoke the palate.

Wheat has not changed in the last week. Looking back, it is too late; looking forward, it is too early to expect a change. At this time there is practically no exportation, and the miller fixes the price. In the early season, when wheat is moving, the exporter sets the figure, but just before the new crop, when the demand is slack, the mill men have a monopoly on the trade and pay what they want.

The Wheat Trade.
Portland, May 14.—Wheat markets are very dull; there is nothing transpiring of any consequence. Some demand for Seneca wheat exists, for Eastern shipment, but there is very little of that. We have a few vessels on spot loading and several more due for this season's loading. Stocks in the country are pretty well cleaned up, as to large parcels, but considerable grain remains in farmers' hands yet, but all of it in small lots. Farmers are not willing to sell what they have on hand, preferring to wait and see if they will not get a few cents more than what is offered. At the present time there is no demand for wheat from any section of the globe, and exporters are not buyers, preferring to sell what they have on hand that amounts to considerable. Prices are without change and club is quoted at 71 cents; blue stem, 74, and valley, 75 cents per bushel. There is considerable new acreage sown to wheat in sections of Washington, that will be of a benefit to the state, as fall acreage shows a heavy decrease from a year ago, and the outlook at present is that the crops will be as large as that of 1932; it is too early to give an accurate forecast.

Flour.
The market for flour is not very active; it has been a quiet and unsatisfactory week, buyers abroad and sellers here wide apart in their views. There is very little going to California. The flour market at present is dull; some shipments are being made to Siberian ports, mostly on old orders. Jobbers here are not buying freely as most of them are well stocked up. Quotations range from $2.25 to $4 per barrel, and weak at that.

Shipping Rock to Pendleton.
George Kreiger is shipping several loads of rock to Pendleton, J. Blumenthal is superintending the unloading and the rocks are very good ones, many are from eight to 12 feet long.—La Grande Observer.

Poor Farm Affairs.
The county court spent today at the poor farm, where they went on their usual monthly tour of inspection. Plans for the improvement of the buildings are being considered, and also the project of the installation of a new pumping system.

Machine Telling Your Weight.
The famous Tallying machine has come to town and has taken a location in a local saloon. If you will step on the platform, count ten and drop a nickel in the slot, the machine will announce in a rich baritone, the exact number of pounds avoirdupois you possess.

New Delivery Wagon.
The Domestic Laundry has purchased an elegant new delivery wagon.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS WISNER IN CUSTODY

MEETING OF THE BOARD DOES NOTHING DEFINITE. Discusses the Question of Sites and Resources—Are a Unit in Favor of Retaining the High School.

The board of directors for the Pendleton public schools met in regular session last evening in Dr. C. J. Smith's office. After the routine work of the session was disposed of, the board discussed the question of increasing school house facilities. Nothing definite was done, as the matter is very hazy in perspective, and the action of the people in regard to the school question is very much in doubt.

Many of those who were opposed to the issuance of bonds at the last election are now agitating the abolition of the high school. They contend that should the high school be abolished there would be room for all the rest of the students in the building, made vacant in that manner.

As there is a director to be elected in June, and as the matter of the high school will then come up for discussion and disposal, the board has had to take any decided stand in the matter of increasing the seating capacity of the schools.

The term of Dr. C. J. Smith as a director, will expire in June and the election will be held to provide for his successor, and it is expected that the matter of the high school will be finally settled at that time. The issue, as a unit, is in favor of retaining the advanced grades in the present system, but in view of the agitation of the anti-bond people, the question is in doubt. When the situation has cleared some definite action will be taken, but whether the board will attempt to provide an entire new building or to simply authorize an addition to one of the present structures is not known.

