Chicago Employers Organize a Strong Association and Select Permanent Headquarters-Reports of Suffering

in West Virginia Untrue. Chicago, May 21 .- At a meeting of employers, held today, Secretary Job, of the local Employers' Association, implored every merchant, manufacturer and other employer to join the association, which is formed to counteract the effects of the unions. He outlined plans for a national association and declared an active movement is on foot to defend capital against the constant encroachment of

When the employes of a firm demand an increase of wages, the employer will be required to submit the demands to an examination board, and their decision is to be accepted or rejected by its members. The employers present today received the plan enthusiastically and predict a perfect national body with-

Reports of Suffering Untrue. New York, May 21.-John Mitchell announced today that he had sum-moned the president of the Mineworkers from the anthracite fields to come here to confer with him regarding work as members of certed action committee which meets next week. It will clear up disputed points in the award of the anthracite commission. Mitchell says the reports of suffering among West Virginia strikers is untrue, as the Mineworkers are issuing funds. Non-Union Laborers Organize. Chicago, May 21.-Five hundred non-unionist Italians employed by the People's Gas Company to take the place of strikers, this morning struck and later organized a union. The Teamsters' Union threatens to strike in sympathy, thus shutting lown the plants supplying 60 per cent of Chicago's gas. Compromise in Chicago. Chicago, May 21 .- A settlement of the laundry strike is expected this afternoon. Committees representing the Laundry Workers' Union and the Federation of Labor, met this morning and made mutual concessions. The unions agree to withdraw their demands for recognition and unionizing, and have waived their demands for contracts preventing strikes. The agreement also grants the increased wages demanded. A committee was appointed to submit the proposals to the organizations, which meet this

Eight Thousand Men Expected to Out Today.

Indianapolis, May 19.-Vice-President Lewis, of the United Mineworkers, admitted this morning that a West Virginia strike order was issued last Thursday, to take effect today No information is yet received as to how many miners responded. Eight thousand men are involved.

Virtual Slavery in West Virginia. Indianapolis, May 19.-Editor Sexton, of the Miners' Journal, the office ial organ of the United Mineworkers at noon today says a condition of slavery exists among the miners of the Loup district in West Virginia and that the men are restrained of their liberty. He says if given at opportunity, the m.neworkers will show the United States marshal, also the judges of the United States courts know those conditions of slavery, but have taken no steps to stop them. He says the principles involved will bring the biggest fight the mine worker have yet encountered and that it will he fought to the end.

Strike is a Partial Failure. Charleston, W. Va., May 19.—Com paratively few miners in the nev river district responded to the United Mineworkers' strike, which was ordered, and the mines are running as who urged that repressive measures usual, but with reduced forces. The peculiar part of the situation is that it is next to impostible to get into the stockades at oup creek and New river to notify he miners employed there that a trike has been ordered. It is believd at union headquarters that habeas corpus proceedings will have to be brought in order to get word to any of their men. The editor of the Miners' Journal oday secured some of the wooden noney with which the miners of that listrict are paid. They are paid wooden money because if they es, cape from the stockades it would be porthless, so the miners' officials say. Thinks Bartenders Are All Right. Chicago, May 20 .- The bartenders, who allied with the Waiters' Union, and also were included in their demands when their demands were handed in to Organizer Fitsepatrick

"The bartenders are not to blame or being forced to work in their business, but wished they would strike to destroy every saloon and brewery in the country. Liquor is lasteak-from that he will actually get strength, while all he gets from whiskey is weakness and temporary insanity If he drinks for pleasure, he had better buy books and read them; if he drinks to forget his condition, he had better educate himself so he can improve it. Instead of making him forget bad conditions, whiskey and beer puts him in a worse one. Every city should have drinking fountains so the thirsty workman will not be Company With $50,000,000 Capitall. forced into the saloons to quench his thirst with something that makes him zation-Supposed to Presage an in- a fool and destroys his health.
