WORK OF PICKPOCKETS.

Pickpockets Touched Two Well-Known Pendleton Men. Many a man who went to Walla Walla yesterday came home with lighter pockets than he left.

F. P. Rounds, the mechanical foreman at the O. R. & N. roundhouse, and James McCloud, of Webb and Thompson streets, were both passengers on the excursion to see the president.

From the accounts given by Mr. Rounds the thieves must have reaped a harvest, for the gentleman saw 14 pocketbooks all ripped open.

SEWER CONTRACT CLOSED.

Work Must Be Completed by November or Forfeit Earned. The contract for the construction of the new sewer has been signed by the J. H. Sutherland company.

Another stipulation of the contract is that preference shall be shown Pendleton labor whenever and wherever possible.

The company is now busy gathering together its material and in a few days the work will be actually begun.

CAVALRY HORSES SCARCE.

Those Suitable Are Held at Too High a Figure for the Government. First Lieutenant W. Calvert, of the Second Cavalry for Walla Walla, was in the city yesterday in search of government horses for the cavalry service.

It is almost impossible to get horses for the cavalry service at the present time, as the market is very scarce.

Power of Labor. Karamsin, the Russian traveler, having observed Lavator's diligence in study, visiting the sick and relieving the poor, greatly surprised at his activity.

Chancellor Maloney's Record. Local club men have been feeling mighty chesty over their bowling records, but it remained for our esteemed grand chancellor of Pythianism, J. W. Maloney of Pendleton, to reduce this morbid exultation to the proportions of a trio of ten cent pieces.

Fatality at Walla Walla. A blacksmith named Olson, of Touchet, was killed at Walla Walla yesterday in a collision with a team.

A Sure Thing. It is said that nothing is sure except death and taxes, but that is not altogether true.

Had Charge of the Excursion. M. J. Buckley, the assistant superintendent of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company, is in the city today.

Mrs. David Ingram, of Birch creek, had an unpleasant experience yesterday. She left Pendleton on the morning train for Milton, where she expects to visit her uncle, R. T. Motzky, for a few days.

Mr. Ingram immediately phoned to Milton and had a team sent to him to his wife, and she arrived at her destination this afternoon.

Not blame is attached to the train crew, as they did not know anything of the train and knew nothing of the occurrence until informed today.

COMMERCE-TRADE

BUTTER CHEAPER, BUT EGGS HAVE ADVANCED 4 CENTS.

Strawberries Are Fluctuating and Uncertain—Tendency Toward Decline in Price of Live Hogs—Veal Has Advanced One Cent Per Pound for the Dressed Article.

The surface of the market list looks as though some small boy had hit it with a tack hammer a couple of times and then quit. A small hog has been punched in the head in two places and a lump raised here and there.

Butter has dropped from 40 to 30 cents per roll, while eggs have taken points and are down from 12 1/2 to 16 2/3 cents per dozen.

In live hogs there is a range of one hundred cents to the hundred pounds, and they have dropped in the market 25 cents on the hundred.

Where they were quoted at $6.00—$2.50—were they not a few days ago at $7.25. This is an uncertainty, however, this is an uncertainty, and not universal, and it is a little early for low prices anyway.

The Walla Walla berry is now in the market and is selling for 20c per box with plenty of buyers. The strawberry market will remain at least medium until the Hood River and Milton crops begin to move, then everyone can have shortage three times a day.

With this growing weather veal has advanced a cent a point and now sells at 70c dressed.

The hog business is dead and buried along with the wheat and corn crops. It seems to be the tendency among all kinds of stock to wear their skins, at least the buyers can't get hold of them in any quantity.

Pendleton Retail Grocery Prices.

Coffee—Mocha and Java, best, 40c per lb.; next grade, 35c per lb.; lower grade, 25c to 15c per lb.; package coffee, and 20c per lb., 5 packages for 50c. Rice—Best head rice, 12 1/2c per lb.; next grade, 10c per lb. Flour—B. H., $4 per barrel; Walers', $4 per barrel. California berries, 12c box. Walla Walla berries, 20c box. Apples, 12c bunch. Radishes, 5c bunch. Onions, 5c bunch. Cabbage, 5c per barrel.

Pendleton Livestock, Poultry and Produce Market.

Chickens—Hens, $4.00 per dozen; roosters, 4 to 5 cents. Turkeys, 12 1/2c per pound. Geese, per dozen, $9. Ducks, per dozen, $4. Butter, 20c per roll. Eggs, 16 2/3c. Parsnips, 75c per sack. Onions, 75c per sack. Potatoes, 50c to 75c per hundred. Garlic, 15c per pound. Choice Beef Cattle, Etc. Cows, per hundred, $3,250 to $3,750. Steers, $4,000 to $4,500. Hogs, live, $6,250 to $7,250. Hogs, dressed, 70c to 75c. Veal, dressed, 70c to 85c.

Local Hide Market.

The following are the prevailing average prices for hides in this market: Beef, green, 4c per lb.; beef, dressed, 3c per lb.; sheep, green, 3c per lb.; sheep, dressed, 2c per lb.; horse, perfect, with head, tail and mane, $1 to $1.25; sheep, green, 6c; sheep, $1c per lb.; skunk, 25c to 40c; badger, 20c to 40c.

The Wheat Trade.

Portland, May 28.—There has been very little wheat disposed of during the week, and the country in the first hands were very small, and whatever remains are only small parcels. A few unimportant sales have been made during the week, in small lots only. There is some demand for wheat for the U. K. and a couple of ships have been taken for that destination during the week.

San Francisco Markets.

San Francisco, May 28.—The wheat market is dull and very little business is passing, as stocks are extremely low and there is no doubt that a large amount of wheat will have to be imported here and throughout the state to keep the mills in operation to supply the home consumption, and to cover the shortage of wheat for export.

SO DIFFERENT.

Lots of Claims Like This But so Different—Local Proof is What Pendleton People Want. There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe, hard to prove.

What people say in Florida. I got expressions from California. Ofttimes good indorsement there. But of little service here at home. Pendleton people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.