Wool Markets.
Boston, May 14.—There has been a good demand for wool this week. Territory wool has been well bought. Fine staple wool is selling on the market at 52@53c, with fine at 50@52c. Good fine medium wool has sold at 47@48c, and medium at 45@46c. Idaho fine, 14@14 1/2c; fine medium, 15@15 1/2c; medium, 15@16c; Wyoming fine, 14@14 1/2c; fine medium, 15@15 1/2c; medium, 15@16c; Utah and Nevada fine, 14@14 1/2c; fine medium, 15@15 1/2c; medium, 14@14 1/2c.

FARMERS SWINDLED.
Traveling Salesmen Playing Smooth Confidence Games.

The farmers of Umatilla county are being swindled by several enterprising men who represent themselves as being in the employ of one or another of the wholesale grocery firms of Portland.

The men represent to the farmers that they are agents of some firm in Portland, which is desirous of enlarging its Eastern Oregon trade and that by buying their groceries of them they can get their supplies at wholesale rates and save the retailer's profit.

As a matter of fact, there are but five bona fide wholesale grocery firms in Portland, namely, Lang & Co., Allyn & Co., Ehrman & Co., Wadhams & Kerr Bros. and Wadhams & Co., and these firms absolutely refuse to sell to the retail trade under any circumstances. The fact is that these men in the country take orders of the farmers and then buy of the wholesalers in wholesale lots, that they make a good on their investment in selling to the farmer.

A farmer's wife in the vicinity of Pendleton, bought 50 pounds of Mountain Java coffee at 35 cents a pound, the men claiming that to be the wholesale price at Portland. Had the lady bought the same coffee in one pound lots for 25 cents in pounds or in bulk at 18 to 20 cents, thereby saving from $5 to $7.50. The people are warned to investigate before being swindled.

CLERKS WILL REORGANIZE.
Union to Be Put on a Working Basis for Social Ends Only.

The retail clerks of the city are going to have a social time and many festive occasions during the summer. A meeting of the union has been called for Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Painters' assembly hall, in the Despain building, at which time a reorganization will be effected and plans drawn for the first event of the series.

The union has not met for about 18 months, and it has been decided to be for the best interests of the clerks of the city that they reorganize. On Tuesday next officers will be elected and committees appointed to carry out the plans of those who are agitating the movement.

It is the intention of the union to give a series of summer dances, parties and picnics, to which the clerks and their friends are invited. The union is being reorganized as a social body and for the furtherance of the social interests of the members. It has about 60 members enrolled at the present time, and more are expected to be added to the list in the meetings soon to be held.

FROM LEHMAN SPRINGS.
C. R. Dutton Making Preparations for a Busy Season.

C. R. Dutton has just returned from Lehman Springs. He has five or six men at work reorganizing and repainting the buildings and cleaning up the grounds preparatory for the season which will soon open.

Mr. Dutton has charge of the telephone station there and will phone the daily news each day after June 10 to the East Oregonian. He will report daily the arrival of guests and all other news of interest. He is quite enthusiastic over the prospect of a large number of guests spending part of this season's vacation in addition to the beautiful location, nature has done much for Lehman Springs to make it a popular resort.

There are 15 springs some of them impregnated with minerals of medicinal value. One common feature of the springs is that within eight inches of a cold spring there bubbles up water so hot, that eggs can be boiled in it. The flow from the springs forms a large swimming pool which is a popular feature of the resort.

In addition to the 25 cabins, there is a large hotel with accommodations for 40 guests, and also a store, post-office, dancing hall and club room.

Ten Dollars Reward.
A brown mare, shod all round, with a white stripe in her face and wearing a saddle with a coat tied on behind, has strayed away from the vicinity of Gibbon station. Ten dollars reward will be paid for the return of the outfit to Henry Hill, Helix, Oregon.

Real Estate Transfers.
George D. Peebler and Julia Peebler, his wife, of Pendleton, today sold to John D. Peebler for $3,000, the southeast quarter of section 7, and the northeast quarter of section 18, township 3 north of range 31.

George D. Peebler and Julia Peebler, his wife, transferred to David A. Peebler, for $3,000, the southeast quarter of section 7, township 3 north of range 31, township 3 north of range 31.

William Clark and Mary Clark, his wife, sold for $4,200 to Ada Eagan the north half of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 25, in township 6 north of range 25 east, containing 20 acres of land, two miles north of Freewater.

REPORT ON SEWERS

ENGINEER G. N. MILLER SUBMITS INTERESTING DOCUMENT. Gives Detailed Account of Entire Sewer System—Size of Pipes and Depth of Sewers—Capacity and Methods of Discharging Sewage.

The following interesting extracts are taken from the report of Engineer G. N. Miller on Pendleton's sewer system:

"The drainage area embraced by my design, as indicated in the plans, contains in round numbers 500 acres and will, when properly improved, accommodate from 25,000 to 35,000 people.

The eight miles of sewers now proposed, at an approximate cost of $28,000, will drain the principal improved portions of this area, and as the growth of the city should demand, the sewers can be extended, so that when the whole area is secured a permanent system has been established.

Depth of Sewers.
"The average depth of the sewers throughout the larger portions of the city is from five to seven feet. The Alta street main, throughout the business district is designed for base-level drainage, the depth therefore being 12 feet.

"On streets with steep gradients the depth does not exceed five feet. It will carry off Roof Water.

"The sewers are calculated to be of sufficient capacity to carry besides the sewage, the roof water and the soil drainage from the basements. The admission of roof water to the sewers will flush the system thoroughly with each heavy rain.

The size of sewers vary in diameter from six to 20 inches, according to the carrying capacity required in each section. The central main along the O. R. & N. being 20 inches in diameter and having a capacity of discharging 6,000,000 gallons each 24 hours.

The most practical and economical method of disposing of sewage is to discharge it into the Umatilla river, where it will be diluted with the water carried away from the mouth of the river. The amount of sewage discharged into the river will not be sufficient to cause any offense for years to come.

Should the time ever arrive when the sewage would become offensive, it would be practicable to build an incinerator, the roof water and the soil drainage from the basements, where sewage disposal works could be established to purify the sewage before being discharged into the river. Another method of sewage disposal, which has been in use in Helena, Mont. for 15 years, is by local irrigation, the sewage being used on the O. R. & N. being 20 inches in diameter and having a capacity of discharging 6,000,000 gallons each 24 hours.

The conference meets annually and in connection with the work of the conference a camp meeting is held. To this meeting delegates are elected from every church in the conference and the work of the conference, transact all the business of the district. At this time the officers of the district are elected, the ministers receive their salaries and the general routine business is transacted.

The district now in conference here represents all of Oregon and Washington east of the Blue Range and the whole of Idaho and the churches are widely scattered over this territory.

The officers of the conference are: A. H. Bred, Colfax, Wash. president; Professor J. L. Kay, of Col lege Place, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee consists of Elders J. Bred, J. A. Holbrook, J. M. Willoughby, W. H. Saxby, T. L. Ragsdale, J. W. Posly and C. C. Lewis.

The church members from abroad in attendance are: Elders Knox and Snyder, of California; W. W. Prescott, the editor of the Register and Herald of Bellingham, Wash.; Elder G. Irwin, of Australia, and Henry Shultz, of Nebraska. Elmer M. Burg, of Portland, will also be in attendance.

The conference proper will begin tomorrow morning, at which time the routine business of the church will be taken up.

There are four service tents on the ground, one large one 70x100 feet for the general meetings, and one smaller, for the young people's meetings. The children also have a separate tent and there is a large tent in which services will be conducted in the German language.

There is a store and a dining room tent on the ground for the accommodation of the campers. The store is under the management of F. B. Steen, of Mill, and is not a money-making scheme, but simply a local depot for the convenience of those in attendance on the conference. All the supplies for the camp are being furnished by the board and visitors in attendance. The daily program to be observed by all campers and visitors is printed here. Daily reports of the meeting will be furnished throughout the meeting:
